

AT THE COZY.

The New Year will start off very auspiciously from the standpoint of classy vaudeville at really popular prices, when patrons witness the excellent bill arranged by Manager Wolf of the Cozy for the coming week.

The Twin City Quartette will offer happy harmony, Amoros and Mulvey have a blending of American and European vaudeville, introducing Mlle. Amoros, who is considered the most versatile woman on the American stage, Mabel Elaine, the best girl dancer ever seen, and The Two Ettaylos, clever acrobats, comprise a show of all-star acts.

Three shows daily at the Cozy. Daily matinee at 3 p. m. Nights, 7:45 and 9:15 p. m. Phone Preston 178. Souvenir matinees for ladies Thursday, and for children on Saturday.

CONFIRMANTS ALUMNI DANCE.

Wednesday evening occurred the first dance given by the confirmants' alumni of Temple Beth Israel, at the Concordia Club, and it was indeed a great social success.

The hall was beautifully decorated in Southern smilax with red and white incandescent lights intermingled. There were 21 dances in all.

After the twelfth dance the guests marched downstairs into the banquet hall. Dr. and Mrs. Henry Barnstein leading, followed by the officers, Miss Minnie L. Zindler, president; Miss Hildegard Fisher, vice president, and Mrs. Marcelle H. Well, secretary and treasurer, with escorts. Here a delicious ice course was served.

Much credit is due to the untiring efforts of the committee for the splendid arrangement of all details. The committee consisted of Miss Perl Colman, chairman; Miss Leon Emmich, Miss Rebecca Joseph; Messrs. Herbert Levy, Harry L. Wolf and Julian Westlow.

The guests included Dr. and Mrs. Barnstein, Messrs. and Mesdames Leon Emmich, Abe Freyer, H. Leiser, M. Frankel, Misses Minnie L. Casserole Cooking

The growing vogue for cooking and serving in the same dish reaches perfection in Guernsey Earthenware.

Guernsey is really inexpensive. The smaller dishes cost but a few cents—the large casseroles cost no more than a good granite saucepan.

Come in and see our complete line.

Let us show you this beautiful ware—and tell you more about the new way to cook and serve in the same dish.
