

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Nixon, of Dallas, is here for the summer. H. H. Cooper will take in the reunion today. G. A. Gosser went down the P. V. this morning.

Miss Ora Burson is visiting in Clarendon today. Bob Reid made a business trip to Clovis, N. M., today.

J. M. George left for Sherman on business last night. Mrs. Howard Wilson left last night.

John and Henry Vance, of Centralia, Mo., are here prospecting this week. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stewart left this afternoon for McKinney for a week's visit.

A. W. Callahan, of the Tullis Standard, is hunting a printer here today. Charles Pease and son, of Mexico, Mo., are looking over Amarillo country today.

Captain Warren went down to Canyon City this morning to attend the reunion. John McKnight returned last night from a business trip to Chicago and Detroit.

Guy Henson went to Canyon City last night to visit his parents and attend the reunion. Mrs. James E. Wilson returned today from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Willard at Texico.

Albert Stroud and family, of Plainview, are here visiting relatives and old friends this week. S. D. Fitch, of Paris, Texas, is visiting with his family who are spending the summer here.

are visiting with the families of E. L. and W. B. Dohoney here this week. R. A. Coverdale is in Oklahoma for a few days looking over educational possibilities in the new state.

Mrs. Coverdale is filling his position at the college during his absence. Miss Mae Chester, who has been quite sick at the sanitarium for some time, is sufficiently recovered to be removed to her home on Taylor street.

S. A. Cousins and a party of associates from McLean are expected in Amarillo tonight on their way to Canyon City with a magnificent display of Gray county farm products. Gray county received considerable favorable comment last season on the good showing made both at Shamrock and Dallas and is classed as one of the best agricultural sections of the Panhandle.

The Laziest Man in the World would not be contented to be kept in the house and doing nothing by rheumatism. Neither are you, who are always busy and active. Then don't neglect the first twinge of an ache or pain that you might think is just a "crick."

WANTED—Hay to bale. Address box 481. B. Ford 33 4c. Active at 87. This would be no unusual news if men and women would keep themselves free from rheumatism and aches and pains as well as keeping their muscles and joints limber with Ballard's Snow Liniment.

Hundreds of Amarillo Readers Find Daily Toil a Burden. The hustle and worry of business men. The hard work and stooping of workmen. The woman's household cares, are too great a strain on the kidneys.

Disagreeable at Home. Lots of men and women who are disagreeable with others, get "cranky" at home. Its not disposition, its the liver. If you find in yourself that you feel cross around the house, little things worry you, just buy a bottle of Ballard's Herbine and put your liver in shape.

FOR SALE—Brood sows, bred by thoroughbred boar. J. F. Roberts, St. Francis, Texas. 33 8p. Disagreeable at Home. Lots of men and women who are disagreeable with others, get "cranky" at home.

are made by all soothing syrups and baby medicines that contain opium and narcotics. McGee's Baby Elixir contains no injurious or narcotic drugs of any kind. A sure and safe cure for disordered stomachs, bowels and fretfulness—splendid for teething infants.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. Baby Morphine Fiends. Sold by L. O. Thompson & Co.

BETTER THAN SPANKING. Spanking does not cure children of bad-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions.

Nearly 1,000 Pianos at a Bargain. Lyon & Healy, of Chicago, known everywhere as the world's largest music house, have just done a remarkable thing. They have bought for cash the entire stocks of three large Chicago piano houses.

Active at 87. This would be no unusual news if men and women would keep themselves free from rheumatism and aches and pains as well as keeping their muscles and joints limber with Ballard's Snow Liniment.

Hundreds of Amarillo Readers Find Daily Toil a Burden. The hustle and worry of business men. The hard work and stooping of workmen. The woman's household cares, are too great a strain on the kidneys.

Disagreeable at Home. Lots of men and women who are disagreeable with others, get "cranky" at home. Its not disposition, its the liver. If you find in yourself that you feel cross around the house, little things worry you, just buy a bottle of Ballard's Herbine and put your liver in shape.

FOR SALE—Brood sows, bred by thoroughbred boar. J. F. Roberts, St. Francis, Texas. 33 8p. Disagreeable at Home. Lots of men and women who are disagreeable with others, get "cranky" at home.

are made by all soothing syrups and baby medicines that contain opium and narcotics. McGee's Baby Elixir contains no injurious or narcotic drugs of any kind. A sure and safe cure for disordered stomachs, bowels and fretfulness—splendid for teething infants.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. Baby Morphine Fiends. Sold by L. O. Thompson & Co.

