

A SENATORIAL CONTEST

In Indiana Between Senator Beveridge and John W. Kern Is Causing Republicans Concern.

(Herald Special.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 12.—The senatorial campaign in Indiana promises to receive a new impetus tomorrow, when former President Roosevelt comes into the state and speaks in behalf of the candidacy of Senator Beveridge for re-election. The Roosevelt speech is awaited with keen interest by republicans and democrats alike, though opinion differs radically as to the effect it may have on the contest.

The fight over the senatorship has already developed into one of the greatest political campaigns in the state's recent history. On one side is Senator Beveridge, the progressive, the foe of Cannons and Aldrichism, and of a tariff which is "too protective," and on the other John W. Kern, twice honored by the democracy of Indiana with the nomination for governor and once the running mate of William J. Bryan on the national ticket.

Senator Beveridge is facing a difficult contest, for all the elements of the democratic party have united in the effort to crown the oft-times unsuccessful Kern with final success. Many elements have entered into the campaign, but in the main it is the progressive tariff idea matched against the tariff-for-revenue only plan. The liquor question figures in the contest in a secondary way and will affect the outcome of the senatorship because the legislature elects the United States senator. In respect to the liquor question it is a straight contest with the democrats standing for the elimination of the county option feature and the republicans for the retention of it.

Mr. Kern has been charged with standing too close to Thomas Taggart, the long-time boss of the democratic party in Indiana and who met with defeat when the state convention disregarded his wishes and nominated a candidate for United States senator. But the Taggart alliance has been relegated to the background as the senatorial campaign has progressed and apparently it will have little or no effect upon Mr. Kern's chances of success. He has the solid backing of practically all the prominent leaders of his party, including Governor Marshall, who two years ago carried Indiana by a majority of more than 15,000.

On the other hand the democracy in Senator Beveridge has a foe worthy of its steel. He is popular and won the admiration of many when he stood out against the powers at Washington and voted against the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill. He again won the admiration of many when he came back to Indiana and, defying such old standpaters as James E. Watson and James A. Hemenway, organized the state convention to suit himself and adopted a platform to his liking.

The democrats are rather pleased over Roosevelt's coming to Indiana to speak for Beveridge. Just how the former president is going to help the progressive senator without justifying his attitude towards the tariff bill, and how he can justify that without condemning Taft and others who uphold the law, is a problem that they do not believe can be solved. They contend that it was democratic dissatisfaction with Parker and not Roosevelt's popularity that gave the latter such an overwhelming majority in 1904, and they say that the conditions now are exactly reversed, for then it was democrats, and now it is republicans who are split into factions.

BUTTERLESS FRUIT CAKE.

Many housewives say it is impossible to make a good fruit cake without butter. The recipe below will give you as rich, flavory a fruit cake as you ever tasted; yet there is no butter in it: Mix four cups sifted pastry flour, one level teaspoon soda, two level teaspoons mixed spices (except cloves), one-fourth level teaspoon salt and two cups seeded and quartered raisins. Add also one-half cup nuts chopped fine, if you like. Blend one-half cup Cottolene with one cup brown sugar and one cup white sugar, add one cup molasses, one cup milk and then the flour mixture. Beat well and bake in two pans.

WHY THEY FAIL.

Most Pile Remedies Miss the Cause of Piles.

Disagreeable treatment with ointments or suppositories usually fails to cure piles and cutting them off won't remove the cause. Such treatment only moderates the outside effects of the disease and fails to remedy the inside cause. The up-to-date doctors now use internal medicine, to free the circulation in the lower bowel, and so remove the disease.

Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, the first and only guaranteed internal pile cure—in the form of tablets—cures any kind of piles. Sold by Bratton Drug Co., Palestine, Texas. $1 for large box. Dr. Leonhardt Co., Station B, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE MEMORIAL BOULDER

Erected to Commemorate Starting of Foreign Missionary Movement Was Dedicated Today.

(Herald Special.)
Bradford, Mass., Oct. 12.—In the presence of a large number of spectators, including a delegation from the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, at present in session in Boston, the memorial boulder, recently erected on the edge of "missionary woods," on the shore of Rabbit's Pond, to commemorate the starting of the movement a hundred years ago which led to the organization of the American Board, was unveiled today with appropriate ceremonies. The monument is of Concord granite, eight feet high, five feet wide and three feet thick. On one side is a large cross, carved in relief, on the other a bronze tablet, giving a brief history of the society which was founded in a small church that stood in the place now occupied by the boulder. Prof. Edward Y. Hincks of the Andover Theological Seminary made a brief historical statement, and Rev. Robert A. Hume, a graduate of the seminary and later missionary in India, delivered the dedicatory address.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has become famous for its cures of coughs, colds, croup and influenza. Try it when in need. It contains no harmful substance and always gives prompt relief. Sold by Bratton Drug Co.

Ottawa Meeting Will Discuss Creation of a Central Council of Health. Good Attendance.

(Herald Special.)

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 12.—Representatives of the various provincial governments met here today in conference with the public health and conservation committees of the Commission of Conservation under the presidency of the Hon. Clifford Sifton, chairman of the commission, to consider various questions relating to the subject of public health. Among the subjects to be considered by the conference are the best method for preventing the pollution of international, inter-provincial and other waterways; international and inter-provincial quarantine regulations; the relationship of the federal and provincial governments to the subject of tuberculosis; harmonizing of the public health laws and the creation of a central council of health.

MALARIAL DISEASES.

How to Avoid Them and the Serious Consequences of Neglect.

"Fix me up something to knock the malaria, doctor," remarked a sallow-faced, sickly looking man, entering a prominent physician's office the other day.

The doctor stepped to his medicine case, took down a couple of bottles, mixed a preparation which he handed to the patient with the customary advice to "take well and follow directions," and resumed his seat.

"Such cases are frequent," replied the doctor in answer to a question. "The warm days and damp, chilly nights are certain malaria breeders and are most serious in those who have neglected to keep their stomach, liver and bowels in good condition. Such persons are full of the impurities on which the malarial germ thrives, and it is from this class that typhoid fever, pneumonia, Bright's Disease, small pox and yellow fever claim most of their victims whenever these diseases are prevalent.

The proper way to guard against the malarial germ and the serious diseases which follow it is to get into good condition by taking a reliable remedy that will keep the bowels clear and the liver healthy, and to continue with it at frequent intervals during the sickly season.

A dose of Prickly Ash Bitters three or four times a week will do all of this, besides stimulating the digestion, improving the appetite and keeping the bodily energy at the highest pitch.

Prickly Ash Bitters is known everywhere as a system tonic and bowel regulator. It not only removes all traces of malarial poison from the system, but tones up the vital organs, gives new strength and vigor, makes the body strong and the brain active.

"Prickly Ash Bitters is the best all-around medicine for the family I ever used. During the past ten years I have always kept it in my house. Whenever any of my family show signs of malaria, kidney trouble, indigestion or constipation a few doses is all that is needed to make them well and hearty again."—W. H. McWILLIAMS, Pickering, La.

LENGTH of service is what really determines the value of a suit or overcoat. It is our contention that garments tailored by the best Craftmen and made from the highest grade of imported fabrics will certainly outwear and ultimately prove more economical than those which cost less at the outset.

IT IS EXPENSIVE to monkey with anything poor in the line of PLUMBING. The best is bound to be the cheapest in the end and besides it always gives satisfaction. It is a good plan to economize when economy is a saving but in this instance it is poor economy to sacrifice quality for price.
