

IMPORTANT MEETINGS

At Washington Next Week Will Be Attended By Distinguished Men From Over the Country.

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 15.—For the last few days every train arriving in Washington brought a number of distinguished men from different parts of the United States to the national capital, among them governors of states, other high state officials, representatives of railroads and other transportation companies, officials of insurance companies, financial institutions and large industrial corporations, prominent merchants, labor representatives, heads of agricultural organizations and professional men of all kinds. The hotels are rapidly filling up and by tomorrow night, it is expected, practically all the delegates and members who will attend the two important conferences to be held here next week, the annual conference of the National Civic Federation and the annual conference of governors in the interest of the conservation of the national resources, will be assembled here.

The conference under the auspices of the National Civic Federation will begin on Monday and will continue until Wednesday. The conference of the governors will begin Tuesday and close on Thursday. The sessions of the National Civic Federation conference will be held at the Belasco Theatre, those of the National Conservation Conference of Governors in the east room of the White House, tendered by President Taft for that purpose. As the objects of the two conferences coincide in many respects and, in a general way, tend in the same direction, the state governors gathering here for their annual conference on conservation are expected to take an active part in the deliberations of the civic conference, the scope of which includes practically every civic and corporate interest in an effort to bring about uniformity of state legislation. The National Association of Uniform State Law Commissioners is included in all state delegations and will take a prominent part in the conference.

The Civic Federation conference will be opened by Seth Low, president of the National Civic Federation and President Taft has consented to deliver the opening address. He will be followed by Alton B. Parker, chairman of the program committee, and Governor Augustus E. Willson of Kentucky, chairman of the committee of governors. According to the plan mapped out by the program committee the various topics of discussion will be introduced one after the other and ample opportunity will be given to discuss the propositions that may be submitted. The purpose in holding this conference is to develop the recognition of the need for uniform state legislation by having all important national organizations, promoting uniformity in any field, state before the conference clearly and succinctly just what they desire.

NEWS FORECAST OF THE INCOMING WEEK.

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 15.—Two notable conferences having to do with uniform legislation by the several states are to be held in Washington during the week. One will be a conference under the auspices of the National Civic Federation and the other a conference of governors, which will co-operate with the larger gathering. President Taft will attend both gatherings.

Developments in the Pinchot-Balinger controversy and hearings by the house committee on proposed reform in the interstate commerce laws are also expected to contribute interesting items to the week's news budget sent out from the national capital.

On Friday, with the coming into operation of the famous Dick law, the militia of the several states will become truly the "National Guard" in all that the term implies. The new law provides that the regularly enlisted, organized and uniformed active militia shall constitute the active militia, and that its organization, armament and discipline shall be the same as that prescribed for the regular army.

"JACK THE STRANGLER"

Is Suspected of Murdering Miss Anna Lloyd, a Young Bookkeeper of Cincinnati.

(Herald Special.)

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 15.—Two weeks have elapsed since the horribly mutilated body of Miss Anna Lloyd, a young bookkeeper employed by a lumber firm, was found in a vacant lot in Fairmount, and so far the police have been unable to fasten the crime on any of the suspects taken into custody. The failure to unravel the mystery has strengthened the suspicion that Miss Lloyd fell a victim to "Jack the Strangler," the mysterious murderer who has kept the city of Dayton in terror for the past decade. The fact that since the last of the series of crimes in Dayton was committed three young women of Cincinnati, including Miss Lloyd, have been strangled to death leads many to believe that the Dayton fiend transferred the scene of his operations to this city.

While comparing with the infamous Whitechapel murders of twenty years ago, the Dayton girl murders have no parallel in American crime annals. Altogether, five young women were mysteriously murdered in Dayton and the police theory is that all were struck down by the same fiendish hand. All of the victims were of about the same age and social condition, and there were many tangible circumstances to connect the crimes. The first victim was Ada Lantz, whose dead body was found in a vault in the rear of her home in 1901. In 1906 Dona Gilman was assaulted, then for the apprehension of the malefactors.

The attempt on the life of Newman is the latest incident in a series of crimes that has lately disturbed this city. As has been the case for some time past the fine winter climate and the influx of tourists have brought to the city a small army of undesirables of all types. Severe treatment is meted out to them now as soon as they come in the hands of the law. A charge of vagrancy recently resulted in a year's sentence to the rock pile.

Electrical Show in Chicago.

(Herald Special.)

Chicago, Jan. 15.—What is pronounced the most brilliant electrical display ever seen in America was viewed by the crowds that filled the Coliseum this afternoon at the formal opening of Chicago's fifth annual electrical show. The exhibition, which is to continue two weeks, embraces a wide variety of electrical machinery and appliances. The possibilities of electricity in lighting, locomotion, telegraphy and telephony and the generation and transmission of power for factory and other purposes are illustrated in an interesting manner. One of the most attractive displays is that which shows the progress made in the use of electricity in household work.

Anniston, Ala., Jan. 15.—A state-wide convention of farmers and others interested in the development of agriculture in Alabama was held in this city today under the auspices of the Anniston Chamber of Commerce. strangled to death, and her body thrown into a thicket. In 1907 occurred the murder of Anna Markowitz under similar circumstances. In January, 1909, Mary Forschner was assaulted and strangled to death. A few months later, Elizabeth Fulhart, a pretty country girl, who went to Dayton to obtain employment, was strangled to death, apparently by the same fiendish hands, and her body thrown into a cistern.

The police named the supposed murderer "Jack the Strangler," from the fact that all the girls were apparently killed by the clutch of a monster's hand upon the throat. Miss Lloyd evidently met her death in precisely the same manner as did the five Dayton victims and the murderer, if he be "Jack the Strangler," has so far escaped detection as successfully as before.

NEWMAN WILL RECOVER.

Physicians Believe San Antonio Detective Will Be About Soon.

(Herald Special.)

San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 15.—Physicians are confident that Frank Newman, the detective who a few days ago was fired on with a shotgun while sitting at the supper table, will be able to leave the hospital in two weeks. The man's rugged constitution has overcome the shock sustained. It will not be possible, however, to save his eye. The police have arrested four negroes, but it is not thought that they were in any way connected with the crime. A shotgun found in their possession seems to be the thing the police authorities are working on. A reward of $1,000 has been offered by the city

BEST HAIR TONIC.

All Over America the News of the Marvelous Dandruff Cures of Parisian Sage Has Spread.

A few years ago there was introduced into America a cure for dandruff, falling hair and all scalp diseases.

News of the quick action of this wonderful invigorator spread rapidly. And today without any sensational or untrue advertising, Parisian Sage is used extensively in almost every town in America. And what has produced this great demand? Simply this: Parisian Sage does just what we are telling the readers of the Herald it will do.

We claim, and we back our claim with Bratton's money back guarantee, that Parisian Sage is the most invigorating and rejuvenating hair tonic. It cures dandruff, stops falling hair and itching scalp; it makes the hair grow strong and vigorous, yet soft and lustrous. It is the only hair dressing that reaches the root bulb of the hair and destroys the dandruff germ.

And to the women who are reading this simple statement of fact, we want to say that Parisian Sage works wonders with women's hair. It will turn dull, harsh and faded hair into beautiful, radiant and lustrous hair in a few days, and is the most pleasant and satisfying dressing any woman ever used.

Druggist everywhere and the Bratton Drug Co. sell Parisian Sage for 50 cents a large bottle.