MANY THOUSANDS AT NOTIFICATION

(Continued From Page One)

1908—specifically call for a change in the constitution which will put the election of senators in the hands of the voters, and the proposition has been endorsed by a number of the smaller parties, but no Republican national convention has been willing to champion the cause of the people on this subject.

Personal Inclination Not Sufficient. In his notification speech, the Republican candidate, speaking of the election of senators by the people, says: "Personally, I am inclined to favor it, but it is hardly a party question."

The Gateway to Other Reforms. "Shall the people rule?" Every remedial measure of a national character must run the gauntlet of the senate. The president may personally incline toward a reform; the house may consent to it; but as long as the senate obstructs the reform, the people must wait.

House Rules Despotie. The third instrumentality employed to defeat the will of the people found in the rules of the house of representatives. Our platform points out that "the house of representatives was designed by the fathers of the constitution, to be the popular branch of our government, responsive to the public will."

Democratic Party Defender of Honest Wealth. We may expect those who have committed larceny by law and purchased immunity with their political influence, to attempt to raise false issues, and to employ "the livery of heaven" to conceal their evil purposes, but they can no longer deceive.

This arraignment is fully justified. The reform Republicans in the house of representatives, when in the minority in their own party, are as helpless to obtain a hearing or to secure a vote on a measure as the Democrats. In the recent session of the present congress, there was a considerable element in the Republican party favorable to remedial legislation.

checked, cast upon them. Only by the separation of the good from the bad can the good be made secure. Not Revolution but Reformation. The Democratic party seeks not revolution but reformation, and I need hardly remind the student of history that cures are milder when applied at once; that remedies increase in severity as their application is postponed.

Justice to All. Recognizing that I am indebted for my nomination to the rank and file of our party, and that my election must come, if it comes at all, from the unpurchased and unpurchasable suffrages of the American people, I promise, if entrusted with the responsibilities of this high office to consecrate whatever ability I have to the one purpose of making this, in fact, a government in which the people rule—a government which will do justice to all and offer to every one the highest possible stimulus to great and persistent effort, by assuring to each the enjoyment of his just share of the proceeds of his toil, no matter in what part of the vineyard he labors, or to what occupation, profession or calling he devotes himself.

well organized minority. The Republican national convention, instead of rebuking this attack upon the popular government, eulogized congress, and nominated as the Republican candidate for vice president one of the men who shared in the responsibility for the coercion of the house. Our party demands that "the house of representatives shall again become a deliberative body, controlled by a majority of the people's representatives, and not by the speaker."

Other Issues Will Be Discussed Later. "Shall the people rule?" I repeat is declared by our platform to be the overshadowing question, and as the campaign progresses, I shall take occasion to discuss this question as it manifests itself in other issues; for whether we consider the tariff question, the trust question, the railroad question, the banking question, the labor question, the question of imperialism, the development of our waterways, or any other of the numerous problems which press for solution, we shall find that the real question involved in each is, whether the government shall remain a mere business asset of favor seeking corporations, or be an instrument in the hands of the people for the advancement of the common weal.

Democratic Party Has Earned Confidence. If the voters are satisfied with the record of the Republican party and with its management of public affairs we can not reasonably ask for a change in administration; if, however, the voters feel that the people, as a whole, have too little influence in shaping the policies of the government; if they feel that great combinations of capital have encroached upon the rights of the masses, and employed the instrumentalities of government to secure an unfair share of the total wealth produced, then we have a right to expect a verdict against the Republican party and in favor of the Democratic party; for our party has risked defeat—aye, suffered defeat—in its effort to arouse the conscience of the public and to bring about that very awakening to which Mr. Taft has referred.

Only those are worthy to be entrusted with leadership in a great cause who are willing to die for it, and the Democratic party has proven its worthiness by its refusal to purchase victory by delivering the people into the hands of those who have despoiled them. In this contest between Democracy on the one side and plutocracy on the other, the Democratic party has taken its position on the side of equal rights, and invites the opposition of those who use politics to secure special privileges and governmental favoritism. Gauging the progress of the nation, not by the happiness or wealth or refinement of a few, but "by the prosperity and advancement of the average man," the Democratic party charges the Republican party with being the promoter of present abuses, the opponent of necessary remedies and the bulwark of private monopoly. The Democratic party affirms that in this campaign it is the only party, having a prospect of success, which stands for justice in government and for equity in the division of the fruits of industry.

