HE HAD $14,000 BUT LODGED IN A STABLE

OLD MAN WAS ARRESTED, BUT WAS LIBERATED WHEN IT WAS FOUND HE WAS A MAN OF MEANS.

HAD BEEN HIT ON HEAD

And Was In Bad Shape When Taken In By Officers, Who Investigated His Case and Took Him to a Hotel For the Night. A Stranger.

Last night a white man, a stranger, was arrested at a livery stable in Old Town. He was found asleep in a horse stall, resting in the feed trough, according to report. He was in bad shape, also, when the officers called to get him. Some one had struck him on the head and about the face. At first it was thought he was drunk or drinking, but this was soon dispelled, for the man was perfectly sober. He was escorted to a hotel and put to bed.

When the officers got hold of the man a search revealed the fact that he was a man of means, that he had enough ready money for his immediate needs, and on his person was a bank draft or money order, made payable to himself, for $14,000.

Why he chose a horse stall instead of a bed for his night's lodging has not been explained.

CONFUSED THE EXPERT

DR. CRIPPEN'S LIFE LITERALLY HANGS BY IDENTIFICATION OF A STRAND OF HAIR FOUND NEAR DEAD BODY.

(Herald Special.)
London, Sept. 14.—Dr. H. H. Crippen's life today literally hangs by a hair. Under the merciless cross-examination by Attorney Newton of the defense, Dr. Pepper, the government analyst, practically repudiated his former testimony and admitted that it was impossible to determine the sex of the body found in Crippen's home and supposed to be Belle Elmore, from an anatomical study of it.

"Is not this the only way to determine the sex with certainty?" thundered Newton.

"Yes," answered Dr. Pepper. Newton then forced Pepper to say that he agreed with Dr. Marshall, the other government expert, that an anatomical examination failed to reveal the sex of the body.

The sensational turn of the testimony is regarded as indicating the collapse of the prosecution. Dr. Pepper's admission leaves the identity of the body dependent upon the identification of a strand of hair found near the remains.

POINDEXTER IS WINNER

ANOTHER JOLT HANDED

Old Guard in New York—William Bennett Will Succeed Congressman Olcott.

(Herald Special.)
New York, Sept. 14.—It is conceded today that Assemblyman William M. Bennett will probably be able to force his nomination to succeed Congressman Olcott, as a result of his defeat in yesterday's city primary of H. W. Mack, Olcott's representative. The "old guard" are not comforted by Olcott's overthrow, as Bennett today declared himself as a Roosevelt-Hughes primary reform candidate. The old guard, however, retained control in Richmond and Queens counties.

(Herald Special.)
New York, Sept. 14.—That the government weighers on the steamship docks in this city, working on a salary of four dollars a day, were able to put away in savings banks from fifteen hundred to twenty-five hundred dollars per month, is the latest revelation today in the trial of three weighers in the federal court.

graft system and the manner in which the government officials solicited and accepted bribes and the extent to which the import weighing division of the federal government was honeycombed with graft, was laid bare.

SHOOTING AT DALLAS.

Oscar F. Jernigan, Electric Lineman, Killed Tuesday Afternoon.

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 13.—At 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon Oscar F. Jernigan, lineman of the Dallas Electric Light and Power company, was shot twice and almost instantly killed. Buckshot fired at about fifty feet distance entered the right side and the breast. The man sank to the pavement and breathed but once or twice.

The lineman was employed in removing wires from some of the poles on Elm street and placing them upon others, the freed poles being removed. Jernigan had just descended from a pole and walked across the street to the southeast corner of Elm and Austin, when he was shot. The man who did the shooting surrendered to the officers. A repeating shotgun was still in his hands when he was taken in custody by Motorcycle Officer Hinton. Many persons were on the street, but no one else was injured.

In connection with the shooting Frank Banner, 25 years of age and married, was arrested. He declined to make a statement as to the cause of the shooting, but said he might do so later. He was taken first to the city jail and later to the county jail. The body of Jernigan was removed to the undertaking establishment of Ed C. Smith & Bro. and will be viewed by Justice of the Peace Tom A. Work as coroner.

Taylor Will Make the Race.

Taylor of Calvert, after a great deal of solicitation by a number of his friends in this district, has decided to make the race to fill the unexpired term as senator of the Twelfth district, composed of Robertson, Brazos, Freestone and Limestone counties. Mr. Taylor is well known and very popular and served as county judge of Robertson county for several terms.

(Herald Special.)
Hammond, La., Sept. 14.—Mrs. Georgia Wren, the young woman bandit who terrorized the people of St. Tammany parish by holding up motorist parties on the highways, was released from jail today because the scores of men, her victims, declined to prosecute her or prefer any charges. She was arrested yesterday. Following her release and as she was leaving the court house she yelled "go to hell" to a lot of reporters who had been writing her up. She says she will return to the woods as a highwayman again.
