Just Now.

You should not delay opening a bank account. The little things that count are pennies. The nickles and dimes that most people don't count in their expenditures are the ones that waste their dollars. Better place them with this bank for safe keeping and watch them grow. Our financial standing is of the highest and we offer exceptional advantage.

A FEW WORDS
To the People Who Will Visit Our Store on the 14th

We are emphasizing the fact during this great event to the people of Anderson county of an opportunity to buy a class of merchandise which during your entire career as a buyer of wearing apparel this is one of the opportunities that never has happened before, and which perhaps may not happen again within the business career of Palestine and her merchants. I am specially speaking of the stock of ladies' and children's ready-to-wear that was bought of Mr. Spielberger, and known as The Model. Within this stock of goods we find suits that sold for $100.00, and we will sell them for $35.00 and make a profit. We find evening waists worth $15.00, and we will sell them for $5.00. We find the Alexander Kid Glove, 16 buttons, worth $5.00, and we will sell them for $2.00. Silk Skirts, Furs, Redfern and Warner's Corsets, Cloaks for young and old, gold-headed Umbrellas, leather Shopping Bags, Combs, Neck Novelties, Hosiery, $2000.00 worth of Ladies' Suits and Coats. We are going to sell winter goods in the summer; in fact, we will not put away the good things, but the entire stock will be on our counters in our store marked and ready to sell Thursday morning, the 14th, at 9 a. m., and the prices will be marked precisely down one-half, as we bought the stock at 50c on the dollar, and the people get the benefit of the sale.

TEXAS FRUIT CROP.
Pioneer Nursery Man of Texas Talks of the Outlook.

Dallas, Texas, July 13.—"Texas is getting a lot of splendid advertising out of its great fruit crop this year," said R. D. Yoakum of St. Louis, formerly a railroad official in Texas. "I note that one hundred car loads of Texas fruit passed north through Denison yesterday. The crop has become so large and the methods of packing have improved so much that the Texas fruit now attracts great attention of favorable nature in the northern markets. The indications are that the immigration to Texas next fall and winter will surpass all previous records. This will be the result of previous advertising on the part of the railroads and the good crops made in Texas this year. It is my opinion that the fruit crop is a greater factor in advertising the state

JOHNSON MORE STRENUOUS
In Address at Iredell—Spoke to Audience of 1500 People.

Iredell, Texas, July 13.—At the annual county picnic of Bosque county Hon. Cone Johnson this afternoon delivered an address to an audience of about 1500. He spoke with a continuance of the fervor which has characterized his observations concerning the prohibition positions of the other three candidates of late. Stingingly severe was his discussion of Poindexter and his oratorical effort was scarcely less barbed or less lengthy when directed at the other two. If anything, this afternoon's speech was more strenuous than other recent ones. As the candidate rose to respond to his introduction a man near the platform remarked in a stage whisper he "would be buried on election day."

than are the other crops."

Mr. Yoakum is a native of Cherokee county, Texas, where his father, Dr. Yoakum, established the first college in this state, and as a farmer and nursery man was the pioneer in the fruit growing industry which has attained such great proportions. It is natural, therefore, that Mr. Yoakum should feel a particular interest in the success of the Texas fruit growing industry.

Engagement Affirmed.
(Herald Special.)
Davenport, Iowa, July 14.—Mrs. M. Vonbrunt today confirmed the report that her daughter, Beatrice, is engaged to young Jay Gogild. Miss Vonbrunt is at present with the Anna Held company, playing in London.

Mr. Johnson drew his inspiration from this comment, venturing the assertion that the man was prejudiced, that he treasured the memories of two years ago and thinks I (Johnson) committed an unpardonable political sin when I had the gall to fight Joe Bailey. Enthusiastic applause followed.

Mr. Johnson declared that but for such prejudice as had been evidenced by his friend in the audience there would be no fear of the prohibitionists cutting their own throats in this campaign; that if they were defeated the knife would not be found in the pockets of the enemy, but with the pros themselves; a knife marked "Prejudice."

Seriatim Mr. Johnson demanded of his audience did he not have a right to run for delegate at large two years ago; to run against Joe Bailey; to take the stump against him to express his views and his criticism of a public official, etc.

"Yes, sir," regularly came the reply. The speaker declared that was what he had done and that he would die and almost go to the lower regions before he would give up that right of every citizen; that he wouldn't make a spectacle of himself by running up to Gainesville like Colquitt did, and falling down in the dust before Bailey.

He repeated that there had been too much personal politics in Texas, "too much howling for one man's ambitions," adding that his (Johnson's) candidacy was directed at just such prejudice—blinded voters, as his friend in the audience, and that he was making good Cone Johnson men out of them.
