Collars and Cuffs That You'll Like to Wear

You'll like to wear the collars and cuffs we launder. They are given a pure white color, are starched to just the stiffness that makes them hold their shape, yet be pliable, are ironed with a perfect domestic finish, and shaped just exactly as they were designed to be by the makers.

Collars we have laundered all have smooth, velvet-like edges.

CITATION.

State of Texas, County of Anderson. In District Court, to Spring Term, A. D. 1910.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Anderson County—Greeting:

Affidavit having been made as required by law, you are hereby commanded to summon the heirs of D. J. Gatewood, deceased; the heirs of Abner Davis, deceased, and the heirs of Oliver Davis, deceased, by making publication of this citation once in each week for eight successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Anderson county, to be holden at the court house thereof, in Palestine, on the first Monday in May, A. D. 1910, the same being the 2nd day of May, A. D. 1910, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 8254, then and there to answer the petition of L. O. Herrington, as plaintiff, filed in said court on the 3rd day of March, A. D. 1910, against the heirs of D. J. Gatewood, deceased; the heirs of Abner Davis, deceased, and the heirs of Oliver Davis, deceased, as defendants, and alleging in substance as follows, to-wit:

An action of trespass to try the title to 145 and 13-100 acres of the D. J. Gatewood survey in Anderson county, Texas, about two miles west of the Neches river. Plaintiff specially pleading that he has acquired a good and superior title to said tract of land by virtue of the statutes of limitations of five and ten years. And alleging that the defendants, the heirs of D. J. Gatewood, deceased, claim the land as the heirs of the original patentee, but plaintiff avers that prior to January 15th, 1851, the original patentee or his heirs conveyed said land, or the certificate by virtue of which the same was located, unto J. J. Pinson, under whom plaintiff claims, and plaintiff avers that he is also owner of the title of the patentee or of the defendants, the heirs of the patentee, by limitations as herein specially plead, or he has so acquired a superior title. That the defendants, the heirs of Abner Davis, deceased, and the heirs of Oliver Davis, deceased, claim said land under a deed from J. J. Pinson, of date January 16th, 1851, on which date the said J. J. Pinson was the owner thereof, said deed conveying said land unto Oliver Davis, also called Abner Davis, and the defendants, the heirs of Oliver Davis, deceased, and the defendants, the heirs of Abner Davis, deceased, claim same as the heirs of the grantee in said land. That if the said Oliver Davis, also called Abner Davis, did acquire the title to said tract of land, under the aforesaid deed to J. J. Pinson, still he became divested of all title to said land by the conveyance thereof by him, on or about the 1st day of July, 1851, or a short time thereafter, said conveyance of said land, duly executed by the said Oliver Davis, unto Samuel Miller, or by bond for title duly executed by the said Oliver Davis unto the said Samuel Miller, with which bond the said Samuel Miller fully complied and under which he acquired a complete and perfect title to said land as against the said

An action of trespass to try the title to 607 acres of land in Anderson county, Texas, patented to Luke Johnson on April 24th, 1848, by Patent Number Two, Volume 5, Abstract No. 431, the plaintiff alleging that he was in the lawful possession of said tract of land on Nov. 1st, 1909, as the owner in fee simple, having acquired title to same under the statute of limitations of five years, and that afterwards on the said 1st day of November, 1909, the defendants, the heirs of Luke Johnson, deceased, unlawfully entered upon said tract of land and dispossessed the plaintiff therefrom, and withheld from him the possession thereof, and hence he sues.

That the defendants claim the land as the heirs of the original patentee, but plaintiff avers that he has acquired the title of the patentee or of the defendants as his heirs, by limitations, or a superior title.

Plaintiff prays for judgment for the title and possession of said land, and for general relief.

Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness: Jno. R. Moore, Clerk of the District Court of Anderson county. Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Palestine, this 8th day of November, A. D. 1909.
