

IMPOSING PARADE

OF VETERANS TOOK PLACE AT ATLANTIC CITY TODAY—SOMETHING PATHETIC IN THINNED-OUT RANKS OF G. A. R.

(Herald Special.)
Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 21.—Thousands of spectators lined the principal thoroughfares of Atlantic City today and cheered the veterans of Gettysburg, Antietam, the Wilderness, Vicksburg and Appomattox as they marched in the annual parade of the Grand Army national encampment. With bands playing and flags flying the old soldiers made a brave showing and displayed much enthusiasm. But the line of march was shorter and the number of paraders noticeably less than in years gone by, and altogether there was something pathetic in the thinned-out ranks of the veterans which touched the hearts of all who saw them.

Promptly at 10 o'clock this morning the signal to start was fired by Battery A, Sons of Veterans Reserve, Division of New Jersey. The start was made from the intersection of North Carolina avenue and Pacific avenue, the line moving thence through Rhode Island avenue, Ohio avenue, Atlantic avenue and other leading streets to Tennessee avenue, where the column was dismissed. Chief Marshal Silas H. Towler and his staff led the column. Commander-in-Chief Van Sant and his escort were next in line. The forty-four departments of the Grand Army followed, with the Department of Illinois in the van. The Department of New Jersey, the encampment host, brought up the rear. Governor Fort and other notables, including the national officers of the Sons of Veterans and other organizations affiliated with the G. A. R., reviewed the procession from a stand erected in Park Place.

Throughout the parade was strictly military, no women, children or grotesque costumes being permitted in the column. A hearty reception was extended to the veterans all along the route, each of the departments being cheered as it filed past. The demonstration was one of great enthusiasm and yet the veterans were to greet the fast-fading ranks.

The woolen, cotton and metal schedules will be investigated in the order named.

COAL OIL VICTIM.
Will Scott of Port Arthur Poured Fatal Fluid on Smoldering Fire.

Port Arthur, Texas, Sept. 19.—William Scott, a dock worker, was fatally burned this morning when in preparing breakfast he poured coal oil in the stove, in which a slow fire was burning. An explosion followed. Fragments of the shattered stove pierced his forehead bone, tore his eyes to blindness and mangled his face. His body was frightfully burned. The accident happened shortly before 6 o'clock, Scott dying in the hospital here at 8:45 a. m. His only known relative is a sister in Canada.

FIVE PERSONS SHOT.

Were Ambushed by Unknown Parties Near Little Rock.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 19.—Five persons, three whites and two negroes, were shot from ambush by an unknown person while driving on the Sweet Home pike, four miles south of Little Rock, tonight. An unidentified negro was instantly killed by the assassin. Mrs. Charles Diehl, wife of a well known local man, was the first victim. She was brought to a local hospital and is believed to be seriously wounded.
Fred Gossell and Miss Nellie Meyers, driving past the same place a short time later, were also shot. A charge of shot struck Gossell in the head, but he will recover. Miss Meyers was only slightly injured.
The physician who went to dress Gossell's wound found the dead negro in a buggy which the driverless horse was pulling along the pike. Later the negro's companion was found. She stated that they had been fired upon at the same spot, which was densely wooded.
Officers have been unable to locate the assassin.

CHARLTON CASE AGAIN

Hearing on Application of Italian Government For Extradition of Alleged Murderer Is Begun.

(Herald Special.)
Jersey City, N. J., Sept. 12.—In the Hudson county court today a hearing was begun on the application of the Italian government for the extradition of Porter Charlton, accused of murdering his wife and throwing her body in a trunk in Lake Como, Italy. The purpose of the hearing is to determine legally if Charlton committed murder, and if the offense is extraditable. The testimony taken will be submitted to the secretary of state at Washington and he will decide the question of extradition.

BASEBALL NOTES.
Manager Jim McGuire of Cleveland is trying out Catcher Easterly in right field.
Connie Mack is working his young pitchers and holding back his stars for the world's series.
Sherwood Magee of the Quakers looks like a good bet to lead the National League batting list.
Besides pitching winning ball for the Athletics, "Chief" Bender has done nice work with the stick this season.
Some of the Giants pick the Athletics to win the world's series, but a majority of McGuire's men can only see the Cubs.
Harry Bemis, the veteran catcher of Cleveland, is to be released in order to make room for the young backstops signed by the Naps.

"Jiggs" Donohue, formerly of the Chicago White Sox, has quit the game and purchased a bowling alley in Hot Springs, Ark.
Pitcher Redfern of the Greenville club has made a fine showing in the Carolina League this season, winning 21 and losing 8 games.
The Eau Claire, Wis., club has a player by the name of Kick, a quiet fellow, who seldom kicks against the umpire's decisions.

The Boston Doves, the St. Louis Browns, the republicans of Maine and "Old Doc" Cook. Wouldn't that bunch make a swell league?
Because he has picked the Cubs to defeat the Athletics, Umpire Johnstone will no doubt be barred from umpiring in the world's series.

Hans Wagner will not play with any all-star aggregation. Honus gets $12,000 a year to play in Pittsburgh and with the Pirates he will stick.
Tub Spencer is again catching for St. Paul. It is hard to keep tab on the number of times Spencer has quit and returned to the Saints.

In "Ping" Bodie of the Pacific Coast League and "Red" Bowser of the Michigan League the White Sox get two classy young outfielders and heavy hitters.
