REVOLUTION IS NOW ON IN MEXICO

The Real Thing is Reported Under Way in State of Chihuahua, Mexico--Twenty Seven Killed in Acamburo.

(Herald Special.)
El Paso, Texas, Nov. 22.—A real revolution is in progress in the state of Chihuahua, and bloody fighting between loyal troops and insurgents is reported from many places in the state. A train load of infantry was carried into the territory where the trouble is worst today. The governor of Chihuahua has reported to President Diaz that an attack on the capital city is momentarily expected, and the governor is not so sure of the loyalty of his troops.

Prisoners Released.

(Herald Special.)
Laredo, Texas, Nov. 22.—Reports which are declared to be authentic have been received here today saying that three hundred revolutionists stormed the jail at Acumburo, in the state of Guanajuato, Mexico, last night, and freed all of the prisoners, most of whom were anti-Diaz Mexicans. The jail delivery was followed by sacking the town by the revolutionists and later by a clash with government troops, in which the former were repulsed. The number of dead is placed at twenty-seven, with fourteen others wounded.

Conditions Alarming.

(Herald Special.)
El Paso, Texas, Nov. 22.—The state of Chihuahua and Pueblo are expected to fall before the revolutionists today. The rebels are reported to have captured the town of Gomez Palacio, after three hundred of Diaz's troops had deserted their colors. Fierce fighting is reported in Durango, Torreon and Parral. All of the country about Monterey is cut off from communication and many skirmishes are reported along Rio Grande country. The Mexican government is in command of all telegraph lines. President Diaz has taken personal command of the government forces, and calls on Vice President Corral to come from his health resort to aid him.

It is reported that one thousand Yaqui Indians will support the revolutionists. Madero, leader of the revolution, has been seen at the head of a body of rebels, it is claimed. Serious outbreaks are reported at Orizaba, where the troops deserted. Nineteen officers and privates who joined the rebels are said to have been secretly shot. Many Mexicans are making their escape into Texas.

Official Reports in Washington.

(Herald Special.)
Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—In official advices from Mexican officials to American Consul Elworth at Porfirio Diaz confirmation is given of the capture of Gomez Palacio by the revolutionists. The consul also advises that fighting is still in progress. Consul Kenna at Chihuahua reports the capture of three small towns in the western part of that state, and that the governor has called a meeting of the business men to defend the city. It is reported that agents of Madero are en route to Washington to represent the revolutionary interests and present their side of the trouble to the United States government.

To Enforce Neutrality.

(Herald Special.)
Eagle Pass, Texas, Nov. 22.—U. S. cavalry from Fort San Houston arrived here and at Del Rio today to enforce the neutrality laws during the pending Mexican trouble.

J. P. Morgan Interested.

(Herald Special.)
Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Much speculation is aroused here today by the presence of J. P. Morgan. It is said he hurried to Washington to discuss with the state department authorities the question of protecting American financial interests in Mexico. The Morgan company have millions of dollars invested in Mexico.

ONE THOUSAND DEAD.

(Herald Special.)
Sagion, French Indo China, Nov. 22.—As a result of a flood in the Annam province and in Kwang Ngai, one thousand natives are dead or missing, and four hundred boats are reported missing.

APPEAL FOR NEW TRIAL

For W. T. Jones, Alleged Wife Murderer, Taken to South Carolina Supreme Court.

(Herald Special.)
Columbia, S. C., Nov. 22.—Among the most important matters to come up at the session of the South Carolina supreme court which convened today is the appeal of W. T. Jones, the alleged wife murderer. Jones, who was a wealthy planter and extensive land owner in Union county, was convicted nearly two years ago of poisoning his wife by administering strychnine in her food. He was sentenced to life imprisonment and has since been confined in jail pending the result of his appeal for a new trial.

CRIPPEN HAS CONFESSED

London Times Is Authority For the Statement, and the Confession Is Thrilling.

(Herald Special.)
London, Nov. 22.—Dr. H. H. Crippen, the condemned murderer of his wife, has confessed his crime, according to the London Times. The paper says the confession is a thrilling human document, related with cold, calm details. The Times states that the doctor has related the whole story of the murder.

FRATERNAL INSURANCE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS

COMPANIES WILL COME UNDER CONTROL OF VARIOUS STATES IF PLAN OF CHICAGO MEETING IS CARRIED OUT.

(Herald Special.)
Chicago, Nov. 22.—Uniform legislation in the various states for the control and regulation of fraternal insurance companies will become an accomplished fact before long, if plans discussed here today by a joint committee of the Associated Fraternities of America and the National Fraternal Congress are carried out. The two organizations, which control between them virtually all of the fraternal companies in the country, have long been at loggerheads on the question of uniform legislation. Through the efforts of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners they have been induced to work together to secure the adoption of the uniform bill for the regulation of the fraternal companies, and they will co-operate in efforts to have the state legislatures enact the desired legislation at their sessions this winter.

To Reorganize A. O. U. W.
(Herald Special.)
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—The supreme lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen met in this city today and began what is expected to be one of the most important sessions in the history of the order. Before the session adjourns it is expected that plans will have been adopted for what will amount to practically a complete reorganization of the order.

IS WHAT THE BOLL WEEVIL HAS COST FARMERS OF SOUTH-ATLANTA, GA., SCENE OF BOLL WEEVIL CONGRESS.

(Herald Special.)
Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 22.—Co-operation and scientific methods in an aggressive campaign to eradicate the boll weevil, which has already cost the cotton growers of the south millions of dollars and which now threatens still greater losses by spreading into states where it has not appeared heretofore, are the aims of the Boll Weevil Congress, which assembled in this city today for a two days' session. The commissioners of agriculture of the various states, experts from the Department of Agriculture at Washington and from the agricultural colleges and experiment stations throughout the south, together with a large number of planters, merchants and manufacturers whose prosperity depends upon the cotton industry, make up the attendance at the congress. The congress met for organization in the Auditorium this afternoon. Mayor Maddox and President Paxton of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce greeted the delegates, and H. G. Hastings explained the objects of the conference. E. L. Worsham, state entomologist of Georgia, delivered an address on the boll weevil and its work of destruction.
