

INVESTIGATION ORDERED

Lower Legislative House Has Broadened Scope of Proposed Graft Investigation.

Austin, Texas, July 27.—The investigation to be made of the graft charges is to extend to the primaries of last Saturday with special reference to the use of money to secure the nomination of candidates for public office.

It is understood that charges have been made that certain corporations of the state contributed sums of money to various campaign funds, and it is intimated that this was particularly true in the case of Mr. Colquitt.

It is the purpose of those favoring the investigation and especially those who opposed Mr. Colquitt in the campaign to bring out such facts as are possible to develop before the nominating convention is held.

If it is shown that corporations have contributed money in this manner it is stated that they are subject to a heavy penalty under the laws of the state, and the fitness of the candidate who secured his nomination in this manner would be seriously questioned in the convention at Galveston.

Representatives Canales and Caves created something of a sensation this morning when they offered a substitute for their resolution of yesterday. The substitute made special reference to the charges that favor-seeking corporations used large sums of money in the recent primaries for the purpose of influencing the result.

Members of the house admit that the effect of the resolution will be to go thoroughly into the manner of conducting the campaign and some interesting developments are hinted at.

Text of Resolutions.

Austin, Texas, July 27.—The following resolution was adopted in the house this morning—83 to 23:

"Whereas, there have been charges repeatedly made by men of high standing and responsibility and published broadcast in the newspapers throughout the state to the effect that the legislature was influenced or prevented during the regular and former called sessions of the legislature by the use of money and other corrupt influences, and

"Whereas, certain other charges have been made to the effect that submission was defeated by corruption, and

"Whereas, it has also been charged that favor-seeking interests used large sums of money and other corrupting agencies with said legislature and in the campaign just closed for the purpose of influencing the result in the primary election held on Saturday, July 23, 1910, and

TAKE OFF THE FAT WHERE IT SHOWS

Most women suffer much humiliation because of the great quantities of fat, so located that no matter how they dress, everybody sees that they are abnormal. This is the day of the slender figure, and fat women are simply not tolerated either in business or social affairs. Women may not know it, but men when they see a fat woman pass them on the street make all manner of sympathetic remarks about her. They do not mean to be unkind or to seem unmanly, but it is natural for a man to dislike fat on a woman. Where fat shows the most there is where it must be removed, and as quickly as possible. The hot weather dresses seem to be made for the fat woman's misery and the slender woman's delight. They expose all the charms of woman and her ugliness as well. Exercise and diet will not remove fat. This has been proved. The famous Marmola prescription which has met with such phenomenal success and has so many of our society women as its sponsors, is now being sold in tablet form to meet the demand of the public for this style of treatment. These little tablets go into your system just like food. They stop the stomach and digestive apparatus from producing fat and reduce the fat upon the body at the rate of from 12 to 15 ounces a day. They are harmless and can be carried in your purse and taken even after you have indulged in a hearty meal away from home. They are sold at all drug stores at 75 cents a case, or if you prefer you may write the Marmola Company, 1113 Farmer Bldg., Detroit, Mich.—Adv.

legislature and the integrity and the honor of our state demands that this called session of the legislature give attention to these charges, and that ample means be provided at once for a thorough and effective investigation to the end that if these charges are found groundless the stigma may be removed and if true the guilty ones be brought to justice and punished for their crimes, and if the laws of the state are insufficient that suitable laws may be enacted to prevent the recurrence of such acts; therefore be it

"Resolved, by the house of representatives, the senate concurring, that a committee of ten, six from the house and four from the senate, to be selected by the speaker of the house and the president of the senate, respectively, be appointed to investigate and ascertain the truth or falsity of these charges and any other charges as this legislature from time to time by concurrent resolutions may give said committee to investigate. That said committee be and the same is hereby created and empowered and given such authority as is provided in chapter 7 of the acts of the Thirtieth legislature providing for investigating committees.

Position of Campbell.

Austin, Texas, July 27.—The statement was made in private conversation with members of the house that Governor Campbell had commended the house for passing the investigation resolution and would favor an appropriation of $10,000 to make it thorough. Governor Campbell was seen and denied that he had made any positive statement, but admitted the necessity of an appropriation. He said

AWAITING HIS DOOM

John Junkin, the Ottumwa Negro Who Murdered Miss Rosen, to Hang at Fort Madison, Ia.

(Herald Special.)

Fort Madison, Ia., July 28.—Before the expiration of another day John Junkin, the negro who, on the night of February 5, 1909, brutally murdered and then robbed Miss Clara Rosen, a handsome choir singer at Ottumwa, in this state, will have expiated his crime upon the gallows. The scaffold recently erected at the penitentiary is waiting for the doomed man and the preparations for the execution, which have kept Sheriff John G. Clark of Appanoose county busy for many days, are completed in every detail.

