

PERSONAL MENTION

Judge J. F. Eason, of Tucumcari, passed through here today on his way to Arkansas, his home of earlier years. M. H. Marks, of Covington, Tenn., was a visitor in Amarillo today. Mr. Marks is en route home from a trip to Denver. Mell Armstrong, of Tascosa, the popular candidate for sheriff of Oldham county, is a business visitor in the city today. Mrs. Robert Hall and daughter of Wichita Falls, are here for a visit to Mrs. W. L. Ponder on south Harrison street. Miss Jordan, general organizer for the C. W. B. M. in Texas, is here for a day or two in the interest of that organization. Mrs. V. Edna Henson, of Canyon City, stopped over in Amarillo on her return home from a visit to Matador and Dickens City. Mrs. Sue Walker, of Paris, and Mrs. C. O. Berry, of Vinita, Okla., are here for a visit to Mrs. A. L. Daily at 1410 Taylor. J. T. and Gary Hargrove, of Sulphur, Okla., are here for a visit to their brother, J. H. Hargrove, of Hartley & Hargrove grocery. Joe Matthews, representing Rice-Stix Dry Goods company, of St. Louis, has arrived with his family and will make Amarillo his future home. Mrs. Charles Armstrong, of 605 Van Buren street gave birth to a fine baby girl yesterday morning. Both mother and child are doing well. Mrs. Baldwin, of Oklahoma City, stopped over yesterday with the family of Ben E. Smith. She is en route to Tulsa for a visit with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shaffer, of the Plainview Herald, stopped over in Amarillo while on their way to Clarendon to attend the N. W. T. P. A. meeting. Messrs. Bivins, Donitz & Isaacs have purchased a new 7-passenger Pope-Toledo automobile to be used to take prospective buyers to Famous Heights Park lots. D. Gilvin and J. S. Nugent spent yesterday with W. A. Newlin fifteen miles north of here and brought back an ear of corn thirteen inches long inside the shuck. R. R. Galbraith, of Tulla, is here looking round with a wise eye, ready wit and more ready currency to take advantage of some of the great advantages of this section. J. M. Rockwell, president of the Rockwell Lumber company at Houston, is visiting with lumber men here. Mr. Rockwell will go from here to Colorado for a few weeks outing. The Skinner & Gilcoat company closed a contract yesterday with the commissioners' court of Randall county for the erection of a $53,500 courthouse to be erected at Canyon. Miss Margaret Boulwer, late stenographer for Mayor Lon D. Marrs, has transferred her business abilities to the Monarch Land company, her place being temporarily filled by Miss Copeland. J. V. Pottinger has just returned from a pleasure trip to points in east Texas. Mr. Pottinger reports crops fine, his millet and kaffir corn being waist high and watermelons extra well developed. H. R. Jack, representing Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Co., of Chicago, is in town. He arrived Saturday and left his mark at the Glenwood traps with a score of twenty-two out of twenty-five. Among the many people investigating Amarillo's climatic virtues and productive soils are, Ha Murph of Miami, and C. H. White of Plainview. Their optimistic views are ununsullied. J. W. Rogers, of Hereford, Texas, has bought out the Flag hotel on Buchanan street and took possession this morning. Consideration was $900. Dr. J. R. Wrather was instrumental in the deal being consummated. Morris Isaacs, who has been visiting his brother Joe of "Famous" fame, will return to Cincinnati Wednesday with his 13-year old son. He reports having had a good time and leaves with a kindly feeling for Amarillo and her citizens. Messrs. C. C. Chenoweth, W. A. Askew and Howard Ferguson, and Misses McDonald and Lambeth will leave tonight for Corpus Christi, where they go to attend state convention of the Epworth League as delegates from Amarillo. W. B. Clayton, a railroad employe, while coupling cars yesterday, by some means made a miscue and smashed two fingers of his right hand. Under the careful treatment administered by Dr. J. R. Wrather, he, in all probability will retain the use of his hand. H. P. Canode yesterday put in his order for one of the latest models of Winchesters made, and says his disparaging scores over the traps does not discourage him. In fact he's hopeful and declares there'll be something doing before he's through.

Interest in the Amarillo Gun Club's operations are growing to such an extent and there is, on every occasion, such a crowd of enthusiastic non-participants, that it has been decided to erect a grand stand for their accommodation. This was commenced today and when completed will seat 200 people. Colonel P. C. Hughes of Elk City, who got married yesterday at the Elmhurst was the recipient of the biggest bunches of rice, old shoes and whatnots of any individual that ever attempted to tempt fate. After the ceremony he was serenaded with guitar, mandolins, trombones, cornets, fiddles and every phase of instrument that ever found its way into a musical catalog. And he's living yet. Active at 87. This would be no unusual news if men and women would keep themselves free from rheumatism and aches and pains as well as keeping their muscles and joints limber with Ballard's Snow Liniment. Sold by L. O. Thompson & Co. Smokes Eighty Years, Quits. Special to Daily Panhandle. Chester, Pa., Aug. 5.—After smoking for eighty years, A. W. Cromwell, aged 96, has decided that use of the weed is a bad habit and has thrown away his pipes. The Laziest Man in the World would not be contented to be kept in the house and doing nothing by rheumatism. Neither are you, who are always busy and active. Then don't neglect the first twinge of an ache or pain that you might think is just a "crick." Rub well with Ballard's Snow Liniment and no matter what the trouble is, it will disappear at once. Sold by L. O. Thompson & Co. Masons Honor Washington. Special to Daily Panhandle. Fredericksburg, Va., Aug. 5.—A movement to secure funds for the erection of a Masonic memorial temple to George Washington has been started by the local lodge of Masons. The Father of His Country was made a Mason by the Fredericksburg lodge in 1752. The Bible used in the lodge when Washington was given his degrees and the records of the lodge, signed by the greatest of Americans, are still in existence. Masons all over the country will be asked to contribute to the memory fund. The electric railways of Pennsylvania are capitalized for more than $500,000,000.
