BIG VESSEL IS SINKING

Steamer Kentucky Sent Wireless That She Had Sprung a Leak and Was Sinking.

(Herald Special.)
 Charleston, S. C., Feb. 4.—The local wireless station here today picked up a wireless message from the steamer Kentucky of the Pacific Transportation company, which is on its maiden trip from New York to the North Pacific coast, saying it had sprung a leak from an unknown cause and was sinking at the time the report was sent. The vessel reported that it was in latitude 22.18, longitude 76.42. The Alamo of the Mallory line reported also that she had heard the message and was on the way to the assistance of the Kentucky.

PAULHAM'S BIPLANE A WRECK.

He Met With Mishap at Denver, But Escaped With a Jolt.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 3.—Louis Paulham had a narrow escape from death today when the Farman biplane collided with the fence guarding the race track at Overland Park, smashing through it and came down in a heap of wreckage. Paulham was thrown headlong, but beyond a severe shaking up, was unharmed.

Before the accident Paulham had successfully guided his machine up into the rare mountain air and had circled the Overland race track a

LOVE IN BUSINESS.

Former State Official Not a Candidate For Governor.

Dallas, Texas, Feb. 3.—"I most certainly will not be a candidate for governor or any other office this year," said ex-State Banking Commissioner Thomas B. Love today.

"I do not contemplate at this time ever being a candidate for office again, but it would be foolish for a man to commit himself to a statement that he would never be a candidate for office again. It is impossible to say what

OUR FIRST SPRING SHOWING

New Waists, New Skirts and New Silks

Each day adds something new, and our various stocks are rapidly filling up with bright, new, crisp spring styles which is really a treat to look upon.

The New Skirts

Are here in the very latest colors, weaves and models—Diagonal, surges, voiles and Panama in the softest tones of greens, blues, tans, grays and numerous "high colors"—also black and cream—A great variety of styles and designs are being shown. One especially pretty number is made with the "over-skirt" effect and will undoubtedly be very popular the coming season.

New Waists.

The styles are really creations of beauty and must be seen to be appreciated. They are made of dainty soft "lingerie," French lawns, batiste, mulls and various other soft sheer material, trimmed with the prettiest and most durable of edges and insertions. There is one model that deserves special mention. It is a tailored design with handsomely embroidered collars, cuffs and front plait. We invite you to visit our waist shop this week.

"The New Silks" are woven with an idea to service as well as appearance this season, and for this reason silk costumes are bound to be more popular than ever. Here are a few of the leading weaves:

- 24 inch "Tussorah Pongee" in the natural colors, yard..... 65c
- 27 inch Satin De Chine in the new shades of rose, apricot, plum, amethyst, blues, pink and white, yard..... 50c
- 'Shantung Pongee,' the most popular of all new shades of blue, green, rose, tans, brown, etc., yard..... $1.00

GROWS MONOTONOUS.

Two More Ballotings Leave Senatorial Deadlock Unchanged.

Jackson, Miss., Feb. 3.—There had been persistent rumors today that there would be something in the way of variations at the senatorial caucus tonight, but instead the crowds of interested supporters of the candidates and visitors to representatives' hall experienced the same monotonous roll calls, with the standing of the several candidates practically unchanged.

On the closing ballot last night Vardaman was within eighteen votes of the nomination; on the first tonight he was twenty-one from the goal.

For County Judge.

Judge J. F. Watts, present city commissioner, and at one time county judge of Anderson county, has authorized the Herald to announce him as a candidate for county judge. Judge Watts needs no words of commendation from the Herald, as he is known of all men, and in turn he knows about all the men and voters of the county. Judge Watts served this county as its judge for a long time, and he made a popular judge and a just judge. His administration was approved by most men, and he did valuable work for the county. If he is again honored with the office he will carry into it a vast amount of ripe experience, and will no doubt give as good satisfaction as he did in years past in the same capacity.

dozen times. He then came to the ground and it was announced that the aviator would attempt to fly over the business district of Denver, three or four miles away, and return.

But the runway for his machine, over 400 yards in length and cramped by the race track fence and by an irrigation ditch running diagonally across the grounds, proved too short. The machine left the ground too close to the fence, struck the fence, rebounding on the bank of the ditch, breaking one of the starting wheels. Paulham shut off his motor and brought the machine to a stop.

The machine was repaired and again Paulham attempted a flight. The machine was not three feet from the ground when the end of the runway was reached and the machine crashed through the fence into the ditch, rebounded and came down a mass of wreckage. Paulham was fairly catapulted from his seat, but he lit in the soft snow and escaped serious injury.

A dozen or more people were knocked down by the machine when it tore through the fence, but no one was seriously hurt.

First National Bank.

The First National Bank makes its regular statement in this issue of the Herald, and as usual it is a good one. Palestine is shown to be in good financial condition, if the banks are any criterion. Read the statement on the front page.

the future may develop, but office seeking is furthest from my thoughts. I am in business here, and expect to continue in it."

Mr. Love stated that there was no foundation for the assumption that the farewell banquet given him at Austin constituted a "Love boom" for governor. He said that nothing occurred, as a matter of fact, which could be construed as a boom for his entering the race for governor.

Mr. Love repeated that he was in business in Dallas now, was a private citizen, positively had no idea of running for governor, and hadn't even been "boomed" at the farewell banquet.

RIVER BEDS NOT FOR SALE.

Attorney General Disposes of Mineral Claim Recently Filed.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 3.—The river beds of Texas are not for sale, and cannot be sold, says the attorney general, hence the gold claim recently filed for a portion of the Colorado bed near Austin cannot be acquired.

The attorney general, in his opinion, states that the supreme court passed upon the question in a case some years ago where the parties sought to purchase lands submerged by high tide in Matagorda Bay, and that it had become a settled policy of the state to reserve all submerged lands, and that the sale of such lands is prohibited by law.
