

No I. A. C. Boxing Before Nov. 23

Officials Sizing Up the Scrappers

There will not be a fight in the Juarez arena, under the auspices of the International A. C. before November 23, and there will not be a contest on Thanksgiving. This is the statement of S. G. Gonzalez, promoter and official head of the I. A. C. relative to the report that there would be a bantam or welter match before the fight on Sunday afternoon, November 23. Definite action on the part of the officials will be taken in a few days. They are taking time for consideration of the fighting abilities of several boxers who desire to participate in the November card.

Sailor Grande, who is wired for the Jack Herrick match, has not decided whether he will come to Juarez or not. If not, Fighting Thorpe and Frankie Gage will fight on that date, intended for the middleweights.

Gage Not Heard From.
Gage has not been heard from in several weeks but it is said to be likely that he will be glad of a chance to meet Thorpe in a return match, with big money in sight.

Max Halford, the sailor welterweight, will leave for his home in eastern Texas shortly. He may come back, if inducements are sufficient for him, to meet Herrick.

Mantell May Get Chance.
Batting Mantell will probably get a chance in the near future, as soon as the promoters decide definitely upon a match will be made. Batting Minor, a middleweight lightweight, is anxious to meet Mantell in Juarez, and the match may be arranged.

Harry Atwood and Batting Chico have received transportation from promoter Tom McCarey to the Vernon arena, to go to Los Angeles and will probably leave in a few days. Karl Mohan, trainer of Atwood, wants the Juarez league fame at Washington park, is looking out for the interests of Murphy, who wants to meet Harry Atwood.

WOMEN SHOULD HAVE WORD.
SAYS MRS. ROBT. LAPOLLETTE.
Boston, Mass., Oct. 23.—The solution of the railroad tariff, currency and other public problems should not be left solely to men, said Mrs. Robert LaFollette, wife of the senator from Wisconsin, in an address under the auspices of the Boston Equal Suffrage Association for Good Government. "Certainly," she said, "every woman will concede that insofar as the railroad rates and tariffs and trusts affect the cost of living, it is she who must bear the brunt."

COLORADO SPRINGS HAS ANTI-HATPIN ORDINANCE.

FARMING OPPORTUNITIES FOR DAIRY FARMING

Government is Aiding in Giving Information About Western Lands Suitable for Raising Dairy Products.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 23.—The establishment of creameries on several of the sub-division parcels of government land during the past two years has proved so successful that there is widespread interest in dairying among the settlers. Unfortunately many of the settlers are without the necessary capital to purchase good dairy stock and for the best part of the year to continue the uneconomic method of selling all their forage crops.

A large number of these settlers are trying to operate more land than their means will warrant, and with a view of engaging in dairying are desirous of sub-division parcels of land in order to get money for the purchase of stock. This has placed on the market a considerable area of land on several projects where nearly all of the government land has been taken up. The prices and terms offered are more on the basis of the need for money than actual value, and offer excellent opportunities for experienced dairymen to establish themselves in communities where their enterprise is practically assured.

There are numerous sections where good land suited for dairy farming can be had at prices ranging from $25 to $50 per acre, with water ready for irrigation. On all these projects the markets for all products, beef and pork, are excellent, and there is every indication of a continuance for an indefinite period. It has been demonstrated repeatedly that dairying in the west is the safest, surest and in the long run the most profitable form of agriculture to engage in.

The Reclamation service at Washington is furnishing information concerning location, prices and terms, to all who are seeking land in the west, but is especially desirous of interesting practical farmers with capital. Many of the projects contain a few government farms available for homesteading.

FORT DAVIS BECOMES GREAT APPLE CENTER

Late Freeze in Spring Reduces Yield But Good Crop is Gathered and Demand is Excellent.

Fort Davis, Texas, Oct. 23.—Late frozes last spring caused a shortage in the apple crop of the famous Tippit orchard in the southeastern part of the county. Despite the shortage, Mr. Tippit will gather over 4000 bushels of apples which will net him over $4000. He states that the cost of production is not in excess of $25 per annum, and that his apples always sell at a ready market. He can hardly gather them fast enough to supply the demand.

Dr. W. T. Jones has another example of what can be done here by raising apples. He has trees only five years old that this year were full of as fine apples both as to flavor and color as apples grown any place.

Will Ward has another fine orchard. He has one tree five years old from which he has sold over $116 worth of apples besides what they used for home use. That is at the rate of $48 per acre.