Democratic Party Defender of Honest Wealth. We may expect those who have committed larceny by law and purchased immunity with their political influence, to attempt to raise false issues, and to employ "the livery of heaven" to conceal their evil purposes, but they can no longer deceive. The Democratic party is not the enemy of any legitimate industry or of honest accumulations. It is, on the contrary, a friend of industry and the steadfast protector of that wealth which represents a service to society. The Democratic party does not seek to annihilate all corporations; it simply asserts that as the government creates corporations, it must retain the power to regulate and to control them, and that it should not permit any corporation to convert itself into a monopoly. Surely we should have the co-operation of all legitimate corporations, in our effort to protect business and industry from the odium which lawless combinations of capital will, if unchecked, cast upon them. Only by the separation of the good from the bad can the good be made secure. Not Revolution but Reformation. The Democratic party seeks not revolution but reformation, and I need hardly remind the student of history that cures are milder when applied at once; that remedies increase in severity as their application is postponed.

Justice to All. Recognizing that I am indebted for my nomination to the rank and file of our party, and that my election must come, if it comes at all, from the unpurchased and unpurchasable suffrages of the American people, I promise, if entrusted with the responsibilities of this high office to consecrate whatever ability I have to the one purpose of making this, in fact, a government in which the people rule—a government which will do justice to all and offer to every one the highest possible stimulus to great and persistent effort, by assuring to each the enjoyment of his just share of the proceeds of his toil, no matter in what part of the vineyard he labors, or to what occupation, profession or calling he devotes himself.

checked, cast upon them. Only by the separation of the good from the bad can the good be made secure. Not Revolution but Reformation. The Democratic party seeks not revolution but reformation, and I need hardly remind the student of history that cures are milder when applied at once; that remedies increase in severity as their application is postponed.

Justice to All. Recognizing that I am indebted for my nomination to the rank and file of our party, and that my election must come, if it comes at all, from the unpurchased and unpurchasable suffrages of the American people, I promise, if entrusted with the responsibilities of this high office to consecrate whatever ability I have to the one purpose of making this, in fact, a government in which the people rule—a government which will do justice to all and offer to every one the highest possible stimulus to great and persistent effort, by assuring to each the enjoyment of his just share of the proceeds of his toil, no matter in what part of the vineyard he labors, or to what occupation, profession or calling he devotes himself.

checked, cast upon them. Only by the separation of the good from the bad can the good be made secure. Not Revolution but Reformation. The Democratic party seeks not revolution but reformation, and I need hardly remind the student of history that cures are milder when applied at once; that remedies increase in severity as their application is postponed.

Justice to All. Recognizing that I am indebted for my nomination to the rank and file of our party, and that my election must come, if it comes at all, from the unpurchased and unpurchasable suffrages of the American people, I promise, if entrusted with the responsibilities of this high office to consecrate whatever ability I have to the one purpose of making this, in fact, a government in which the people rule—a government which will do justice to all and offer to every one the highest possible stimulus to great and persistent effort, by assuring to each the enjoyment of his just share of the proceeds of his toil, no matter in what part of the vineyard he labors, or to what occupation, profession or calling he devotes himself.

checked, cast upon them. Only by the separation of the good from the bad can the good be made secure. Not Revolution but Reformation. The Democratic party seeks not revolution but reformation, and I need hardly remind the student of history that cures are milder when applied at once; that remedies increase in severity as their application is postponed.

Justice to All. Recognizing that I am indebted for my nomination to the rank and file of our party, and that my election must come, if it comes at all, from the unpurchased and unpurchasable suffrages of the American people, I promise, if entrusted with the responsibilities of this high office to consecrate whatever ability I have to the one purpose of making this, in fact, a government in which the people rule—a government which will do justice to all and offer to every one the highest possible stimulus to great and persistent effort, by assuring to each the enjoyment of his just share of the proceeds of his toil, no matter in what part of the vineyard he labors, or to what occupation, profession or calling he devotes himself.

checked, cast upon them. Only by the separation of the good from the bad can the good be made secure. Not Revolution but Reformation. The Democratic party seeks not revolution but reformation, and I need hardly remind the student of history that cures are milder when applied at once; that remedies increase in severity as their application is postponed.

