with the principles of the democratic party and the policy of the party as enunciated in its platform. It is not a question of the tariff, but of the principle of the tariff. I believe in the protection method as it is in itself for revenue only, and in free raw materials and in free trade in the products of the tariff. The tariff is a question of principle, not of expediency.

Washington, December 1.—Representative Henry Jones today said that there are practically three modes by which the treasury deficit could be made up—by raising taxes, by an income tax or by a reduction of expenditures. In regard to the first, he said that he would not support any measure that would increase the tax on the people. He said that the tariff is a question of principle, not of expediency.

Washington, December 1.—The meeting of the ways and means committee today was brief. The estimate showing the probable difference in revenue resulting from the new bill were not complete and the committee adjourned until Monday. The labor of estimating the revenue under the new tariff bill has progressed far enough to warrant the statement of the committee that the loss of revenue resulting from the new bill and the gain of revenue from the new tariff will be about $10,000,000 per annum.

THE REVOLT IN MEXICO. ALARMING REPORTS IF THEY ARE AUTHENTIC. Revolutionists Claim to Have a Regular Picnic in Slaughtering the Regulars.

El Paso, Texas, December 1.—Victor L. Odicia, who was yesterday arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Beardsley at the instance of Colonel Mackay, charged with a violation of the neutrality laws, was today dismissed by Commissioner Gibbs. Leigh Clark appeared as prosecuting attorney for the consul, but there was no evidence. The witnesses that the consul called on to show that the president is being misled by these men were afraid to appear, as they might be given trouble by the revolutionists.
