Qui Vives.

Mrs. R. C. Sewell entertained the Qui Vives Thursday afternoon, naming her honoree her sister, Mrs. Vance Duncan, of Egypt, Texas. Cut flowers and ferns were used in a charming manner in the parlors. Six tables were arranged for five hundred, at the close of which luncheon was served. Mrs. Sewell was assisted in entertaining by her mother and sisters, Mrs. B. H. Gardner and Misses Flossie and Mattie Cad Gardner. The out-of-town guests were the honoree, Mesdames M. A. Davey of Houston, Rennie of Dallas and Miss Julia Barnard of Asheville, N. C.

Beta Psi Club.

Miss Fannie Maud DuPuy entertained the Beta Psi Wednesday afternoon with four tables of high five. Chrysanthemums furnished the decorations. After many games an elegant two-course luncheon was served. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by her mother and sister, Mesdames J. D. DuPuy and Adam Cone. Mrs. Craig of Shreveport was an out-of-town guest.

Brides' Club.

Mrs. C. J. Crane entertained the Brides' Club yesterday afternoon in a delightfully informal manner.

Pleasant Evening.

The following dainty invitations called together the friends of the host and hostess for a pleasant time last evening in honor of Miss Wilda Conner.

"A few friends will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Reeves on the evening of Friday next. Give us the pleasure of your company."

Tables were arranged for forty-two and progressive conversation. Pretty flowers adorned the cozy parlors, and cheerful fires added mirth. At the close of the evening refreshments were served.

Rev. R. I. Gillon and family arrived Thursday night from Plainview. Quite a crowd of Baptists were at the depot to welcome them. He is the newly called pastor to the Baptist church at this place recently resigned by Rev. A. D. Sparkman.

Mrs. Vance Duncan, after a visit to her parents, Judge and Mrs. B. H. Gardner, returns to her home at Egypt tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Dixon have returned from a visit to San Luis Potosi, Mexico.

We are sure that Rev. Gillon will feel honored to know that a little child made this remark: "Mamma, God sent Bro. Gillon to our church for a Christmas gift to us."

That sly little elf Santa Claus is peeping around every corner to find the good children, and is enshrined in every heart to find those less fortunate than themselves. In some of the larger cities clubs and societies have formed themselves as Santa Claus' band, and are making preparations to give Christmas trees to the old ladies of different neighborhoods and to those others worthy but having no sweet home ties. Would it not be beautiful for the Sewing Club, the Beta Psi and all the rest to join in a Christmas tree for such? Wouldn't this column be pretty filled with such beautiful work? Paul, the sacred writer says: "Ye abound in all these graces, see that ye abound also in the gift of giving."

Pythian Sisters.

The Pythian Sisters will meet next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Knights of Pythias hall to pack the orphan home box for the orphans at the home at Weatherford, Texas. There are thirty-three boys, twenty-two girls, three widows and one eleven-months-old baby that this noble order will provide for. After the packing of the box an oyster supper will be served sociably. All Knights and Pythian Sisters are invited and expected to be present on this occasion, sending and receiving Christmas cheer.
