TOBACCO UP WHITE SLAVE

GOVERNMENT WANTS DISSOLUTION AND RECEIVER FOR BIG TOBACCO TRUST.

TRAFFIC IS TO BE INVESTIGATED BY SPECIAL NEW YORK GRAND JURY.

CALLED IN HIGH COURT

J. D. ROCKEFELLER, JR.,

It is Alleged By the Government That Sixty Tobacco Companies Are Now Controlled By Trust. Retail Trade Affected.

is Made Foreman and Instructed By the Judge to Make a Sweeping Investigation of the Traffic and Its Results.

(Herald Special.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 3.—The arguments were begun today before the supreme court in the government suit against the tobacco trust, asking for dissolution and for a receiver. Special Attorney McReynolds opened the argument for the government, and Attorney General Wickersham will himself close the argument. McReynolds traced the history of the tobacco business and the formation of the alleged trust. He said at the present time some sixty companies are under the control of the American Tobacco company, the alleged holding company of the trust. He said the organization represents a capital of $400,000,000. He declared in his argument that the trust practiced unfair methods and destroyed competition, affecting even a large part of the retail trade. He argued that the action of the federal circuit court dismissing the bills against the United Cigar Stores companies was an error, and insisted that the government wants them included in the trial if the case is reversed.

(Herald Special.)
New York, Jan. 3.—The so-called white slave traffic in New York is to be investigated by a special grand jury sworn in today by Judge O. S. Sullivan. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was made foreman of the jury, and was told to make a sweeping investigation. Before the jury was sworn in and charged Judge Sullivan told young Rockefeller that much important work was to be done and he wanted him personally to take charge. Rockefeller asked that he be excused from the jury, but the judge refused his request.

JUDGE LURTON SWORN IN

THREE WERE ARRESTED

As Member of the Supreme Court of the United States—Large Crowd Witnessed Ceremony.

For Suspicion of Complicity in the Murder of Miss Anna Lloyd, a Prominent Woman.

(Herald Special.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 3.—Judge Lurton of Tennessee was today invested with the robes of authority as an associate justice of the supreme court of the United States. The court room was crowded to the limit by those anxious to witness the ceremony. Chief Justice Fuller administered the oath of office, with every one in the room standing. After pronouncing the last phase of the oath Judge Lurton kissed the open bible, held by the clerk of the court. Before taking the public oath the judge had taken a similar oath in the privacy of the court's retiring room before the colleagues of the court. After the oath was administered Judge Lurton was conducted by Marshal Wright to his seat, the furthest one to the left of the chief justice. The court then took up the regular Monday routine.

(Herald Special.)
Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 3.—Henry Cook and George Lewis, white men, and James Fields, a negro, are under arrest and being held by the police on suspicion of knowing something of the murder of Miss Anna Lloyd, who was

BIG MEN INDICTED

By a Federal Grand Jury in Washington Today.

(Special to Herald.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 3.—Former United States Treasurer James Huston was indicted by the federal grand jury today, charged with a conspiracy and the fraudulent use of the mails. The indictment grew out of his connection with the National Trust company. Samuel Graham, a wealthy Montreal broker, Everett Dufour and H. M. Lewis of Washington, connected with the same concern, are also indicted on similar charges.

BOY WAS RESPONSIBLE

found murdered New Year's morning near the lumber office where she was employed for seventeen years, and of which company she was secretary. The girl's mother is said to be in a dying condition as the result of the shock over her daughter's sudden death.

For Thrown Switch Which Wrecked the Knickerbocker Special on the Big Four Road.

AN AVIATOR ENJOINED

(Herald Special.)
Union City, Ind., Jan. 3.—Vernon Plessinger was arrested here today and taken to Greenville, Ohio, charged with throwing the switch which wrecked the Knickerbocker Special on the Big Four railroad. The police say the boy wanted to rob the passengers and get money enough to pay his way east, where he could join the navy. The youth says he blew out the switch lights, opened the switch and threw the lock away. The engineer and fireman of the wrecked train will both probably die.

Glenn Curtiss is Enjoined From Using and Selling Aeroplane By the Wright Brothers.

STANDARD OIL CASE.

(Herald Special.)
Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 3.—Federal Judge Hazen today issued an injunction restraining Glenn Curtiss, the well known aviator, from using and selling an aeroplane, which it is claimed is an infringement on the Wright Brothers' patents. The injunction was asked for by the Wrights.

Appeal Against St. Louis Court Decision Was Filed Today.

OPEN MEETING

(Herald Special.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 3.—The appeal of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey from the decision of the United States circuit court at St. Louis, declaring it a combination in restraint of trade and directing its dissolution, was formally filed in the supreme court today. The Standard attorneys have not yet filed their brief, though they informed the court that they concurred in the motion to have the case advanced.
