

Entertained Informally

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Morris entertained with an informal dance at the Concordia Club last Thursday night in honor of their daughter, Miss Sadie Morris, which proved to be thoroughly enjoyable to her young friends. The club rooms, which have recently been re-furnished, were prettily decorated, green being the predominating color. The stage in the ball room was banked with ferns, while in the dining room green was used in the table decorations, and the souvenirs were also of that color. Miss Morris received many beautiful flowers. Mrs. M. H. Lemon and Mrs. P. Tuteur served punch. Others present were: Messrs. and Mesdames, C. S. Wolf, Arthur B. Cohn, Abe Lewis, Ben Levy; Misses Emma Goldberg, Roberta Wolf, Henrietta Lipper, Myrtle Tuteur, Rosa Kaiser, Adele Levy, Freda Borchard, Pearl Colman, Helen Cramer; Messrs. Harry Wolf, A. Souza, Edward Lipper, Abe Wagner, Abe Nussbaum, Leon Emmich, Charles Kapner, Ben Wolf, Maurice Goldman, Phil Pesses, Louis, Blumenthal, Raphael Lechenger.

A Hallettsville Wedding

Social notes in the San Antonio Express of Sunday has the following in special correspondence from Hallettsville: "Social circles were enlivened during the past week by two weddings. On Sunday evening Miss Johanna Schwartz, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Schwartz, was married to Perry Alder of Galveston. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride, Judge W. R. McCutchan officiating. The parlor was neatly and appropriately decorated for the occasion. Preceding the wedding march, which was played by Mrs. Max Landa, Miss Yetta Schwartz sang "My Dear," accompanied by Mrs. Landa on the piano. The ceremony over, the guests were invited to the dining hall, where a sumptuous supper awaited them. They were the recipients of many beautiful presents. They will reside in Galveston, for which place they left Monday morning."

Herzl Zion Society Meets

The regular meeting of the Herzl Zion Society was called to order by President Max Flaxman Sunday, November 8, 1908, at 7:30 p. m.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The report of the ball committee was read, and a motion was offered by Dr. Willner that a vote of thanks be given Mr. A. S. Greenstein, chairman, and his committee, and also that a letter of thanks be sent to Mesdames Scher, Blumenthal and Tiras, whose good and earnest work helped to make a grand success of our first Simchos Torah ball.

Mr. Abe Gordon, chairman of the propaganda committee, reported that a social was given by the propoganda committee, and that our membership had increased from 61 to 100 in almost six months, and he hoped to see as many of our members as possible to go to Galveston Sunday, November 22nd, when a new society will be organized.

A letter was read from Dr. Harry Freidewold, president of the American Federation of Zionists, requesting us to advise him at our earliest convenience whether territorial councils were better for local societies to get all information and views of the movement from, or whether the American Federation was the best source.

Much discussion ensued, and every one was very much interested. The following resolutions were offered:

Resolved, That it is the opinion of the Herzl Zion Society of Houston, Texas, that local societies be united in territorial councils, and that representatives of these councils form the Federation of American Zionists, as a supreme council for the whole country, and that local societies can address all inquiries to the Federation or to the Territorial Council.

A letter was read from Mr. I. D. Gertel, secretary of the Texas Zionist Association, informing us that the next State convention will be held in Waco January 3 and 4, 1909, and that one delegate for every 25 good standing members are entitled to delegation.

The following members were elected delegates: Rev. H. B. Leibeman, Abe Gordon, Max Flaxman, Morris Gordon.

Mr. A. S. Greenstein and Mr. Phil Blumenthal were elected alternates.

A motion was offered by Mr. Abe Gordon that all delegates pay their own expenses; unani-mously carried.

The committee on National Fund boxes reported that they will take up all monies the latter part of December.

A motion by Dr. Willner that the profits of the Simchos Torah ball be given to the National Fund carried.

The resignation of Mr. A. S. Weiner for chairman of the Party Fund was read and accepted, and the president will appoint another chairman at the next meeting.

This meeting was one of the most enthusiastic business meetings held this year, and we hope the good work will keep up.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.
