BIG FIRM SUSPENDED

Roberts, Hall and Crisp of New York Stock Exchange Failed For Three Million.

(Herald Special.) New York, Jan. 20.—Roberts, Hall and Crisp, a stock exchange firm, suspended today. The firm was active in the Hocking flurry yesterday, and the suspension was not unexpected. Crisp says the firm has failed for three million dollars. Much nervousness is felt in the financial district today, but the flurry does not affect the banks and trust companies. The cotton market opened strong, but an avalanche of selling orders caused a forty point slump with trading on an enormous scale.

MAKING LEWIS TROUBLE

Anti-Administration Miners Try to Prevent National Organizers From Being Delegates.

(Herald Special.) Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 20.—The anti-administration faction of the miners' union today expect to clinch the partial victory gained yesterday by amending the constitution to prevent the international organizers from attending the convention as delegates. Charles Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, addressed the convention today in favor of closer relations between his union and the United Mine Workers.

AN OLD OFFENDER

Surrenders to Officers at Bloomington, Ill., For Bank Robbery.

(Herald Special.) Bloomington, Ill., Jan. 20.—John Sullivan has surrendered to the officers and confesses that he was a member of the gang that robbed the bank at Panama, Ill., last April, when five thousand dollars was lifted. He was taken to the Montgomery county jail and locked up. Sullivan is said to have a record of twenty criminal terms to his credit for various offenses.

BRUTALLY MURDERED

Chicago Woman Was Literally Chopped to Pieces in a South Side Flat Today.

(Herald Special.) Chicago, Jan. 20.—Anna Furlong, aged twenty-five years, was found murdered in a flat on the south side at noon today. Parts of her body were scattered over the room and the furniture was smeared with her blood. Her head was beaten to a pulp, and then severed with a dull knife. She had been scalped and only part of the top of the head and one ear remained with the body.

DAN COUGHLIN DEAD.

Convicted in Connection With Famous Cronin Murder Case.

(Herald Special.) Chicago, Jan. 20.—Dan Coughlin, convicted in 1889 for the famous Cronin murder, and who served several years in the penitentiary and was then granted a new trial and acquitted, is reported to be dead in Honduras, where he fled when an indictment was returned here alleging jury bribing. His former associates here refuse to affirm or deny the report.

LLOYD WILL NOT SERVE

Representative from Missouri, Slated For Ballinger Committee, Says Nothing is Doing.

(Herald Special.) Washington, D. C., Jan. 20.—Representative Lloyd of Missouri, whom the republican caucus last night placed on the slate as one of the democratic members of the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation committee, said today very emphatically that he will not serve under such an appointment.

Danger Is Past.

(Herald Special.) Evansville, Ind., Jan. 20.—All danger to navigation in the Ohio river as a result of the ice gorge is now passed. Navigation was partially resumed today.

COMMITTEE IS NAMED

Members of Ballinger-Pinchot Investigation Committee Announced From Washington.

(Herald Special.) Washington, D. C., Jan. 20.—The joint committee to investigate the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy was named today, and is composed of the following members:

Senators:
Nelson, republican, of Minnesota.
Flint, republican, of California.
Southerland, republican, of Utah.
Root, republican, of New York.
Paynter, democrat, of Kentucky.
Fletcher, democrat, of Florida.

Representatives:
McCall, republican, of Massachusetts.
Olmstead, republican, of Pennsylvania.
Denby, republican, of Michigan.
Madison, republican, of Kansas.
Lloyd, democrat, of Missouri.
James, democrat, of Kentucky.

Vice President Sherman named the senatorial members of the committee, while the house elected its members. Lloyd announced today that he would not serve, and the democrats will caucus on the matter tonight.

YOUNG SHIBNEY DIED

Mother Sacrificed Own Blood For Treatment of Boy to No Avail. Mother Collapsed.

(Herald Special.) New York, Jan. 20.—In spite of his mother's sacrifice in giving some of her own blood to save the boy's life, Hitt Shibney, six years old, died this morning. Following the death of her son Mrs. Shibney collapsed and her condition is serious today. The boy was shot while coasting in a park a week ago. Twenty suspects have been arrested, but so far the murderer has not been found.

CURTIS MAY OPPOSE MAYFIELD

For State Senator From the Twenty-Seventh District.

Temple, Texas, Jan. 19.—It is considered very likely that Hon. E. B. Mayfield of Meridian, the present state senator from the Twenty-seventh district, composed of Bell, Coryell, Hamilton and Bosque counties, will have an opponent in the coming primaries in the person of Hon. A. L. Curtis of Bell county, who is being urged to enter the race and who has taken the matter under consideration. The friends of Hon. H. P. Robertson of Temple are also solicitous in the latter's behalf for the same nomination.

CONFERENCE IS LIKELY

New York Central Railroad Declined Increase in Scale of Pay, But Will Meet Employees.

(Herald Special.) New York, Jan. 20.—The New York Central Railroad company has notified the company's employees that their request for an increase in wages cannot be granted at this time, because they are considered as being excessive, but the employees were asked to send a committee to confer with the company over the situation. It is understood that all of the eastern roads will take similar action.

NOT IN RACE FOR CONGRESS.

Denial By Lieutenant Governor Davidson at Cuero.

Cuero, Texas, Jan. 19.—Lieutenant Governor A. B. Davidson says there is nothing in the report that he will make the race for congress from the Ninth congressional district.

FREIGHT TRAIN RAN AWAY

On the Moffatt Railroad, Near Antelope, Colo.—Engineer, Fireman and Brakeman Killed.

(Herald Special.) Antelope, Colo., Jan. 20.—Engineer Gray, Fireman Hoosick and Brakeman Berringer were killed, and two other trainmen were injured this morning in a wreck on the Moffatt railroad near here. A freight train ran away down a steep grade.
