CREAGER DENIES IT

SAYS HE NEVER AT ANY TIME APPROACHED McMURRAY FOR MONEY—HE TALKED POLITICS WITH HIM IN WASHINGTON.

(Herald Special.)
McAlester, Okla., Aug. 10.—Jake Hamon was placed on the stand in the Gore inquiry again today, and made the direct charge that Congressman Creager of Oklahoma made what he considered a direct request of J. F. McMurray for a thousand dollars. Hamon says the transaction took place in Washington last June. He said McMurray did not give Creager the money, saying to Hamon that he could not afford to give the legislators money. According to Hamon, Creager told McMurray that he needed a thousand dollars for his campaign expenses.
Creager, on the stand, admitted meeting McMurray but denied asking him for money. He said they talked politics. Creager emphatically denied that he was in any kind of a deal with Gore respecting the present investigation.

HOUSTON FOR GOVERNOR.

Beaumont Man Nominated By Prohibitionists of Texas.

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 9.—The state convention of the prohibition party of Texas nominated the following state ticket today:

For Governor—Colonel A. J. Houston, Beaumont.

For Lieutenant Governor—Arthur A. Everts, Dallas.

For Controller—J. D. Stockton, Clarendon.

For Attorney General—Millard Patterson, El Paso.

For Railroad Commissioner—E. H. Conibear, Dallas.

For Treasurer—J. E. McGuire, Palacios.

For Commissioner of the General Land Office—Will H. Jobe, Sweetwater.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction—J. M. Pardue, Gilmer.

A platform was also adopted, a new state central committee was elected, and the committee reports were received. Colonel Houston, the nominee for governor, addressed the delegates at the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce tonight.

THEY DYNAMITED A GUARD

Three Long Term Convicts in Arkansas Threw Dynamite Behind a Guard and Escaped.

(Herald Special.)
Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 10.—Three long term negro convicts, confined in the state convict camp at Bigelow, near here, exploded dynamite behind Guard Tom Lenox today and made their escape. Lenox was blown one hundred feet and his lower jaw was torn away. His death is expected.

BAD BLAZE AT SAN ANGELO.

Five Concerns Were Damaged to the Extent of $39,400.

San Angelo, Texas, Aug. 9.—Fire gutted two brick buildings adjoining the Landers Hotel, on Concho avenue, last night at 9 o'clock. For a time it appeared that the hotel and a livery stable adjoining the burning building were doomed, but the flames were held in check. The fire originated from a hot box on a pulley on an electric dynamo under the stage of the Yale Theater. The theater building and the Yale Summer Garden were soon a mass of flames, but the audience had time to retire in order. The Currier-Hanks furniture store, next to the theater, caught fire.

The losses were: Merchant & McConnell, building, $10,000, insurance $6,000; Mrs. W. T. Geirge of Sonora, Texas, building $9,000, insurance $6,000; Yale Theater and Yale Summer Garden, loss $5,000, no insurance; Currier-Hanks furniture store, loss $15,000, insurance $9,000; M. O. Bates barber shop, loss $400.

OPERATION DEFERRED

DOCTORS AT ST. MARY'S HOSPITAL WILL NOT OPERATE ON MAYOR GAYNOR, FEARING THE RESULT OF LOSS OF BLOOD.

(Herald Special.)
Hoboken, N. Y., Aug. 10.—A bulletin issued from St. Mary's Hospital at 7 o'clock this morning says: "The mayor has rested comfortably since 5 o'clock. He has taken nourishment and his condition at this time is satisfactory." Secretary Adamson said the mayor slept about three hours last night. He ate some chicken broth this morning. Mrs. Gaynor spent the night at the hospital and spent a half hour with her husband this morning. Gaynor seemed cheered by her visit. The doctors had not decided this morning on whether to operate or not. The X-ray showed the bullet to have struck the jaw bone, halving itself. The wound is not dangerous unless infection sets in.

The physicians today decided that they would not operate on Gaynor at this time in an effort to remove the bullet, fearing that the loss of blood might leave bad results.

It is an assured fact now that Gallagher will be given a speedy trial, possibly as early as next week. He is formally charged with assault and battery with intent to kill.

Mrs. Gaynor and the trained nurses are in constant attendance on the mayor. Gaynor joked freely with those about him today. His physicians say his temperature is fast returning to normal. He has not returned to his assailant.

Gaynor told his brother and son during the day that he was feeling fine and hoped soon to be up and about. If it is thought necessary it is said the grand jury will indict Gallagher for assault to kill on Edwards as well as Gaynor. Telegrams of condolence continue to pour in from all sections of the country.

Newspapers Are Bitter.

(Herald Special.)
New York, Aug. 10.—The newspapers of New York comment with regret on the shooting of the mayor. The World says: "If death awaits Gaynor he will still be the hero of a memorable onslaught against hereditary abuses, and there should be in the American republic enough of the old time fire to demand the expiation not only of the life of the wretch immediately guilty, but the extinction forever of the political rapacity that produced him."

The Hoboken grand jury will start an investigation of Gallagher immediately.

Gallagher, who is confined in the Hudson county jail in Jersey City, was morose this morning.

Edwards' Life Threatened.

(Herald Special.)
New York, Aug. 10.—Bill Edwards, who overpowered Gaynor's assailant yesterday, received a letter today threatening his life. The letter was signed "A Friend of Gallagher." Edwards ignored the letter.

JOE GANS DIED TODAY

Former Lightweight Champion Boxer Died in Baltimore at 8 O'Clock This Morning.

(Herald Special.)
Baltimore, Md., Aug. 10.—Joe Gans, former lightweight champion boxer of the world, died here this morning at 8 o'clock. He died at the home of his foster parents, and his wife and foster mother and a number of friends were at his bedside when death came. Gans' fortune, formerly estimated at $100,000, has dwindled down to about $10,000.