One tree alone in the Carlton orchard has been known to yield $20 worth of apples in one season. The apple industry here while in its infancy, is growing to be immense. In the last two years there have been over 4000 trees planted in this valley. Each year finds many more acres planted to apples, and the result finds many more people becoming interested in apple growing as they begin to realize the great possibilities in this industry.

The cost of production here is very small. It is very seldom that they need to spray or to use smudge pots for the protection of the fruit crop, and the fruit is of such excellent flavor that it can be readily disposed of in the local market at a good price.

TO TEACH FARMERS USE OF IRRIGATION

Government Plans to Establish Demonstration Farms on Each Irrigation Project in West.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 23.—Plans are under way for the establishment of practical demonstration farms on each government reclamation project, Secretary Lane had a conference with secretary Houston and assistant secretary Galloway, of the agricultural department, and urged them to secure the services of experienced irrigation farmers and locate them on the several projects and have his own staff instruct the settlers as to the use of irrigation water, the kinds of crops to plant out and how to cultivate the soil.

Secretary Lane's idea is to obtain the highest efficiency from the irrigated lands.

It was decided that the agricultural department and the interior department would cooperate in the details of which will be worked out as soon as possible.

MAY ENFORCE THE KENT DECREE ON TEMPE CANAL

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 23.—An application has been filed in the superior court of Maricopa county for a special order directing that the Kent decree be enforced under the Tempe canal. The Kent decree was handed down some six years ago and gives water rights in the Salt river valley in accordance with the doctrine of prior rights.

The owners of half the 20,000 acres under the Tempe canal assert that the directors of the Tempe Canal company, Grant Jones, Nils Peterson and Charles Stulen, have refused to enforce the Kent decree. Instead it is charged they have been apportioning the water of the canal among the shares in the corporation. This gives the owners of the 10,000 acres of "new land" that is, land put into cultivation since 1880, the same rights as the holders of "old land."

She was followed by several other women speakers in the audience, but the people tired of the impromptu votes meeting and rapidly vacated the theater.

FARMING MANY APPLES ARE WASTED IN ORCHARDS

Careless Handling is Proving Costly to Orchardmen in the Santa Rosa District; Shipments Start.

Santa Rosa, N. M., Oct. 23.—The orchards in the vicinity of Santa Rosa, in the Pecos valley, are beginning to market the winter fruit, which is of fine quality. Very little of this fruit is being shipped because of the large local demand, but it is stated that hundreds of bushels of apples are going to waste in the orchards for want of proper handling. The sentiment for better fruit is growing, and with proper inspection, care and spraying, the present acreage in orchards in this valley will permit of outside shipments next year. Hundreds of acres of improved fruit land is still available in this vicinity.

MIDLAND CATTLEMAN IS BUILDING SECOND SILO

Midland, Texas, Oct. 23.—Henry M. Hall, who erected the first silo on the south plains, is so well pleased with the results obtained that he is building another one. He has been feeding for the Fort Worth stock show from his 200 ton silo for the past month, and has just finished refilling with late feed. He has hundreds of tons of late feed left. Nearly all the fields that have been cut have produced a good second crop.

Mr. Hall plans to finish 200 baby beavers for the market next June.

As a result few are raising the birds this year.

Deming, N. M., Oct. 23.—The Bi-Metallic Mining & Milling company, which is owned by Deming citizens, which rich ores Mr. Cox has been making an examination of the mines of the company at Tierra Blanca in the Lake valley region. An assay of one sample which was taken near the Midnight tunnel gave $26.06 per ton in gold. Others showed a little over $40. As a whole an excellent indication is given of the richness of the mines. Most of the stock of the company is owned by Deming citizens.

Eat Less

Observations of the physical man and of his diet have shown that the average person eats too much. Two meals a day ought to sustain an ordinary man not engaged in hard labor. Dinner, says Thackeray, is base ingratitude to breakfast and premeditated insult to supper.

A stuffed and overtired condition brings about auto-intoxication or self-poisoning, a condition not always recognized especially when in company with other complications. It first shows itself in slackened energy and a general depression. If you feel that way and are not sure what is the cause of it, we invite you to call at our office for a free examination. It may be we will be able to advise a diet that will put you on your feet again. If you need treatment we will be glad to serve you. We have been in Specialty practice more than twenty-five years. We treat Blood, Skin, Nerve, Urinary, Prostate, Kidney, Liver and Stomach Diseases and have sufficient faith in our ability and methods to cure Blood Poison, Eczema, Psoriasis, Nervous Debility, Obstructions, Piles, Hydrocele and Varicocele to guarantee to cure you or to refund your money.
