well supplied with equipment and provisions. The forces of Colon Diaz and Rabago marched from Casas Grandes toward Batopilas evidently to head off the retreat of the rebels from San Isidro and other points, and to clear the road between Minaca and Sanchez.

Terraza, Ranch Hated. There is a rumor that has been traced to good authority that the Gen. Terraza, ranch at Encinillas about 40 miles from this city on the Central railway, was raided by a band of insurgents who have taken possession, and that the employees went over in a body and joined them.

This has been denied by those in a position to know, and a statement made that the raiders amounted to no more than 10 or 12.

Rebel Leaders Leaving. It is stated upon reliable authority that several of the leaders of the rebels in this section have abandoned their cause and are now in the states, leaving their followers in disorder. Gen. Hernandez has received special word from El Paso to this effect and further that Castillo Herrera has passed through that city on his way to the states. Herrera was one of the leading rebel officers, and has fought with much vigor against the government.

ATTEMPTED HOLDUP NEAR CORRALITOS

Mormon Has Close Call with Three Mexicans—New Jefe at Casas Grandes.

Colonia Dublin, Chih., Mex., Jan. 16.—While Ammon Tenney, Jr. was returning home from Pearson he was held up by three Mexicans who claimed to be revolutionists, but he was successful in holding them off. He was riding alone in a one seated rig, and as he drove up to the Corralitos gate between San Miguel and Terraza, he noticed a man's hat near the railroad track. In an effort to climb out of the buggy immediately and opening the gate, he remained and watched. Soon three Mexicans came up and told him they needed his outfit. He said he needed it also. They said they must have it because they were afraid but he said, "If you take my rig, I will be afraid."

It seems that they only had one gun; they drew it on him and ordered him to dismount. Instead he ordered the gunman with his pistol and again refused. One of the unarmed Mexicans stepped up to the rig, saying, "I will knock him off." Without withdrawing his pistol from the man who held the gun, he cranked his buggy and caught the Mexican between the wheel and the conveyance.

As he was persistent in refusing his rig, the leader said, "If you are determined to keep your buggy, at least let us have your firearms." Mr. Tenney laughed and said, "If I let you have

Life Insurance Companies

They Are Closely Observing Public Health Conditions.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies in an interview on the subject made the astonishing statement that the reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of applicants do not even suspect that they have the disease.

He states that judging from his own experience and reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has probably been more successful in relieving and curing these diseases than any remedy known. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of cures.

We find that Swamp-Root is strictly an herbal compound and we would advise our readers who feel in need of such a remedy to give it a trial. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes—fifty-cents and one-dollar. However, if you wish first to test its wonderful merits, send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle, absolutely free. When writing be sure and mention The El Paso Daily Herald.

my firearms you would soon have my outfit."

Getting tired of being detained, he dismounted, opened the gate, and led his horse through, all the time keeping his gun cocked upon the Mexicans who held the other gun. He continued to walk backwards until he saw two teams coming towards him, then as soon as he felt safe he climbed into the buggy and drove home.

Secretary of state Parras came in from Chihuahua to instal Donaciano Mapula in the office of jefe, made vacant by the departure of senor Francisco Mateos. The new jefe leaves originally from Janes, where he still owns property, but he came from Chihuahua to Casas Grandes. While secretary Parras and the new jefe were both here a mass meeting was held in Casas Grandes so the people might become acquainted with their new jefe and to learn who would stand in defence of their homes and the government in case of an encounter with the revolutionists. From here senor Parras went to Janes.

The father of Howard Young is here visiting his son. It has been a great many years since Howard saw his father. The Home Dramatic played "Sins, the Choir Boy," to a crowded house and an appreciative audience. Two weeks later they will produce "Uncle Josh."

There were 26 or 25 new students entered the academy just after the Christmas holidays. The ninth grade students gave a party Sunday evening.

SAYS INSURECTOS PAID FOR THE CORN WITH BEEF
Pat Durack, who is in El Paso from the Sierra Madre mine near Leon, on the Mexico North Western, says a band of revolutionists visited his camp last week and took six sacks of corn. They left him two sacks and saying they had no money, paid for that which they took, with two quarters of beef.

MAYOR SPEER OUT FOR SENATORSHIP

Denver, Colo., Jan. 16.—Mayor R. W. Speer, of Denver, in a letter which he sent to every Democratic member of the Colorado general assembly, today made formal announcement of his candidacy for the United States senate to succeed the late senator Hughes. In the letter Mayor Speer says: "I am not the candidate of any corporation or interest, and I would not go to Washington unless I could go as a free man to work for what I believed to be the best interests of the people and to help Colorado." Esq. Governor Alva Adams, Pueblo, has not formally announced his candidacy.

Former governor Charles S. Thomas has announced his candidacy. A tinge of bitterness has been given to the campaign by the advocacy of the election to the senatorship of governor Shafer by a local paper because, according to the announcement, it would prove that Colorado is not corrupt and unshamed.

HORSES, CATTLE AND CHICKENS ON SHOW

Denver, Colo., Jan. 16.—The sixth annual Western stock show was opened here this morning with a parade through the business portion of the city. The show continues throughout the week. It is the largest in the history of the city. At the stock yards for the event there are 15,000 thoroughbred cattle, 6,000 pedigreed sheep and 10,000 fancy hogs. The Denver horse show and the National west country show which are being held in conjunction with the stock show are 600 blooded horses and 2,000 fancy chickens to the show.

The attendance from the southwestern and middle western states is unusually heavy.

RENEWAL OF FIGHT ON MR. BALLINGER

Resolution Approving the Minority Report Is Offered.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 16.—A renewal of the fight on secretary of the interior Ballinger is contemplated in a resolution presented today by senator Purcell, which seeks to force into the open the report of the joint congressional committee that investigated the charges made against the secretary by Clifford Pinchot.

The report has been in possession of both the house and senate for some time, but no action has been taken. Today's resolution is to the effect that the findings of certain members of the committee that secretary Ballinger's administration of his office had been marked by lack of fidelity to the public interests, and that he should no longer be retained in office, are in substantial conformity with the evidence.

Senator Purcell says his purpose is to press the resolution to a vote as soon as possible.
