Woodmen Memorial Day—Attorney General Lightfoot Will Arrive Sunday Morning.

In a letter to Mr. Frank W. Pell, Attorney General Lightfoot, who is to be the orator of the day at the Woodmen's Memorial Day exercises here Sunday, announces that he will arrive in the city on the 7:15 train Sunday morning.

Announcement comes from Elkhart that some one hundred or more people will come up from that place, arriving in two special coaches attached to the 1:15 train. Also Rusk expects to send fifty or more Woodmen, and the State Railroad will hold its passenger train returning to Rusk until after the exercises. Woodmen from all over the county will be present, and some from neighboring towns will be here. A splendid program has been arranged for the day, and the exercises will be impressive and appropriate.

of the people in our last election voted for the amendment to submit this question to the people, but the legislature repudiated this simply because it was a whisky question, and for no other reason. He said the democratic party of the state of Texas made railroads and other corporations put their necks in the yoke and submit to the will of the people. That the state banks were forced to give security for their deposits, and that all of us had to render our land and property for taxation at its full value, but that it that five thousand of these Indians sacked the town of Valladolid, ninety-five miles to the southwest of Merida, killing all the principal government employes, the chief of police and others. They seized rifles and pistols and instituted a reign of terror. Many of the inhabitants of Valladolid are fleeing to Merida.

The gunboat Morelis has already left this port with six hundred soldiers aboard, while the Yucatan gunboat Zaragoza is lying in the harbor ready to take a thousand additional troops, who are expected to arrive from the interior.

Railroad and telegraph communication between Merida and the scene of the trouble is now cut off. Twenty miles of the Yucatan railroad have been destroyed by the Indians.

It is reported that many telegraph operators have been killed or are prisoners. The judge of the criminal court is among the dead.
