IT IS FEARED HE HAS FALLEN A VICTIM TO THE YAGUÍ INDIANS.
 Chicago, August 13.—A record special from Grayson, Mexico, says "Colonel A. H. Moore of New York and a mining expert, named Johnson of San Antonio, have gathered a guard and gone to the relief of an American named Cook, who is in charge of a mine near Bocala. No word has been received from the latter part of July, and it is feared he has fallen a victim to the Indians. The party started for Bocala yesterday over a trail known to be infested with Yaguí. "A miner who has reached here says that 400 Yaguí Indians are encamped ten miles west of Torres, a station on the Sonora railroad, on their way to join the rebellious Indians along the river. Reports from Torres say one of the Yaguí chiefs was killed while on his way to Mayo river to organize a branch of the Mayo Indians, who were to join the Yaguí in their fight against the government. "The steamer Zaituco has left Guaymas for Mariano with troops for General Torres."

 Enemy Entrenched Two Miles Beyond Town, Where They Could Not Be Dislodged.

Manila, August 13, 3:15 p. m.—The reconnoissance yesterday by the troops of General Samuel B. Young's brigade with the object of discovering the whereabouts of the enemy near San Mateo, east of San Juan reservoir, about ten miles from Manila, resulted in the occupation of San Mateo. The American loss was three killed and thirteen wounded, including a lieutenant of the Thirtieth Infantry.

The Americans entered San Mateo in three columns. Major Cronin with 140 men of the Twenty-fifth Infantry advanced from Navoliches, five miles west of San Mateo. Captain Rivers with 100 men of the Fourth cavalry and Captain Barker, formerly lieutenant colonel of the New York volunteers, with 280 men of the Twenty-first and Twenty-fourth Infantry and the Fourth cavalry approached in two columns from the south.

Major Cronin experienced many difficulties arising from the condition of the country and failed to effect a junction with Captain Rivers west of San Mateo as had been planned. Captain Rivers advancing, took an outpost of the enemy two miles southwest of San Mateo. He then encountered strong resistance among the hills, the enemy firing from excellent positions. Having failed to connect with Major Cronin and seeing that the town was already occupied by the Americans, Captain Rivers withdrew, covering his withdrawal by a heavy volley. He lost a sergeant killed.

General Young accompanied Captain Parker's column and was under fire throughout the engagement. It is estimated that the enemy numbered between 300 and 400 men.

 Reorganizing to Be Continued Until All the Men Authorized by Law Have Been Gotten Into the Army.

(Special to The Post.)
 Washington, August 13.—It has been determined definitely by the administration that more volunteers shall be enlisted than are needed to fill the ten regiments which already are recruited to their full strength. Just how many additional regiments will be recruited is yet to be decided upon absolutely, though it is not improbable that the entire volunteer force of 35,000 men authorized by the reorganization act will be enlisted.

Major General Miles has recommended that the whole provisional army be raised, and his counsel is being accorded serious consideration. This evening Secretary of War Root, when asked whether a conclusion in the matter had been reached, said that it was still in abeyance.

"We have it under advisement," the secretary stated, in reply to the question, "and have not yet determined how many additional regiments shall be recruited." That at least five more regiments of volunteers will be raised is certain; that ten will be recruited is almost as sure, while there is a strong probability, as indicated above, that the entire authorized volunteer force will be enlisted before the enlistments are closed. That the administration has concluded to enlist more troops for service in the Philippines is not in doubt.

He denies the correctness of the interview and through his attorneys demanded to be set right.

NEW BRITISH BATTLESHIP.
 It is to Be Very Different from the Present Style.
 London, August 13.—At the moment Emperor William was telling Congressman Foss that the best peace conference is a strong navy, plans had just passed the British admiralty for an entirely new class of warship. Great interest is taken in the new vessel, which was designed by Sir William White, director of naval construction, who has given a representative of the Associated Press the following particulars: "We believe she will be the greatest triumph in naval architecture, both for speed and fighting. She will cost, ready for sea, about $1,250,000; her speed will be a knot in excess of any British battleship, and her guns, turret, torpedo tubes, and booms will embody ideas which experience and experiment have proved beyond anything yet attempted in this or any other country. Her guns will be generally of smaller caliber than those of the new bulwark now building. She will be the longest and broadest warship ever laid down in a government dockyard, while her draft will be shallow. Her breadth is designed to attain the maximum steadiness under fire, and from her steer gear very excellent results are certain. Forward will be circular turrets mounted with rapid fire guns. Her total armament will be fifty-two guns. The details as to their caliber, for the present, must be kept secret. Six torpedo tubes will complete her equipment. Her protection of Harveyized steel will be less than on the ships now building. The Spanish-American war directed our attention to coal capacity, and nothing will be wanting in that respect. Her displacement will be 13,000 tons. The new vessel, which will be laid down in November at Devonport immediately after the bulwark is off the slip, should be ready within a year. She will be the nearest approach yet attained to a perfect combination of the fighting capacity of a battleship with the mobility of a cruiser of that type advocated by one of the highest naval authorities in the world, Captain Mahan.

M. LABORI.

Maitre Labori left his house alone for the court at about 6 o'clock this morning. His residence is situated in the suburbs of the town about a quarter of an hour's walk from the Lycee, the route being along a solitary road beside the River Vilaye. He had reached a point half way on his journey when two men, who had evidently been lying in wait for him, rushed out of a narrow lane and one of them fired a single shot from a revolver. The murderer was only a couple of yards behind their victim and the bullet struck Labori in the back. The wounded man uttered an agonized cry and fell flat on his face. The murderers immediately fled through the line from which they had emerged and both had escaped. At 7:30 o'clock it was announced that the bullet had entered the stomach; that there was no outward bleeding and that the physicians believe that M. Labori will die from the wound.

A later story has it that Maitre Labori was shot in the temple by a man who fired a revolver at him outside the court and that the miscreant was arrested.

General Jimenez Sanguine of Success in San Domingo.
 Havana, August 13.—General Juan Isidor Jimenez, the aspirant to the presidency of the republic of Santo Domingo, says he has received news of numerous recent successes of his partisans. He declares also that he has all the money he needs, as well as a thousand men under arms. At an early date he expects to receive news of the utter collapse of the present Dominican government, after which he will go to Santo Domingo, as soon as his partisans, who, he says, are a majority of the population, desire.
