A SPEEDY TRIAL NOW

RAILROAD RATE CASE WILL BE HEARD BY COURT AT JULY TERM — INJUNCTION EFFECTIVE IN THE MEANTIME.

(Herald Special.)
St. Louis, June 1.—Providing for a speedy determination of the issues involved in the case a contention was filed here this morning regarding the subsequent injunction issued by District Judge Dyer restraining twenty-five western railroads from effecting a freight increase. The case will be heard at the July term of the court. The case will be given precedence over other cases on the calendar, and will be heard by four judges, practically the same court that heard the suit against the Standard Oil company. The temporary injunction is effective in the meantime, but the railroads have the privilege of asking for a dissolution of the injunction at any time. The following judges of the United States circuit court will hear the case: Walter S. Sanborn, William H. Hoch, Willis Vandeventer and Elmer Adams. The court will sit here.

MADRIZ ON THE RUN

president was in conference with representative Mann and Senator
In his message the president said the recent efforts by a number of railroads to increase their freight rates caused him to direct the attorney general to start a suit of injunction, and related the action which led to the conference with the railroads enjoined in which an agreement was reached to withdraw the proposed increases until after the enactment of the railroad bill. The message also expressed the hope that the other railroads of the country would take like action in the premises. He asked that the bill as passed be made effective at once.

HE MUST STAND TRIAL

Lee O'Neil Browne Denied Writ of Habeas Corpus By Judge Scanlan Today.

(Herald Special.)
Chicago, Ill., June 7.—Lee O'Neil Browne, minority leader of the Illinois house of representatives, was denied a writ of habeas corpus by Judge Scanlan today. The writ sought to prevent the legislator's trial in Cooke county on the charge of bribing Representative White to vote for United States Senator Lorimer. Representative Browne was remanded into the custody of the sheriff. Browne's trial before Judge McShurley was set for 10 o'clock this morning, but Browne failed to appear. States Attorney Wayman demanded the forfeiture of the bond of $15,000 signed by Aldermen Powers and Brennan. The demand was granted, as the sheriff said he had not been officially notified that Browne was in the custody of the sheriff.

ROASTING ROOSEVELT

ENGLISH OPINION THAT ROOSEVELT WENT BEYOND LIMITS OF PROPRIETY IN HIS SPEECH AT GUILDHALL TUESDAY.

(Herald Special.)
London, June 1.—The government officials and the English cabinet are today convinced that Roosevelt's speech of yesterday in Guildhall, in which he rebuked England's administration of affairs in Egypt, will greatly increase the difficulty of dealing with the political situation in Egypt. The officials are making no public comment, because they regard Roosevelt as a semi-official visitor. But today's criticisms on the speech have increased in severity.

The newspapers are especially outspoken, as the following comments will show. Briefly the papers say:

Daily News: Most unfortunate.

Standard: A humiliating rebuke.

Telegraph: Bitter medicine; a blunt and brusque admonition.

Chronicle: Outraged every conventional canon of international propriety.

Globe: Don't teach grandmother to suck eggs.

Leader: The expression of the greatest of modern sentimentalists.

Manchester Guardian: Muddled, boyish, graphic. Even Socrates was pained for giving too much advice.

The real view of Roosevelt's speech is found in the streets, where the people are freed from restrictions. The comment generally is that Roosevelt went beyond the limits of all propriety touched on a subject that is none
