ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 10.— Eight Albuquerque residents suffered sprains and bruises last night when one section of the spectators' gallery at the motordrome, one of the carnival attractions, collapsed.
None of the injuries were considered serious. Mayor D. K. B. Sellers announced that the city engineer would inspect the reconstructed gallery before spectators would be permitted to witness the motorcycle races within the enclosure Friday.

LOUIS, N. M., Oct. 10.—The pendulum of fortune has swung from the state back to the defense in the celebrated Lynch murder case.
Lynch is charged with murdering Roy Wootter, city marshal of Roswell, Henry Carmichael, with great solemnity, was conducted by a high officer of court to the witness stand. He was considered the star witness for the state and the plus ultra of the prosecution. He began his testimony with conspicuous sangfroid and nonchalance, quietly chewing a large quid of gum, which he shifted from side to side in his mouth and looked furtively and with more or less confidence at the jury and the judge, frequently out of the windows.

MEXICO CITY, Mex., Oct. 10.—The failure of Gen. Trucey Aubert to get to the city of Torreon in time to relieve it—a mission on which he set out from Saltillo nearly a month ago with a large force of federal troops, is explained by the fact that the greater part of his 2000 men deserted him before he had completed half of his journey.

(By Frederic J. Haskin.) NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 10.—The famous lexicographer who declared that there were three kinds of lies, "lies, damn lies, and statistics," must have been struggling with something that was growing too rapidly to be counted. Certainly, statistics of the women's wear manufacturing industry would be embraced in this definition. Our decennial census is far too slow to keep pace with an industry that in New York alone expands so rapidly as to make even last year's map obsolete.

DICTAGRAPH IN
THE NOTED CASE
VAN HORN, Texas, Oct. 10.—One of defendant's counsel in Mrs. Arnes Orner's case made a proposition at noon today to plead guilty for his client and take 15 years.

Lean; Philadelphia, Bender and Schang.
Umpires—Egan behind the bat, Klem bases, Connolly right field, Rigler left field.

A cold day did not check the enthusiasm of the New Mexico state fair celebrators, the crowds turning out for the afternoon program of sports.

His story, upon direct examination, appeared well told and seemed the pink of truth and impartiality. Then he was turned over to the defense for cross examination and for three hours he was grilled and milled until the quid of chewing gum disappeared and a look of despair and helplessness had covered his countenance.

There are more than 10,000 manufacturing establishments in New York City devoted to women's wear. They employ enough people to populate a great city, and the stream of gold flowing through their channels is so wide and deep that the imagination scarcely can fathom it.

At 2 p. m. the defense rested and the state called witness Romaldo Maese, who testified that he is working for the Peake Undertaking company, in El Paso, and that he knew Chas. Owen.
He further testified that he once worked in a drug store in El Paso.

Twenty thousand people saw today's contest when the Athletics took a six run lead and then the Giants fell on Bender's delivery and a fusillade of six hits sent in five runs. Bender held the Giants to two hits up to the sixth.
Merkle's home run and Shafer's three bagger featured the New York hitting.

As usual, the court room was crowded to overflowing, women predominating. Men crowded into the anterooms and halls, many of them sitting in the windows with their legs suspended inside and out. As the cross examination grew faster and more furious, the big audience became intensely interested and the sound of a pin dropping could have been heard.

Another story of the same fight is that the federal troops under Gen. Alvarez broke and fled as soon as the first shot had been fired.

ONE HOUR AND 50 MINUTES BEFORE THE HOUR AT WHICH THE BIG GAME WAS FINISHED Thursday in New York, the El Paso Herald had a paper on the streets with the final score and full account of the game. In other words, ONE MINUTE after the game closed, allowing for difference in time, The Herald had the full report on the street.
The running story of the game was complete up to the last inning in the first edition issued, and a few moments later the second edition carried the FULL STORY. THE HERALD'S FIRST EDITION BEAT THE OTHER BOX SCORE. THE HERALD'S FIRST EDITION WITH THE BOX SCORE BEAT THE OTHER PAPER'S THIRD EDITION ON THE STREET BY 10 MINUTES.
