

NEWS OF NEXT WEEK

Wheels of the Congressional Mill May Turn Faster From Now On. Other Notes.

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., March 5.—It is believed in Washington that the wheels of the congressional mill will turn somewhat more rapidly from now on, though whether any real progress will be made in regard to the important measures comprising the Taft program during the week it is difficult to foretell with any degree of certainty. The senatorial trust investigation and the Ballinger-Glavis inquiry will continue to furnish material for the capital correspondents.

President Taft has accepted an invitation to speak at a celebration to be held in the Metropolitan A. M. E. church Tuesday night in the interest of Wilberforce University, the oldest institution devoted to the higher education of the negro in the United States. Other speakers at the meeting will include Justice Harlan of the United States supreme court and Senator Bristow of Kansas.

Saturday is the day fixed for the formal acceptance of the statue of John C. Calhoun, which has been erected as one of South Carolina's contributions to Statuary Hall of the national capitol.

Several events of interest to the politicians are scheduled for the week. At Albany the senate bribery investigation will enter upon its fifth week, with public interest increased by the possibility of an early verdict. In the Fourth congressional district of Virginia a special election will be held to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Representative Francis R. Lassiter. Following a sensational campaign, Seattle will hold an election Tuesday for mayor and other municipal officials. In Detroit, Senator Burrows and Congressman Townsend, who is opposing Burrows for the senatorship, together with several rival aspirants for the nomination for governor of Michigan, will be heard at a banquet of the Wayne County Republican Club.

An unusually large number of important court proceedings are scheduled for the week. J. C. Maybray and his alleged associates, who are charged with having cleaned up over a million dollars through swindling by means of fake races and wrestling matches, are to be placed on trial in the United States district court at Council Bluffs. The trial of F. Augustus Heinze in New York on charges of misapplying funds of the Mercantile National Bank and the hearing of the Hartje divorce case in Pittsburg are expected to furnish some "live" reading.

After numerous delays Nicholas Tschalkovsky and Catherine Breshkovskaya, who are charged with being leaders in the Russian revolutionary movement, are to be placed on trial in St. Petersburg.

The Interstate Commerce Commission will take testimony in Minneapolis Tuesday in several cases that are of prime importance as affecting shipping interests. Alleged freight overcharges are the points involved in the cases and the defendants include a number of the leading railroads in the west and northwest.

A conference of miners to consider steps to settle the differences between miners and operators in the coal fields of Ohio, Indiana and Western Pennsylvania will assemble Tuesday in Cincinnati. The main point in dispute is a demand by the miners for an increase in wages of ten cents a ton. New wage schedules are to go into effect the first of April.

Knights of the Maccabees will meet every second and fourth Saturday nights in each month. 8-27-17

TO TRY INDIANA BANKERS

Three Alleged Bank Wreckers to Be Brought Before Federal Court in Indianapolis.

(Herald Special.)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 5.—The federal court to convene here Monday will take up for trial the case against Paul C. Gall, who is charged with aiding and abetting Max P. Emmerich to abstract money from the Capital National Bank of this city. Emmerich, who was the bookkeeper of the bank, has already been convicted and sentenced to five years in prison.

As soon as the case of Gall is finished the trial will begin of W. H. Marker and Noah Marker, former cashier and assistant cashier, respectively, of the First National Bank of Tipton. The Markers are charged with having embezzled $100,000 of the funds of the bank, and with numerous other crimes against the national banking laws. As a result of the alleged embezzlement the Tipton bank closed last July, but was subsequently reopened. The bank has now brought suit against the Marker brothers for the $100,000 which they are alleged to have taken and concealed for the purpose of defrauding their creditors.

Considerable comment has been caused by the unusually large number of Indiana bankers and bank employees who have recently run afoul of the law. At the last term of the federal court held in this city no fewer than seven alleged violators of the national banking laws were convicted and sentenced to serve terms in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth. Among the convicted men were cashiers or Germans to Honor Emmet.

(Herald Special.)
New York, March 5.—The German ambassador has accepted an invitation to attend the Robert Emmet celebration of the Clan-na-Gael Society in Carnegie Hall tomorrow night. One of the leading features of the celebration will be the presence of the United German Singing Societies, six hundred strong. It will be the first time that the German-Americans of New York have joined with the Irish-Americans in paying tribute to Emmet's memory.

Well, I am back and ready for business. I find there are other tuners in the field, but that is all right; there is work enough for all, and if I can't get all the work I can do without running down other tuners, I just won't get the work, that is all. I will get to my old customers as soon as possible. If you are in a hurry just drop me a card, or phone 1084. Would be glad to take any new customers that want me to do their work. BALD-HEADED ROW.

Early Piety Not Always the Cause of Baldness.

In Paris there lived a great physician of world-wide renown who proved to the world that falling hair is caused by microbes.

Dr. Sagerbund proved that baldness is directly due to these pernicious and persistent microbes. He proved to every physician on earth that these invisible yet voracious little devils dug and burrowed into the hair roots and finally devoured the hair bulb. This of course destroyed the vitality of the hair which fell out and caused thinning of the hair and finally baldness.

Inasmuch as it is an accepted fact that baldness, falling hair and dandruff are caused by a germ, doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to prevent such calamities is to kill the germs?

And doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to kill these germs is to use Parisian Sage, which Bratton Drug Co. have so much faith in that they guarantee it to cure dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back?

Parisian Sage is a delightful hair tonic and is pleasant to use. It is not sticky or greasy, and contains only those ingredients that will surely benefit.

It is now sold by druggists all over America, and by Bratton Drug Co. for 50 cents a large bottle. It is used extensively by women who desire luxuriant hair with a radiant luster. The girl with the Auburn Hair is on every package.