Justice to All. Recognizing that I am indebted for my nomination to the rank and file of our party, and that my election must come, if it comes at all, from the unpurchased and unpurchasable suffrages of the American people, I promise, if entrusted with the responsibilities of this high office to consecrate whatever ability I have to the one purpose of making this, in fact, a government in which the people rule—a government which will do justice to all and offer to every one the highest possible stimulus to great and persistent effort, by assuring to each the enjoyment of his just share of the proceeds of his toil, no matter in what part of the vineyard he labors, or to what occupation, profession or calling he devotes himself.

checked, cast upon them. Only by the separation of the good from the bad can the good be made secure. Not Revolution but Reformation. The Democratic party seeks not revolution but reformation, and I need hardly remind the student of history that cures are milder when applied at once; that remedies increase in severity as their application is postponed.

Justice to All. Recognizing that I am indebted for my nomination to the rank and file of our party, and that my election must come, if it comes at all, from the unpurchased and unpurchasable suffrages of the American people, I promise, if entrusted with the responsibilities of this high office to consecrate whatever ability I have to the one purpose of making this, in fact, a government in which the people rule—a government which will do justice to all and offer to every one the highest possible stimulus to great and persistent effort, by assuring to each the enjoyment of his just share of the proceeds of his toil, no matter in what part of the vineyard he labors, or to what occupation, profession or calling he devotes himself.

checked, cast upon them. Only by the separation of the good from the bad can the good be made secure. Not Revolution but Reformation. The Democratic party seeks not revolution but reformation, and I need hardly remind the student of history that cures are milder when applied at once; that remedies increase in severity as their application is postponed.

checked, cast upon them. Only by the separation of the good from the bad can the good be made secure. Not Revolution but Reformation. The Democratic party seeks not revolution but reformation, and I need hardly remind the student of history that cures are milder when applied at once; that remedies increase in severity as their application is postponed.

Justice to All. Recognizing that I am indebted for my nomination to the rank and file of our party, and that my election must come, if it comes at all, from the unpurchased and unpurchasable suffrages of the American people, I promise, if entrusted with the responsibilities of this high office to consecrate whatever ability I have to the one purpose of making this, in fact, a government in which the people rule—a government which will do justice to all and offer to every one the highest possible stimulus to great and persistent effort, by assuring to each the enjoyment of his just share of the proceeds of his toil, no matter in what part of the vineyard he labors, or to what occupation, profession or calling he devotes himself.

checked, cast upon them. Only by the separation of the good from the bad can the good be made secure. Not Revolution but Reformation. The Democratic party seeks not revolution but reformation, and I need hardly remind the student of history that cures are milder when applied at once; that remedies increase in severity as their application is postponed.

Justice to All. Recognizing that I am indebted for my nomination to the rank and file of our party, and that my election must come, if it comes at all, from the unpurchased and unpurchasable suffrages of the American people, I promise, if entrusted with the responsibilities of this high office to consecrate whatever ability I have to the one purpose of making this, in fact, a government in which the people rule—a government which will do justice to all and offer to every one the highest possible stimulus to great and persistent effort, by assuring to each the enjoyment of his just share of the proceeds of his toil, no matter in what part of the vineyard he labors, or to what occupation, profession or calling he devotes himself.

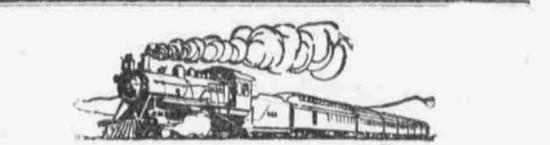

checked, cast upon them. Only by the separation of the good from the bad can the good be made secure. Not Revolution but Reformation. The Democratic party seeks not revolution but reformation, and I need hardly remind the student of history that cures are milder when applied at once; that remedies increase in severity as their application is postponed.

Justice to All. Recognizing that I am indebted for my nomination to the rank and file of our party, and that my election must come, if it comes at all, from the unpurchased and unpurchasable suffrages of the American people, I promise, if entrusted with the responsibilities of this high office to consecrate whatever ability I have to the one purpose of making this, in fact, a government in which the people rule—a government which will do justice to all and offer to every one the highest possible stimulus to great and persistent effort, by assuring to each the enjoyment of his just share of the proceeds of his toil, no matter in what part of the vineyard he labors, or to what occupation, profession or calling he devotes himself.

checked, cast upon them. Only by the separation of the good from the bad can the good be made secure. Not Revolution but Reformation. The Democratic party seeks not revolution but reformation, and I need hardly remind the student of history that cures are milder when applied at once; that remedies increase in severity as their application is postponed.

