WHO PERPETRATED OUTRAGE AT LOS ANGELES—DETECTIVES SEEK MEN WHO BOUGHT EXPLOSIVES AT OAKLAND.

(Herald Special.)
San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 4.—The police of San Francisco today are almost positive that the three men giving their names as Leonard, Morris and Brison, who purchased the five hundred pounds of dynamite from the Giant Powder Plant at Oakland on September twenty-fourth, are the men responsible for the dynamite outrage in Los Angeles, including the wrecking of the Times' plant. Attorney Earl Rogers and Detective Wm. J. Burns, investigating the clue here, learned today that the three men anchored their launch at Saúlalite from September twenty-first to the twenty-third, and on the night of the twenty-third gave the craft a new coat of paint.

DESPERADO IS DEFIANT

JOHN DEITZ OF CAMERON DAM, WISCONSIN, DEFIES OFFICERS AND TERRIFIES A WHOLE COMMUNITY.

(Herald Special.)
Winter, Wis., Oct. 4.—With armed deputies still guarding Winter, scores of woodmen are surrounding the cabin of John Deitz of Cameron Dam and fighting and possibly bloodshed are expected today as the result of a long-standing feud between the authorities and Deitz. Myra Deitz, the twenty-three year old daughter of the outlaw, is at the point of death in the Ashland hospital as the result of gunshot wounds inflicted by the deputies when she and two brothers were ambushed last Saturday. One of the brothers is held wounded in the Winter jail. The other brother escaped and joined his father. Deitz sent word to Winter that he would visit the place and kill every man in any way responsible for the shooting, but the officers and posse have not waited for the visit but have pushed the warfare into Deitz's own territory. Barricaded in the cabin with Deitz are his wife and three children. Deitz first ran afoul of the authorities several years ago when he refused to give up his homestead claim to a lumber syndicate.

MUCH COTTON BURNED.

Warehouse and Contents Were Destroyed at Navasota.

Navasota, Texas, Oct. 3.—As near as can be figured, about four hundred and fifty bales of cotton were lost by fire last night when McNair's warehouse was burned to the ground. The alarm was sounded at 11 o'clock, and notwithstanding the fire company and citizens responded promptly, the building was doomed by the time the first stream was thrown upon it. The boys fought it four or five hours before the flames were successfully controlled. How the fire originated is another one of those mysteries. The first flame seemed to come from the middle of the building and in a very short while the roof fell in. The building being isolated is all that saved the west portion of the city. The wind was high, sending sparks several hundred yards in the air. The loss will fall exceedingly heavy upon several parties who had no insurance whatever, one man having thirty odd bales. The marine companies carried insurance on one hundred and four bales and local insurance firms carried about $7000. This leaves about $22,000 worth of cotton unprotected.
