INSURGENTS ARE ELATED

Got First Blood When They Took Appointive Power
From the Speaker---I Told You So's Active.

(Herald Special.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 8.—The insurgents in the house are elated over their victory over Speaker Cannon and the regulars last night, when they adopted the Norris amendment to the Jones-Humphrey joint resolution, giving the house, instead of the speaker, the power to select the representatives to serve on the joint committee to investigate the Ballinger-Pinchot middle. Murdock, the chief insurgent, said today: "I told you we would get him. Soon we can throw him whenever we please." The Cannonites say the votes the opposition needed came from Ames of Massachusetts and Finish of New York, personal friends of Pinchot, and claim that but for the personal equation they would vote with the organization and the amendment would have been lost. Dwight, the republican whip of the house, gets a large share of the blame from the speaker's friends, who say that had he been up to snuff he would have discovered something brewing and arranged to forestall the movement.

HAVE NOTHING TO SAY

Is What Pinchot Handed the Newspaper Men, But Will Likely Put Up a Stiff Fight Over Case.

(Herald Special.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 8.—"I have nothing to say," was the only statement Gifford Pinchot, government forester, made today when asked about his removal from office. Numerous telegrams of regret over his removal and congratulations on the stand he has taken were received by Pinchot today. Many employees of the forest service lined up to greet him on his arrival at his office this morning. It is suggested that Pinchot may possibly assume the role of prosecutor before the congressional investigating committee. It is expected that he will testify in his own defense in the statement made by Doliver, that President Taft is mistaken in his conclusion regarding the Glavis charges. George P. McCabe, solicitor for the department of agriculture, is in charge of the forest service pending the arrival of A. F. Potter, acting forester.

CHICAGO SHORT ON COAL

Many Factories Shut Down and the Poor Sections of the City Witness Much Distress.

(Herald Special.)
Chicago, Ill., Jan. 8.—Despite the efforts of the railroads to rush a coal supply to Chicago, the situation today is grave. Thousands of people have been thrown out of employment because many factories have been forced to shut down for a lack of fuel. Supplies for even the residence section are short and the dealers are right down to the last of their stock.

JOHN D. IN EARNEST.

Provided With Money
Enough, Will Spend His Own Funds.

(Special to Herald.)
New York, Jan. 8.—Handcapped by the small sum allowed the grand jury of which he is foreman to prosecute the investigation of the white slave traffic, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., announces that he is going into his own pockets for the funds to push the work assigned him.

Unless traffic conditions soon improve there will be genuine suffering throughout the whole city, among the rich and poor alike. Already in the poorer sections of the city the suffering is intense, as many people have no way of keeping fires in their homes. The various charitable organizations have doubled their forces and efforts, and are trying to relieve the situation.

A LORD WAS KIDNAPED

Taken From His Friends Following a Meeting and Bombarded With Questions—in a Bad Way.

(Herald Special.)
London, Jan. 8.—The Standard today says: "Lord Ronaldshay, member of parliament, was kidnaped last night from his friends, after leaving a political meeting of socialists. He was bombarded with questions for several hours, until he was on the verge of a collapse, when he was finally liberated. It is said that a number of prominent persons will be prosecuted for participating in the kidnaping. This was the second indignity of the evening to Ronaldshay, as his own meeting broke up earlier in the evening on account of the disorder and rowdiness of the audience."

Army Will Use Cotton Bagging.

(Herald Special.)
San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 8.—An order from the war department, just issued, prescribed the use of cotton bagging in the army whenever suitable. It is said that the efforts of the Texas Farmers' Union are responsible for the change.

Swindlers Must Stand Trial.

RANGEL FOUND GUILTY

Of Violating the Neutrality Law By Participating in the Battle of Las Vacas in 1908.

(Herald Special.)
San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 8.—A jury in the federal court today found Jos. E. Rangel guilty of violating the neutrality law by participating in the battle of Las Vacas in 1908, when a number of Mexicans were killed by revolutionists. Judge Maxey will pronounce sentence in a few days. The Political Refugees' League will appeal in an effort to keep Rangel from going to prison or Mexico.

Major Enrique Perez of the Mexican army, testifying for the prosecution, maintained that he saw Rangel on the battlefield and also heard calls for him. Ramon G. Ysaguirre, collector of customs at Las Vacas, gave evidence along the same lines. The sentences imposed on others convicted on similar charges have been very heavy.

Boy Killed Two Yeggmen.

(Herald Special.)
Tallahassee, Ala., Jan. 8.—Paul Saul's seventeen-year-old son, who was "subbing" for his father as a night watchman, last night discovered two yeggmen soaping a safe, and killed both of them with two shots. He was also slightly wounded by one of the robbers.
