CLARA MORRIS IS REGAINING EYESIGHT

Clara Morris, the famous actress, who has been blind several years and is now recovering her sight, owing to the remarkable work of foreign specialists who came all the way from Europe to treat her in her home at Tonkers, N. Y. At latest report, Miss Morris was able to discern the design and figures on the wall paper. Every day she sees better, and it is hoped that, within a few weeks or months, her vision will be as good as ever.

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS.

Mrs. Clyde Holmes entertained Emergency circle of the Sunshine society at her home on Monday afternoon. Sewing for the day nursery occupied the early part of the afternoon, and was followed by two course refreshments.

The record of an unusual family history was bound up in the life of the subject of this sketch. From his old family Bible we read: "Obediah Bounds was born Jan. 30th, A. D. 1830."

Mrs. Meda Williams entertained at her home, 704 Wyoming, in honor of Miss Nora Hawkins and her guest, Miss Vera Hines, of Carlsbad, N. M. Various games were played and refreshments were served.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. J. Whit entertained a number of her friends at Washington park. After several games of 500 luncheon was spread.

The regular week end dance will be given this evening at the Country club. A dance was given Thursday evening by Miss Irene Ferguson at her home on Lee street.

A dance was given Friday evening at the Elks' club by a number of the young men of the city, complimentary to their girl friends.

A program of 14 dances, with several extras was enjoyed, for which the music was furnished by the Country club orchestra.

Punch was served throughout the evening and a thoroughly good time enjoyed by the guests, who were: Misses Marian Bowden, Genevieve Anderson, Marian Campbell, Constance Pateman, Louise Sanborn, Nellie Galliard, Flora Campbell, Sybil Shedd, Lillian Bucher, Elizabeth Marks, Mary Lewis, Marie Levinson, Louise Sisterman, Amy Schutz, Lauraamae Fink, Imogene Robertson, Virginia Ryan, Mary Weeks, McLean, Katherine Cox, Davis, Mary Nations, Lillie Mae Clarke, Lillian Boies, Messrs. FOR YOUR EYES SAKE

If You Need Glasses? ASK SEGALL

The selection of glasses is not one in which personal taste and fancy can alone dictate. You must allow your optician, after a thorough test of your eyes, to give you a lens which suits your particular case.
