SMALL STRIKELET.

Elmhurst Hotel Waiters Go Out at Noon—Service is Hardly Interfered With.

Saturday morning the management of the Elmhurst Hotel experienced quite a little strike in the walking out of four of the employees of the dining hall and kitchen force.

The trouble was brought about by the influence of one of the waitresses, who becoming dissatisfied with restraints placed upon her jurisdiction in the kitchen and dining department, induced three of her fellow employees to join her in refusing to comply with the requirements of the hotel.

At 12 o'clock sharp the strike was declared on, just at the hour when the guests were preparing for luncheon and at the most embarrassing time for the management of the hotel.

F. Hulett, manager of the hotel, promptly fired the whole bunch, and although placed at a disadvantage in promptly serving lunch, only a few minutes were lost in making arrangements for service in the dining hall. Announcement of lunch was made just fifteen minutes later than the usual time, but the service was such that few of the guests were aware of the declaring and prompt settlement of a strike, which might have resulted in a hungry afternoon for the large number of guests at the hotel that day.

Superintends Big Sale.

Judge O. H. Nelson, president of the Western Stock Yards Co., departed Saturday night for Fort Madison where he goes to conduct his big sale of Panhandle calves and yearlings to corn belt feeders which will be held in that city on Oct. 26.

The cattle to be sold during this sale are all from the Panhandle country and comprise the best grades of Hereford, Angus and Shorthorn breeds, which are raised by some of the most prominent raisers in the Panhandle.

A New Sunday School.

Rev. Geo. A. Chatfield general missionary of the Congregational church has organized a Sunday school at 100 Buchanan St. The first services were held on last Sunday, with a good attendance, and interesting classes. Regular meetings will be held at the above number at 3 p. m. each Sabbath and every one is most cordially invited.

AFFAIR OF HEARTS

Miss Trigg Entertains the J. U. G. Girls and Happy Announcement is Made.

Miss Mamie Trigg entertained the members of the J. U. G. Club yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Twitchell on Pierce street. The object of the meeting was the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Maud Roberts, a member of the club to W. T. Coble, who resides at Adobe Wells, in Hutchinson county, where he has extensive ranch interests.

The reception hall, parlors and drawing room were tastefully decorated with white and red hearts which were displayed in every conceivable form. Each guest was presented with a small heart bearing an original verse, the solving of which was the surprise exponent by the guests in the announcement of the wedding which was written on a large heart and concealed from view. The guests after a thorough search were successful in finding it with the above announcement.

The marriage will be celebrated at the Baptist church on the evening of November 16th. Immediately following the ceremony the young couple will depart for Canada, where they will spend the winter.

Looking After Cattle Interests

Erasmus Wilson of Los Angeles, president of the Wilson, Popham Cattle Company, accompanied by Al Popham manager of the same company with headquarters here, were in Amarillo Friday and Saturday, leaving after a two day's stay for Pecos City, where they go to look after their ranching interests in that section.

The Wilson Popham Co. control the U ranch in western Texas and both of these gentlemen will spend a week or more at this ranch looking after their cattle interests.

Visits Brother Here.

Ennis Roberts, a sergeant in the 10th battery field artillery U. S. A., stationed at Fort Shilling, Minn., was in the city Saturday and Sunday, the guest of his brother, W. S. Roberts. Mr. Roberts is off on a 90 days furlough and is on his way to visit his father, who resides near Fort Worth. Mr. Roberts has been in the regular army over three years and upon the expiration of his enlistment, recently reenlisted again for three years. He discredits the old story that regulars in the United States army have no privileges and are subjected to the roughest kind of treatment. He says that his experience in the service has always been pleasant and that the life of an army man is interesting and instructive and far from being a life of drudgery as frequently told by those who seen service in either the regular army or the volunteers.

Talk of The Shops For Amarillo.

Did it ever occur to you why we have advertised so much, "Your money back if you want it?"

It might seem strange to you, that for any reason or other—with in your own jurisdiction—that you can return merchandise purchased from us, and have your money refunded.

It might seem even stranger, that we are willing to let you take our goods, go and compare them with any of our competitors, and then if you find others of better value for the same money, or the same value for less money, or for any reason whatsoever, you return the merchandise and get your money back.

But the explanation is simple—OUR GOODS ARE RIGHT—AND WE KNOW THE PRICES ARE RIGHT, combining value and quality with reasonable prices, goods that fit both body and purse.

We have the largest stock of goods to select from that you want, such as mens', boys' and childrens' suits, shoes, hose, underwear, ladies' tailor-made suits and coats, blankets, comforts, furs—too much to enumerate, in fact every luxury and necessity of life, in the dry goods and clothing world.

Amarillo's cheapest, oldest and best dry goods and clothing establishment, where the best and shrewdest buyers and smartest dressers buy their goods.

Purchase Land in Moore.

J. H. Nordmann, B. Knuff, B. Nannemann and W. F. Becker formed a prospecting party here last week from Mein Mo.

Each member of the party, with the exception of Mr. Becker, who is three postmaster at Wein, are practical farmers and their visit here was for the purpose of investigating suitable land for farming purposes. They spent several days looking over the land in the immediate vicinity of Amarillo and were favorably impressed with condition^s as they found them. They returned home Monday night but they would in all probability later close deals for farms in Moore county between Amarillo and Dumas.

Well Known Breeder Here.
James Free of Brookfield Mo., senior partner of the firm of James Free & Son, dealers in fine horses and stallions, was in the city a few days last week, leaving for his home in Brookfield yesterday evening.

This was Mr. Free's third visit to Amarillo and the Panhandle and he states that he is just as enthusiastically impressed with the great possibilities of this section of the country as he was upon his first visit here nearly three years ago. Mr. Free says that the livestock raisers and farmers of the Panhandle are coming to realize the importance of breeding their range and work horses up to the highest standard of use. He says that the better quality horse bears the same relation to its owner as graded or registered cattle and in comparison of values the horse is by far the most important to the owner.

During his recent visit here Mr. Free investigated the land possibilities in Moore and adjoining counties and says that he will likely invest in land in these counties later.

signed to a check, either, but gave Sneed & Horn of Hereford preference. One could get any kind of an old check from him, however, very particular whose name he and size didn't seem to cut much figure. He fleeced the town to the amount of about $500 or $600, and started for fresh fields. The sheriff of Deaf Smith county, however, was on his heels and rounded him up in Amarillo. We are informed he has respectable, well-to-do relatives in Texas, but as this seems not to be his first act of rascality, they will not come to his assistance.—Texico Trumpet.
