rights of man." Correct, and the most iniquitous laws ever directed against "the rights of man" were fathered by demagogues who posed as friends of the people, and yet they assassinated the rights of man and the liberties of the people.—Dallas Times Herald.

"Assassinated the rights of man and the liberties of the people! !!" In your eye. We have seen the exercise of this rights of man and the liberties of the people under the old way, and have seen the decent element of communities knocked into a cocked hat by the votes of a class whose poll taxes were bought in bunches and voted in gangs. The above argument is as convincing as looking for clear sunlight through the bung-hole into a barrel.

This is the real growing weather, all right.

In the meantime the crops keep right on growing.

Tomorrow issues in the beginning of summer, but the season arrived several days ahead of schedule. Just keep cool, don't get excited and don't worry, and the hot weather will not be so bad.

Candidate Hawkins for lieutenant governor will address the people of this city at the city hall this evening. He promises to pay his respects to Bascom Thomas, and no doubt will open a large bottle of ginger.

in Texas was fined $200 because he loaned a friend $1.75 with which to pay his poll tax. No state that upholds a law of this kind is going to prosper. The man who thought of having a law like that passed would readily vote for a law requiring every person in the state to join the church and believe just like him. He is an ignorant and dangerous tyrant.

"Yes, it was infamous to make poverty a crime and to make it a criminal offense for a man to borrow to pay a debt he owed the state. The law was drafted by democrats, enacted by democrats, signed by a democratic governor, upheld by a court of democrats after the lamented John M. Henderson had passed away, and it is Russian Cossackism pure and simple. The Fort Worth Record agrees with the Beaumont Journal. "When Colonel A. W. Terrell of Austin was pleading with the legislature to insert this provision in the election law, he solemnly declared that it was necessary to save the old ship of state," says the Record, "from the rock of corrupt elections. Be it known that Colonel Terrell has not made a public speech in forty years in which he has not declared for the

An exchange complains that Texas peaches now on the market are bringing republican tariff prices. Good sir, this is a case of a good thing demanding and commanding a good price. Later, when the supply is larger the prices will drop to where the fruit will become democratic in price.

Waco celebrated in royal style the gift of a splendid park to that city by the Cameron family. It is a splendid gift and the people have a right to feel good. Palestine would feel good if some public-spirited citizen should come across with a park place. If there is any doubt of this let some one make the experiment.

All candidates for the legislature should be interviewed and asked to state publicly from the platform all over the county whether or not they will vote for submission in case the matter is put up to them by the people. A man's attitude on prohibition should also be known along with how he stands on other public questions.

The Waco Times-Herald goes on asking questions. It now wants to know why, if it is wrong for the majority in Texas to vote prohibition on the state, why it is not also wrong for Cooke county to vote prohibition on Gainesville, which voted wet? This is a question that cannot be answered without admitting that the majority have a right to rule.

Bouquets are coming from all directions to the Houston Chronicle for its splendid house-warming number, issued last week. It was a great paper, and reflected the greatness of Houston. A newspaper can always make good when the business people stand behind it with a good patronage. There is enough advertising business thrown away on cheap schemes in every town in Texas of any proportion to support a good newspaper. The Herald could take the advertising business given to schemes of one kind and another in Palestine and run a metropolitan paper every day in the week. And nothing reflects the greatness of a town like a well patronized newspaper. Think it over.

GREGG RETURNS HOME

The Family Arrived Last Night From Washington, to Spend the Summer Here.

Congressman A. W. Gregg and Mrs. Gregg arrived home last night, after spending the winter in Washington, where Mr. Gregg was in attendance on the strenuous session of congress. Mr. and Mrs. Gregg are always glad to be back with their home people, as the people here are glad to have them. Mr. Gregg is a candidate for re-election, and has two opponents in the field. The Palestine man has many warm supporters throughout the district who will use their best efforts in behalf of his re-election.

EXPLODED DYNAMITE CAP.

Fourteen-Year-Old Boy at Taylor Sustained Serious Injuries.

Taylor, Texas, May 30.—Shelby Griffith, the 14-year-old son of Morgan Griffith of this city, was painfully shot and wounded in both eyes and in his face, hands and legs, with particles of copper, steel and cement, when he exploded a dynamite cap on the sidewalk in front of his father's office on First street this afternoon. The boy found the cap on the walk, and taking a hammer and chisel struck it, the explosion following and the impact knocking him to the walk. Fragments of steel from the chisel and bits of cement from the walk penetrated both eyeballs, his face and limbs. He was taken to Austin for treatment this evening.

A WEAK WOMAN AND HER STORY

In Floral, Ark., Lives a Lady Who Feels That Her Strength Was Restored by Cardui.

Floral, Ark.—"I must speak a good word for Cardui," writes Mrs. Viola Baker, of this place.

"About a month ago I was in very bad health. I was so weak and nervous that I was not able to do my housework.

"My husband bought me one bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic. I took it according to directions and now I am in good health.

"I think Cardui is a fine tonic for weak women."

And you are not the only lady who thinks so, Mrs. Baker.

Thousands, like you, have written to tell of the wonderful benefit Cardui has been to them.

Cardui contains no minerals, or other powerful drugs. It contains no glycerin or other mawkish-tasting ingredients.

It is just a pure, natural extract, of natural vegetable herbs, that have been found to regulate the womanly functions and strengthen the female system.

All druggists sell Cardui. See yours about it.
