

A FASHIONABLE WEDDING

James Watson Webb and Miss Electra Havemeyer of New York Were Married Today.

(Herald Special.)

New York, Feb. 8.—St. Bartholomew's church was crowded with the wealth and fashion of New York this afternoon at the wedding of Miss Electra Havemeyer, daughter of Mrs. Henry O. Havemeyer, and James Watson Webb, eldest son of Dr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb. The ceremony was performed by the rector of the church, the Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks, who was assisted by Dr. Herber Newton and Dr. Peabody of Croton.

Miss Louise Jackson, a cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor, and the four bridesmaids were the Misses Anita Peabody, Margaret Dix, Ethel Cowdin and Katharin Atterbury. The groom was attended by his brother, W. Seward Webb, Jr., who acted as best man and met the bride at the chancel steps. The ushers were Messrs. Vanderbilt Webb, Robert Bacon, Jr., Joseph Burden, John Higginson, Jr., George Whitney, Howard Tracey, Whitney Kernochan, Ernest Tracey and Gordon Abbott.

The bride wore a French gown of white satin with long train and covered with point lace. Her veil was of old point lace and she carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. After the ceremony the bridal party and intimate friends were taken in carriages to the Havemeyer residence in East Sixty-sixth street, where an elaborate wedding breakfast was served.

The bride is well known in society. She made her debut three years ago, but has not been out since the death of her father two years ago. When she attained her twenty-first year last fall she came into possession of a large share of the millions left by her father, who was the head of the great sugar refineries of Havemeyer and Elder.

J. Watson Webb, the bridegroom, is a namesake of his grandfather, the late General J. Watson Webb. He is also a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. William H. Vanderbilt, his mother having been Miss Lila Vanderbilt. Mr. Webb was graduated from Yale in 1907 and soon afterward went to Milwaukee to gain a practical knowledge of railroading in the offices and shops of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad.

CROWDS ARE IMMENSE

Estimated That Fifty Thousand Visitors Are Attending the New Orleans Mardi Gras.

(Herald Special.)

New Orleans, La., Feb. 8.—It is estimated that more than fifty thousand visitors from various parts of the United States, Canada and Mexico vied with the residents of New Orleans today in getting their full of mirth and pleasure on the final and most important day of the Mardi Gras carnival. The parade of Rex, the spectacular feature of the day, proceeded through gaily decorated streets that were literally congested with humanity. The crowd was estimated by railroad officials and others to be one of the largest seen here in recent years. Tonight the festivities con-

PREPARE FOR NEW YEAR

Chinese New Year Begins Tonight. Residents of New York Will Enjoy Holidays.

(Herald Special.)

New York, Feb. 8.—The Chinese new year begins tonight and for two weeks at least the picturesque and densely populated district bounded by Pell, Mott and Doyer streets will be the scene of numerous social festivities among the almond-eyed denizens. For the time being business will be practically suspended and even the rival and warlike tongs will observe a temporary truce. In every oriental household the festal board will remain spread, and all callers will be made welcome. The Chinamen will visit each other and whenever they meet they will salute with the remark, "Gong He Fat Toy," meaning "a happy new year."

Chinatown has made elaborate preparations for ushering in the holiday at midnight. The business places are ablaze with decorations of the favorite color of the celestials—the reddest sort of red. Bales of red prayer slips have been prepared to appease the gods. Near the midnight hour incense is burned in the joss house and in the dwellings to drive away any stray evil spirit that may be lurking about the premises. After the evil ones have taken flight more incense is burned as a welcome to the new year. Then comes the feasting, which continues practically for twenty-four hours without a break. Rice wine, preserved ginger, nuts and other luxuries imported from the Flowery Kingdom are consumed in large quantities the chief feature of the program. Purses aggregating $1,500 will be distributed among the winning owners.

Our Silent Oyster Salesman

This is the cleanly white and blue porcelain Sealshipt case from which we sell SEALSHIPT OYSTERS at our store. No ice or water ever touches the oysters.

It is the final step in the Sealshipt System which makes it possible for us to furnish our customers with oysters which taste exactly the same here as when eaten on the shore. They are firm, tempting, delicious morsels of sea food.

Sealshipt Oysters

Have the tang of the sea

You will be surprised when you see Sealshipt Oysters. More surprised—and delighted—when you taste them.

In buying Sealshipt Oysters, remember that there is no "liquor"—nothing but solid meat. The "liquor" is what spoils common oysters. It is melted railroad ice.

If you ordinarily buy oysters by the quart, get only a pint of Sealshipt.

Come into our store and see our silent salesman. While here ask for a copy of our book, "Seaside Oyster Dishes." It gives many shore recipes.

Paris Not in Mood For Mirth.

(Herald Special.)

Paris, Feb. 8.—For the first time within a generation there was no Mardi Gras carnival in the French metropolis today. In all the churches Shrove Tuesday was observed with special services of thanksgiving, but all of the carnival parades and festivities customary in the past were by popular consent abandoned because of the recent flood disasters.

In Session in Detroit.

(Herald Special.)

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 8.—Delegates from many parts of the United States and Canada are attending the international convention of master house painters and decorators, which began in this city today. A number of questions of importance to the craft are slated for discussion during the four days that the convention will remain in session.

STOMACH MISERY FOR OVER SIX YEARS.

Think of it! After six years of sour stomach, of gas eructations, of nervousness, during which time every meal lay on his stomach like a lump of lead, a man was restored to perfect health by Mi-o-na stomach tablets.

Read what Mr. Hoffman, landlord of the Webster Hotel, writes:

"I suffered misery and intense pains from stomach troubles for over six years, and all the doctoring that I did of medicine I used were of no avail until about two years ago, when I used a treatment of Mi-o-na. The first few days' treatment helped me greatly and upon using it a while I was made entirely free from any stomach trouble or complaints whatever. Since the cure by Mi-o-na I have regained my weight, I eat and sleep well, am never nervous, and my entire general health is much better."—Max M. Hoffman, Webster, N. Y., Aug. 2, 1909.

Mi-o-na relieves stomach distress in five minutes. It acts like magic. It is guaranteed to cure sour stomach, gas eructations, heartburn, dizziness, biliousness and nervousness, or money back. For sale by druggists everywhere, and by Bratton Drug Co. for 50 cents a large box.
