TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT.

Judge Smith Will Likely Render Decision In Christy Case Next Week.

(Herald Special.)

Zanesville, Ohio, Jan. 20.—Judge Smith announces that he will take the Christy case under advisement, and will likely render his decision next week. A compromise decree is expected in the contest for the custody of the daughter of the couple. Mrs. Christy says she has no definite plans for the future, but does not deny that she will apply for a divorce. No attempt to refute the unsavory testimony given by the negro maids has been made. Mrs. Christy saying her counsel thought best to ignore this evidence.

DEFINES 16-HOUR LAW.

Service Begins When Employee Reports For Duty.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 19.—In response to a request from Commissioner of Labor Joseph Meyer, Attorney General Lightfoot on Wednesday rendered a decision on the sixteen-hour law as applicable to railroads in the state. In part, the letter of the attorney general reads as follows:

"We therefore hold that the sixteen-hour law begins at the time the employee reports for duty under the rules or the requirements of the company, and is not measured from the time the train actually begins its journey."

The railroads require their engineers and firemen to be at their engines thirty minutes before time for departure, and it was to decide whether

NOTHING DEFINITE

On I. & G. N. Receivership—Judge Freeman Home From the East.

Houston, Texas, Jan. 19.—Judge T. J. Freeman, receiver, vice president and general manager of the International & Great Northern railroad, arrived in Houston at an early hour Wednesday morning after an absence of about three weeks, the greater part of which was spent in New York in conference with the owners of the road regarding the approaching termination of the receivership of the road.

A Goodly Response

The people came to this "Sale of White"—crowds of them—And they came to buy.

The public recognize our annual sale of white as an unusually responsible event. They wait for it. Scores of our friends asked about it in advance—for they remembered it from last year—from the year before.

We start the week with fresh lots of "white." Splendid offerings, too—priced to you as if cotton was still nine cents. Let this reason with you—-for with cotton at fifteen cents—-all of these underwear and white goods offerings will climb in price. Your time is now—-and all this week.

ALAMO LITIGATION.

Supreme Court Refused Writ of Error to Adina de Zavala.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 19.—The supreme court today refused an application for a writ of error in the case of Adina de Zavala against the Daughters of the Republic, upholding the district court at Houston and the appellate court at Galveston, which gave possession of the Alamo to the faction of the Daughters of the Republic headed by Mrs. Rebecca J. Fischer. The only recourse left for Miss de Zavala is to file a motion for rehearing, and it is customary in such a case for a motion of this character to be overruled. Should a motion for rehearing be filed, the superintendent of public buildings and grounds, who is now holding the Alamo in trust pending the settlement of the litigation over its possession, must wait until then to turn it over. Otherwise it will pass into the hands of the Daughters of the Republic of which Mrs. Rebecca J. Fischer is the head.

INSPECTOR TAYLOR VISITS MINES

Complaints Filed Against Two Mine Owners For Violating Law.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 18.—State Mining Inspector Taylor is here today conferring with Labor Commissioner Meyers. Mr. Taylor is now on his second tour of inspection of mines, and says that he has already filed complaints against two mine owners for alleged violation of the mining laws relating to proper ventilation. Other suits are to follow. As a general proposition he declared most of the mine operators are complying with the laws.

Shortly before noon he met the Edwin Gould party, which arrived from Galveston, and during the day he showed them over the property of the company here. Upon their departure he settled down to work getting in closer touch with affairs on the road.

Regarding the reorganization of the road, Judge Freeman said that it had not yet been perfected and that nothing definite concerning when the receivership would be terminated could be stated. He said that owners of the road were working with that end in view and that there was no reason why it should not be hastened as much as possible.

UNDERWEAR IS HIGHER.

Twenty-Five Per Cent Advance Added By Manufacturers.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 19.—With the price of cotton hosiery and underwear already 50 per cent higher than it was a year ago, the manufacturers of the country have decided to add another 25 per cent in order that, as they say, they may "get some profit out of the business." Not only does the 50 per cent increase apply to these two textile products, but it will apply to cotton goods of all sorts.

A "gentlemen's agreement" to make these advances effective was put through last night in New York at a conference between representatives of the National Association of Hosiery and Underwear Manufacturers and the Wholesale Dry Goods Association.

...BOOTH BROS...

SEVERELY CENSURED.

New Orleans Cotton Exchange President Sounds Bugle Call.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 19.—Apropos of the so-called bear raid in the New York cotton market, President W. B. Thompson of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange issued a signed statement tonight, in which he says:

"If there was ever a time when the cotton producer and the holder of spot cotton should make a stand, that time is the present. We have recently passed through one of the most trying and unwarranted declines in the history of the cotton trade. Spot cotton is intrinsically worth little if any less than it was two weeks ago, yet in the meantime, through the manipulation of a few bear operators in the New York market, the entire cotton trade has been for the time demoralized."

"Let it be understood that the slump in the contract market has not affected the intrinsic value of cotton. The law of supply and demand determines this value. The New York raid is not a legitimate incident of the cotton trade, either in spots or futures. It represents the efforts of a few men with much money to gain their purpose by a guerrilla attack. It is as if a man or set of men, for the sake of gratifying a personal grudge and of reaping a personal profit, should endeavor to stampede the occupants of a crowded building by the cry of 'Fire!' The issue is a large one. It comprehends more than the interests of the bull and bear operators in cotton. It raises the question as to whether a few manipulators shall demoralize a great trade system and go unpunished therefor. It affects the best interests of not only the spot market, but the future market as well. The most powerful agent of retribution is within the control of the farmer and spot holder if they will use it."

SIX THOUSAND HOMESEEKERS.

All Trains Are Run In Two Sections. Real Estate Men Happy.

San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 19.—The regular semi-monthly homeseeker trains began to arrive in San Antonio tonight. The greatest number will come tomorrow. Every train will be run in two sections. The advance advances are to the effect that more than six thousand will arrive.

The railroads report that no such a movement to Texas has ever been experienced. The railroads, not anticipating such an enormous business, are taxed to their fullest capacity to handle the great number.

The real estate men are selling thousands of acres. The wholesale land business has fallen off greatly. The highest demand is for tracts from 160 to 300 acres.

Woes of an Artist.

Workman Smeargent, royal academician, was painting the portrait of Lady Anstruther Anstruthers, and she was very plain—well, as a matter of fact, she was only ugly. And, though she was paying him 300 guineas merely for painting the portrait, and was going to pay him 500 more for the portrait itself when it was completed, Workman Smeargent was not satisfied. He felt he might be going blind. Looking at her face so much hurt his eyes. "Now, what I want, Mr. Smeargent," said the unfair lady, "is for you to do me plain, simple justice." "My dear lady," replied Smeargent, "what you require is not justice, but mercy. When I tell you to look pleasant you don't look natural, and when I tell you to look natural you don't look pleasant."

Contradictory Evidence.

"Dr. Fan," said the office patient, "my name is Griddle. I'm troubled lately with headache, and I'd like to get relief. It can't be from my eyes, for they're all right."

"Let me see, what is your vocation?"

"I'm a baseball umpire."

"Say," rejoined Dr. Fan, "are you the man that umpired the game yesterday?"

"Yea."

"I was there, and I'll tell you right here, Mr. Ump—or Mr. Griddle, rather—that there's something the matter with your eyes!"
