B Sharp Club Entertains

Yesterday the Elks turned over for the afternoon their beautiful suite of rooms to the B Sharp Musical Club, who entertained their friends with a rare musical treat. The doors were thrown open, making a grand reception hall. Holly and Texas smilax were profusely used in decorations; beautiful palms and ferns were banked here and there, and with the glow of countless electric jets, the hall presented a beautiful scene. The club ladies were all gowned in white, and the club colors, white and green, were carried out in the programs and in every detail. At the head of the stairs all guests were met and received by Mesdames Wm. Branagan, T. M. Norsworthy, W. H. Kingsbury and Miss Louise Stevens. The following charming girls, in white dresses, were ushers and presented to each of the pretty programs all in white, with green holly: Misses Marguerite Morris, Fannie Maud DuPuy, Jettie Colley and Garnett Ozment. The program presented was a rare musical treat, and every number highly appreciated. After this social hour was passed. The following was the program:

Mrs. T. M. Norsworthy, chairman.
Cornet, Violin, Piano, Serenade, Tittl—Misses Triece, Mrs. Triece.
Piano, Scherzo, Chadwick—Mrs. Norsworthy.

Chorus, "Come and Dance With Me." Goate: "Pretty Good World." D. Buck—Club; piano, Miss Fullinwider.
Violin, Serenade d'amour, F. Von Blon—Miss Colley.
Piano, Valse de Concert, Moszkowski—Miss Swayne.

Voice Trio, "Old Folks at Home," Arr Hermann—Misses Burton and Triece.
Cornet, Violin, Piano, Romance, Moszkowski; Hungarian Dance, No. 7, Brahms—Misses Triece, Mrs. Triece.
Piano, Othello, Rossini—Miss Stevens.

Violin, Reverie, Vieuxtemps—Miss Triece.
Voice, "A Rose Bud," Nevin; "I Give You a Rose," Bishoff—Miss Burton.

Piano, Prelude in C sharp minor, Rachmaninoff—Miss Morris.
Chorus, "Night," Schubert; "Scotch Rhapsody," Vincent—Club; piano, Miss Fullinwider.

Birthday Party

Master Paul Kuhne of New York celebrated his seventh birthday Saturday afternoon at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Kolstad. More than fifty children were present to help keep the day. All were invited to the large dining room, which was darkened, electric lights were turned on, and the glow of red Christmas bells, 'neath Christmas evergreen was beautiful. A large Christmas tree in the center of the table, filled with gifts and shining in decorations, was the admiration of all. Each little man received an automobile, and each lady a wash tub and clothes pins. The birthday cake in the pretty candles was cut; little Jane Carson cut the ring, Leslie Calloway, the thimble, Terrence Word the dime. After this delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Kuhne was assisted by Miss Bessie Robinson and Mesdames Clarence Kolstad, Dave McKenna, Joe Burkhead and C. M. Shepherd.

Officials of Centenary M. E. Church Entertained

Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Turrentine entertained last evening the officials of the Methodist church and the wives of these—the board of stewards, the board of trustees, the building committee, the Sunday school superintendents—in all about forty. The pretty home was cheerful in open fires, and the addition of ferns and cut flowers added charm. The evening was one of great joy, cementing the tie of love and christian brotherhood. Rev. Turrentine and his family are the type that attracts and charms. Miss Ruth, the daughter, delighted all with her sweet singing and music, and the son, L. D., specially assisted in making the evening pleasant. At the close an elegant luncheon was served.

Christmas Party

Miss Pearl Potter entertained her kindergarten class Saturday afternoon with a pretty party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Potter. These little ones have two weeks' holiday, and began in time the enjoyment thereof. Refreshments and a good time were given the children.

We are in receipt of the following, which promises to be a beautiful affair. One of the honorees has just returned after a long absence in New York and foreign lands, the other to soon leave us for another home and older friends:

Mrs. Peter Hayes Hughes at home, Wednesday afternoon, December twenty-eighth, nineteen hundred and ten, from three to four. Mrs. T. W. Smith, Mrs. Margaret Fish.

Miss Mattie Gooch will arrive to-morrow from Austin, where she is in school, to spend the holidays at home.

The Sunday school of Centenary Methodist church will have a beautiful Christmas evening and program on Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Baptist Sunday school will have a Christmas tree and program for the intermediate and primary departments Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. Let every little one be on time.

Master Eugene Fish has come home to spend the holidays with his mother and grandmother, Mesdames Margaret Fish and N. R. Royall. He has been in New York for some time in school.

Mrs. Juliette Cook Ellis came over from Jacksonville to see "Polly of the Circus" and visit her grandmother Johnson, who has been very sick.

Mr. Harry Wright and the entire family are now "at home" from Austin. Miss Elizabeth arrived today, after two years' study. They are at present domiciled with Mr. and Mrs. Dan McLeod, 810 Magnolia street, but after January first will occupy their beautiful home on Royal street.

On account of serious illness in the family of one of the members, the Aid Society of the Baptist church has postponed the reception this afternoon for Mrs. T. W. Smith.

The following comes to us, sealed with Santa Claus' happy face, which means a happy Christmas party:

Princess Selden Ackerman at home, Wednesday, December twenty-eighth, nineteen hundred and ten, two-thirty to five. 207 Hoxie street.