Justice to All. Recognizing that I am indebted for my nomination to the rank and file of our party, and that my election must come, if it comes at all, from the unpurchased and unpurchasable suffrages of the American people, I promise, if entrusted with the responsibilities of this high office to consecrate whatever ability I have to the one purpose of making this, in fact, a government in which the people rule—a government which will do justice to all and offer to every one the highest possible stimulus to great and persistent effort, by assuring to each the enjoyment of his just share of the proceeds of his toil, no matter in what part of the vineyard he labors, or to what occupation, profession or calling he devotes himself.

checked, cast upon them. Only by the separation of the good from the bad can the good be made secure. Not Revolution but Reformation. The Democratic party seeks not revolution but reformation, and I need hardly remind the student of history that cures are milder when applied at once; that remedies increase in severity as their application is postponed.

Railroad Time Table. Arrival and departure of all trains in and out of Amarillo, Tex.—Central Time. Southern Kansas, Pecos Valley & Northeastern, Plainview Branch, Albuquerque Branch, Chicago, Rock Island & Gulf, Ft. Worth & Denver City.

Bank Assets. THE MOST valuable Asset any Bank can have is the confidence reposed in it. NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE AMARILLO, TEXAS. J.L. SMITH, President, M.C. NOBLE, Vice Pres., B.C.D. BYNUM, Cashier.

Dishes Dishes Dishes. You ought to know that a better selection can be made from a large open stock than from a small one. Morrow Thomas & Kline Co. RELIABLE GOODS AT REASONABLE PRICES.

HOW THEY STAND

The standing of contestants in the Daily Panhandle Popularity Contest at noon, August 8, was as follows: Miss Annie Slade, Amarillo, 789475; Miss Anna Maud Davidson, Plainview, 479375; Miss Zona Slay, Groom, 424285; Miss Jennie Franklin, Amarillo, 366275; Miss Bertha Altizer, Jericho, 161685; Miss Bess Haney, Canyon City, 97325; Miss Leora Britain, Amarillo, 89525; Miss Bettie Austin, Amarillo, 66875; Miss Jennie Lee Hedrick, Amarillo, 59235; Miss Myrtle Ledford, Amarillo, 40099; Miss Leone Brien, Amarillo, 33825; Miss Ruth Bauer, Amarillo, 32335; Mrs. John Clary, Amarillo, 25499; Miss Mabel Atwood, Amarillo, 28159; Miss Mayvie Cornelius, Amarillo, 29259; Mrs. Jack Jones, Amarillo, 19225; Miss Anice Smith, Amarillo, 18775; Miss Annie Landis, Amarillo, 17769; Miss Mamie Walker, Amarillo, 16359; Miss Fannie Trolinger, Amarillo, 12959; Miss Irma Martin, Dalhart, 10425; Mrs. Flossye Pope, Amarillo, 9799; Miss Mollie Barnes, Tulla, 9419; Miss Eva Blackwell, Amarillo, 9135; Miss Katie Root, Amarillo, 8959; Miss Pearl Thompson, McLean, 6559; Miss Cecil Reid, Amarillo, 6435; Miss Edna Killion, Amarillo, 6359; Miss Maggie Green, Amarillo, 4875; Miss Lottie Cooley, Amarillo, 3875; Miss Jerry Crook, Amarillo, 3925; Miss Willa Mae Mellard, Amarillo, 3025; Miss Dot Batson, Amarillo, 2559; Miss Sudbel Warren, Hereford, 2559; Miss Hazel Harmon, Amarillo, 2459; Miss Lucy Bishop, Washburn, 2119; Miss Pansy Moore, Shamrock, 2109; Miss Belle Nichols, Texico, 1509; Miss Susie Meaders, Stratford, 1775; Miss Lulu Harrington, Dalhart, 1769; Miss Fay Dodson, Clarendon, 1309; Mrs. Gus Hollander, Amarillo, 975; Miss Fern Demick, Amarillo, 959; Miss Emma Benjamin, Amarillo, 809; Miss Ruth DeWitt, Amarillo, 675; Miss Evelyn Roberts, Amarillo, 369.