

AGENTS - New York: J. C. GARD, 20 Bond Street, N. Y. ... THE DAILY HERALD is published every morning except Monday...

FOR GOVERNOR: N. J. ADAMS, of Dallas County. The Daily Herald

To the Editor of the Dallas Herald: Four weeks ago, Texas, July 14, '73. To the Editor of the Dallas Herald:

To the Editor of the Dallas Herald: I notice, in your issue of the 15th inst., of the proceedings of the Democratic Club of Dallas, No. 1, in which a call is made for a "Democratic Barbecue..."

I greatly admire social reunions, of this or a similar nature, and think when properly gotten up for a proper purpose, to-wit: the cultivation of that higher order of social intercourse...

If it is desired that we have a barbecue, let us by all means have it; but let it be a people's barbecue, in the interest of no man or set of men, but as a social reunion of all well disposed persons...

JOFFINGS BY THE MAINSIDE.

To the Editor of the Dallas Herald: FRANKLIN, TENN., July 27, 1873. Through this place to-night, with the good luck of escaping cholera, we reached St. Louis from Dallas in good time...

The most attractive feature of St. Louis is that gigantic bridge in construction across the Mississippi. It is absolutely amazing; and they will make it a success. It is said the cost will be about $8,000,000.
