

A GREAT GATHERING AT SAN ANTONIO THIS WEEK

(Herald Special.)

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 21.—The twenty-first annual meeting of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress has attracted to San Antonio the largest gathering of distinguished men ever assembled here. Page after page of the registers at the leading hotels are filled today with the names of United States senators, governors of states, diplomats, financiers, railroad officials and other persons of prominence in public affairs and in the world of commerce and industry.

Preceded by an elaborate banquet tonight at which William J. Bryan, Senator Joseph W. Bailey and other men of wide note are to speak, the regular sessions of the congress will begin tomorrow morning and continue until Friday. F. W. Fleming of Kansas City, chairman of the executive committee, estimates that no fewer than fifteen hundred delegates will be present when the gathering is called to order. Not only will every state west of the Mississippi have a large delegation on hand, but the east also will be better represented numerically than at any previous session of the congress.

The program is believed to be the best ever prepared for a meeting of the organization. Both in the variety and importance of the subjects to be discussed and in the prominence of the speakers to be heard the session promises to eclipse all former meetings of the congress.

The promotion of closer trade relations between the United States and the republics to the south will be one of the most important subjects considered at the meeting. Representatives of the state department and the department of labor and commerce at Washington will be among the speakers and it is expected that eminent representatives of Mexico and the countries of Central and South America will present their views.

Other subjects slated for discussion during the four days' session include the improvement of inland waterways and harbors, Pan-American trade and the Panama canal, the reclamation of lands by irrigation and drainage, merchant marine, insurance, interstate commerce, the conservation of natural resources, the development of Alaska, and the parcels post. Delegations of influential business men from San Francisco and New Orleans are here to urge the claims of their respective cities as sites for the proposed Panama exposition in 1915.

Thursday has been set aside as "Governors' Day" on the program of the congress, and it is expected that the chief executives of Nebraska, Missouri, Texas, Colorado and a number of other states of the west and southwest will address the gathering.

Prominent among other speakers to be heard at the several sessions are Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Secretary of State Knox, William J. Bryan of Nebraska, Governor Campbell of Texas, John Barrett, director of the International Bureau of American Republics; F. H. Newell, director of the United States reclamation service; B. F. Yoakum of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad, and Judge R. S. Lovett, chairman of the executive committee of the Union Pacific railroad.

BRAKEMAN LOST A LEG

W. J. Cooper Was Victim of Accident at Valley Junction—Leg Amputated Below the Knee.

Mr. W. J. (Doc) Cooper, an I. & G. N. brakeman, was the victim of an accident at Valley Junction Saturday afternoon, while doing some switching there, that cost him his left leg. That member was so mangled that amputation just below the knee had to be resorted to, and this operation was performed at the company hospital here Saturday night.

Mr. Cooper is reported getting along nicely, and will likely recover. He has a host of friends here, and elsewhere, who regret his accident, and hope for his recovery.

Yesterday at noon Mr. Will M. Keller and Miss Fay Williams were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. F. C. Williams, No. 20 Cedar street, and the happy couple left on the early afternoon train for New Orleans, where the honeymoon will be spent. Rev. L. D. Anderson performed the ceremony, and it was witnessed by members of the bride's family and Mr. Matt Davenport and Miss Vennie Keller.

Mr. Keller is assistant cashier at the Royal National Bank, while the bride is one of the popular members of the younger set of Palestine society girls.

Coleman-Knight.

Sunday evening at about 9 o'clock Mr. Geo. E. Coleman and Miss Ruby B. Knight were married at the parsonage of the First Christian church, Rev. L. D. Anderson, pastor, officiating. The happy couple were accompanied by Mr. Geo. Griffin and Misses Eleanor Henry and Cordeil Knight.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman will be at home to their friends at 421 North Sycamore. The groom is the proprietor of the City Shaving Parlor, and both he and his bride have a large circle of friends.

TRAFFIC PROBLEMS WILL BE DISCUSSED

AT ANNUAL DINNER OF RAILWAY BUSINESS ASSOCIATION IN NEW YORK CITY TUESDAY NIGHT. PROMINENT SPEAKERS.

(Herald Special.)