With the approach of the time for his execution the condemned murderer has become extremely nervous and the prison guards who have kept the death watch over the prisoner for several weeks have doubled their vigilance, fearing that Junkin, almost insane from fright over the approaching ordeal, would attempt to commit suicide at the last moment, rather than undergo the legal penalty upon the scaffold.

The attitude of the negro murderer has undergone a remarkable change since the time when he was first taken to the penitentiary to protect him from being lynched. After his fear of the lynchers had worn off Junkin displayed a bravado which thoroughly disgusted the prison officials. He seemed to feel great satisfaction over his importance and notoriety and did heart. It is a remarkable coincidence that Judge M. A. Roberts, who passed judgment on Junkin, also presided at the trial of Smith.

There was a great demand for permits to witness the hanging of Junkin, but Sheriff Clark was compelled to refuse the requests of a majority of the applicants. Among those who received tickets of admission are the father and two brothers of the victim, the aged mother of the condemned murderer, six sheriffs, three of the jurors who pronounced Junkin guilty of murder, four of the special guards who watched Junkin day and night since the conclusion of the trial, the prosecuting attorneys of Wapello and Appanoose counties, one of the attorneys for the defense, the superintendent of the railroad who had arranged the special train to take Junkin to Fort Madison, three newspapermen and a few others.

After the execution the body of Junkin will be turned over to Professor H. J. Hoeve, the criminologist, who wishes to make a careful examination of the brain and other organs of the criminal. Junkin sold his body to Dr. Hoeve for $50, the money to go to his old mother who spent her last dollar for the defense of her son.

THE WRONG DIAGNOSIS

Prompt the Use of Worthless Remedies.

Even an experienced physician will sometimes make a mistake in diagnosis, in which event his entire treatment is wasted and may even be injurious to the patient.

The advocates of all other hair restoratives save Herpicide have wrongly diagnosed the cause of dandruff and falling hair.

They figure on a functional disease whereas it is now known and generally accepted that hair loss is due to a parasitic germ which Newbro's Herpicide destroys.

Field Day of New England Eagles.

(Herald Special.)

Providence, R. I., July 28.—Hundreds of members of the order of Eagles throughout New England flocked here today for their annual field day and outing. The day's program was opened with a parade which was reviewed by Governor Pothier of Rhode Island and Mayor Fletcher of Providence. The visitors then proceeded to Crescent Point, where the remainder of the day was devoted to drills and athletic sports.

not even lose his assurance when he was found guilty of murder and sentenced to death. But, as the time for his execution approached, his dread of the terrible ordeal made him a craven, sullen and whining man as his moods changed. Never for a moment did he give the slightest evidence of remorse for his brutal crime or of sympathy for the victim and her family.

The crime for which Junkin will pay the legal penalty upon the gallows tomorrow was one of the most heinous in the criminal annals of this state. The young and handsome victim, Miss Clara Rosen, was returning from choir practice on the night of February 5, of last year, when she was waylaid by Junkin in a deserted locality. The negro choked the girl to prevent her from crying for help, beat her brains out with a rock and then robbed her of her ear-rings and finger-rings. He was caught a short time after the murder, when he tried to pawn the rings. The unusual brutality of the crime had aroused the most intense feeling among the citizens of Ottumwa and when it became known that the slayer of the girl had been apprehended, the citizens gathered with the intention of lynching the murderer. Only with the greatest difficulty did the authorities succeed in thwarting the plans of the incensed citizens and in smuggling Junkin out of the city and bringing him by special train to Fort Madison, where he was kept safe at the penitentiary.

The execution of Junkin tomorrow will be the second legal hanging of a negro in this state in twenty-five years. The last negro who paid the death penalty upon the scaffold in this state was Joe Smith, a negro from Buxton, who was hanged April 20, 1906, for the murder of his sweet-

$14,500 BLAZE.

Winchester, Fayette County, Is Almost Wiped Off the Map.

Winchester, Texas, July 26.—At 2 o'clock Tuesday morning the store house and blacksmith shop of F. Reinsch was discovered on fire. The store house and stock of merchandise was a total loss, values as follows: Store house, $1000; merchandise, $2500; blacksmith shop and stock on hand, $1000. No insurance was carried. The W. A. Giles building was the next place to catch. Mr. Giles places his loss at $10,000, with only $3500 insurance. At one time it looked as if the whole business part of the town was doomed. The efforts of the citizens, both white and black, saved the town from being burned.
