First National Bank Palestine, Texas

An Old "Auntie" Dead.

When "Aunt Ann" Miller died at Okalona, Miss., two days ago there passed from earth an old negro woman of the old type, beloved by everyone alike, white and colored. In two towns yesterday, more than eight hundred miles apart—Palestine and Okalona—church bells tolled as the funeral cortege passed from the church to the cemetery, where the old soul was laid to rest under a bank of flowers contributed by white and black friends and mourners. This old negro was a servant in the family of Mr. E. J. Ezell for thirty-five years, and came with the family to Palestine when they moved here a few years ago. About a year ago the old woman expressed a desire to go back to her old Mississippi home to die, and Mr. Ezell sent her back.

Her passing has brought sadness to many people who loved her.

The Prevailing Opinion

Of a trading public is based upon the conduct of a mercantile establishment, regardless of its size or kind. It's the fair treatment you receive that counts. It's the House of Horwits that gives you honest values and good merchandise. Put us to the test. We are willing to stand the verdict of public opinion.

Take This For An Argument

Our advanced ideas are that Furs and Cloaks are always in use during the fall and winter months. Then why wait until winter to get these goods under value? We bought when the thermometer registered in the 90's, and money bought them for 50 cents on the Dollar. Now here is argument: Suppose a Fur is worth wholesale $5.00; the usual merchant gets $10.00 for it. This same Fur cost us $2.50; we sell it for $5.00, and double our money. The customer gets it for a wholesale price, and we get a splendid profit. Our Cloaks and Children's Coats were bought the same way. Suppose you try us?

We Are Proud of Our Shoe Business—It Is a Hummer.

Just received 50 dozen Infants' and Children's Shoes to fill out the winter trade. And they are Shoes with leather, every bit of it, and they fit not unshapely like some Shoes but snug and neat, with lots of room for the toes to wiggle. We make it a point to take back a pair of hurting Shoes. We don't want to sell them. That's business.

Striped Madras

WAISTS

Plain tailored waists these—and mannish to a degree, yet more pleasing sensible waists for ladies would be hard to conceive.

They are made of shirting madras—all white grounds with black stripes—has splendid "tub" qualities—and are tastily tailored with clusters of tucks in lieu of a yoke. Laundered collars give them a "nifty" finish and soft cuffs add to their comfort.

We don't honestly know how you could better spend a dollar and a quarter, and yet have that distinctive air of wearing something "different" and correct to the last degree.

The Grand Leader

Palestine's Leading Store.

Cleared Fifty Dollars.

The ladies of the Methodist church last evening cleared fifty dollars with their oyster supper, and are elated over their success. They are striving to raise sufficient funds to furnish the new church building when it is completed. And they will succeed.

Lights Went Out.

Last night, just after the passenger trains were out, and about the hour of midnight, something went wrong with the I. & G. N. electric light plant, and the general offices, depots, shops, etc., were in utter darkness. At the passenger station this morning tickets were being sold by candle light.

A Visit to Toy Land.

That will be your verdict after a stroll through our store, for such a charming array of delightful playthings were never before assembled at the remarkably low prices shown here. The children's eyes will fairly dance at the brilliant sight. Let them come; it will be worth your while to hear their exclamations of delight. We now have a sample line for inspection, and on our regular Holiday Sale opening, Santa Claus will again be with us and will deal out presents to the little tots. Big opening day will be December 1st, and it will be a big one.

We Want

To Put One of Our New and Wonderful

AMBER LIGHTS

IN YOUR HOME

Just to show it in action alongside of any other kind of light you may chance to be using.

You will be surprised to note the immense volume of light that it gives—a greater volume than you get from three to five house lights of any other type.

Its effect on your eyes will be a sensation of rest and comfort, and will reflect for the first time the faces of your family, under artificial light, their natural soft, warm colors and the harmonies of decoration and dress will be undisturbed.

We will send out and attach this light to any gas fixtures you designate, you to have the privilege of buying or refusing the light after inspection.

If you wish to keep the light we will charge its cost, $1.60, to your account—two payments if you like.