New York, Nov. 21.—Prominent shippers, who are understood to be opposed to any increase in freight rates, and representatives of the railroads who declare that an advance in freight rates is an absolute necessity are to gather about the banquet board at the Waldorf-Astoria tomorrow night and engage in an informal discussion with a view to bringing about a better understanding in regards to the problem. The occasion will be the annual dinner of the Railway Business Association, an organization formed two years ago by manufacturers and dealers in railway supplies. Foremost among the speakers at the dinner will be Martin A. Knapp, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and John Claffin, president of the H. B. Claffin company of this city.

MRS. HETTY GREEN IS 75

Fortune is Estimated at From Fifty to One Hundred Million Dollars. In Good Health.

(Herald Special.)

New York, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Hetty H. R. Green, America's most prominent woman financier, reached her seventy-fifth birthday anniversary today and also rounded out her forty-fifth year as a business woman, during which she has accumulated a fortune variously estimated at from $50,000,000 to $100,000,000.

The wealthiest woman in America started with a fortune of $9,000,000 left by her father. This fortune she has increased many fold by shrewd business deals and far-sighted investments. Her wealth is widely diversified. She has real estate holdings in nearly every section of the country and her mortgages embrace some of the safest properties in a chain of cities extending from coast to coast. Railroads, steamboats, mines, telephones and telegraphs also contribute to her income.

Some time since the report was circulated that Mrs. Green intended to retire from the active management of her affairs and the arrival of her only son, E. H. R. Green, in New York tended to confirm the report. But the son has returned to Texas and Mrs. Green, from all appearances, is as active as ever, so that the rumors of her prospective retirement probably had no better foundation than similar reports which have been circulated periodically ever since the famous financier reached her sixtieth year.

SHERIFF BOYD'S PRESENT

Man's Popularity is Shown Through Present From Friends—Also In Making His Bond.

Sheriff J. Lee Boyd should feel proud of his friends, and if ever a man in this world felt he was called on to "make good" Boyd ought to be that man. He is the possessor of the prettiest Colt's pistol, perhaps, ever presented any Palestine man. It is a beautiful weapon, silver-plated, and pearl handle. On the handle is engraved: "To J. L. Boyd, Sheriff of Anderson County, From His Friends."

But this is not the only testimony of the man's popularity, for it is a fact that he made his official bond of $10,000 without solicitation. Every signer of the bond was a volunteer. And his bondsmen are good, perhaps, for a million dollars. Here are his bondsmen: A. G. Burton, D. M. Barrett, Tucker Royall, A. L. Bowers, George Harris.

And here is the Herald's prediction: Lee Boyd is not going to disappoint his friends or fail to do his duty.

A. A. U. Annual Meeting.

(Herald Special.)
New York, Nov. 21.—Several interesting contests are expected to enliven the proceedings at the annual meeting of the National Amateur Athletic Union, which met in this city today with a full attendance of delegates representing the branch organizations throughout the country. In the first place, a fight for the presidency is in prospect, providing the eastern clubs oppose the re-election of President Everett C. Borwn of Chicago, as has been rumored to be their intention. The selection of a place for holding the national track and field championships for next year is also likely to provoke a spirited contest between Chicago and several other cities which will bid for the event.

Please Do Not Request It

Please do not ring up the Herald office and request the man who answers the phone to write out for you a card of thanks, obituary notice, lodge notice, etc. Newspaper workers are too busy during the malstrom of a day's effort to print a newspaper to waste valuable time on an asthmatic telephone. Every minute is precious to the newspaper worker, and every minute must count in effective work. If you wish such notices printed, please write them out, plainly, and send to the office of publication, and they will have attention. Also do not attempt to phone in want ads. Write them out and send them in with the price: 3 lines, 3 times, 25 cents; 6 times, 50 cents. It is not that we do not want the business, but the amounts are so small that it does not pay to send out a collector to collect them; besides the taking of them over the phone often proves so expensive in time consumed, in annoyance, difficulty of hearing, aptness of error, etc., that the management does not want them in this way. Send in the ads. written out and accompanied by the money.

If you have an item of news, however, do not hesitate to phone it in. That is what the Herald phone is for, chiefly, to get the news. 13-1f
