President Madriz Passed the Order, and Fears Are Entertained For Americans.

(Herald Special.) Bluefields, Nicaragua, July 20.—Following the notice that President Madriz has ordered all prisoners shot, much fear is expressed for the safety of Americans. A report received here from Managua says Madriz has given a secret order for the execution of William Pittman, imprisoned in Managua. General Ména reports the Nicaraguans in the western part of the republic are deserting to Estrada, being unable to longer bear the Madriz rule.

Speaking Last Night. Mr. Stuart Francis of Austin spoke last night on McKnight Plaza in the Addressed One of the Largest Audiences of the Campaign Tuesday Afternoon.

Kingsbury, Guadalupe Co., Texas, July 19.—Invading the enemy's country, speaking in the heart of that part of the state most antagonistic to the cause he advocates, Hon. Cone Johnson put on his war paint today. With collar unbuttoned and shirt open at the neck, sleeves unrolled and perspiration exuding, even through his outer clothing, he addressed this afternoon one of the largest audiences of this campaign, an audience offering the anomaly of applause of the most enthusiastic type, although buttons and badges marked Colquitt were in evidence everywhere.

Prior to Mr. Johnson's arrival and while he was here as well, ribbons with the words "Colquitt" printed thereon in red letters were distributed. Coming down from San Antonio on an excursion train this morning a band came aboard at Marian, playing lustily with a Colquitt banner held aloft. At Seguin more musicians got on the train, with a hundred or more men wearing Colquitt badges. When Kingsbury was reached the first band led the procession upon the street toward the barbecue grounds, immediately preceding the auto in which Mr. Johnson rode, until some one, said to be a Davidson supporter, walked out and captured the standard. The statement was made tonight that the Colquitt forces had not intended the band to flaunt its flag in the face of an opponent, and that no discourtesy was meant.

Comestibles to accommodate between five and six thousand people were provided for this occasion, a union barbecue; 3500 loaves of bread were shipped from San Antonio and 1700 pounds of beef was barbecued. Scant traces of the food remained after those gathered had satisfied their appetites, and it was concluded the maximum estimate of attendance had been reached. Under an improvised awning of extensive, although impromptu design, rough log benches were placed, with a seating capacity of 3600. The seats were not only completely filled, but hundreds stood in the sun upon all sides, and there were some men perched in the branches of small trees near by. Accordingly, it is estimated that more than 4000 people heard Johnson speak. The political rarity of a candidate spending almost the entire day shaking hands with voters, nearly all of whom bear the other man's badge, was reached today. The cordiality manifested upon the part of both the greater and the greeted is worthy of mention. This is the first time Mr. Johnson has visited Guadalupe county; it is the first speech any candidate for governor has delivered in this town during the present campaign. Although the sentiment here is overwhelmingly anti-prohibition, and although the voting strength is said to be about evenly divided between democrats and republicans, it was conceded that the Tyler man made votes by his trip.
