

It's Rouse's Cold Cream
That Cures Chaps

25c per box

SAM ROUSE

THE MEDICINE MAN

Main and Preston Avenue

Alhambra Theatre

Cor. Rusk and Fannin

PROGRAMME

Week Commencing Sunday Night Nov. 22
Herb & Lewis Orchestra

Wall & Wade Comedy Sketch
Auntie Hallucination

Marilan and Rosalie
The Parisian Singing and Dancing
Soubrettes

Illustrated Song
"Wish Me Good Luck on My Journey"

Jack Odell & Grace Gilmore
Comedy Playlet, Sweet Charity.

Alhambroscope

Best Animated Pictures. New and novel.

ADMISSION—Popular Prices,
10c, 20c, 30c.

Two Performances Every Night,
8:15 and 9:20.

CHEEK & NEAL'

Maxwell House Blend

COFFEE

1 AND 3 POUND SEALED
CANS AT ALL GROCERS

Princess Theater, & Penny Arcade

Vaudeville & Moving Pictures
410 MAIN ST.

Wanted Dentistry that has proven a failure
in the hands of other dentists

Dr. J. O. HOWARD

PAINLESS DENTISTRY

317 1-2 Main Street Old Phone 5129

United Woolen Mills

Suits Made to Measure, $15.

Finest and Largest Selection of Wool
ens in the State.

GUARANTEED UNION MADE.

310 Fannin Street—Theater Building.

Read

The Jewish Herald

Advertisements

Second Literary Ball.

The second annual carnival ball of the Jewish Literary Society took place in the rooms of the society in the Mason building a week ago Thursday evening. The program proved an unusually attractive one and due credit must be given to the amusement committee and its chairman, Mr. Isadore Tiras.

The grand march as led by Mr. Ben Hurwitz and Miss Gertrude Levy and the very unique method of introducing the visitors in this number formed one of the chief features of the entertainment.

The rooms were prettily decorated and the No-Tsu-Oh scheme of adorning the walls and ceiling was carried out by Miss Gertrude Levy of the house committee.

There was also a prize waltz and three prizes were given, namely, first, one dozen cabinet photos, donated by the Jewish Herald; second and third, boxes of fine candy, donated by Messrs. A. Lefis and Max Westheimer. The first prize was won by Miss Jennie Karkowsky, second by Miss Ervie Levine of Galveston, third, Miss Minnie Aron of Beaumont.

The following visitors were present and registered in the society's register: Misses Ervie Levine, Yetta Rauch, Lizzie Dorfman, Ella Borschow, Clara Zinn and Brener Braslau of Galveston, Ray Levine of Wharton, Sarah Goot of San Antonio and Minnie Aron of Beaumont. Young gentlemen: S. Summer Gordon of Boston, Mass., Sam F. Zinn of Galveston and N. J. Levine of Waco. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Depperman of El Paso and Miss Knowlan of Victoria.

On Sunday, November 22nd, at 3 o'clock sharp, there will be a literary meeting of the Jewish Literary Society, and Rabbi H. Cohen of Galveston will be the chief speaker. Those who have heard him before will surely not miss this opportunity to hear this popular rabbi talk. Other numbers on the program are Miss Bettie Mendelson, paper; Miss Dora Stark, violin solo. The program promises to be an interesting one, and a large attendance is expected. A. H. C.

Sour Lake Chemical Company

Demonstration Office for Skin and Scalp Affection
710 Main Street

On Wednesday night a crowd of about one hundred assembled at the hall of the Literary Society to be entertained by a debate, "Resolved, That Moses was a wiser man than Solomon," the first of the season.

The meeting was presided over by Chairman Henry J. Dannenbaum, who selected three judges from the assembly.

The debate was certainly very interesting, the strong points being brought out very forcibly by Mr. Joe Finger and Miss Celia Cohen in favor of Moses, and by Mr. Archie Cohen in favor of Solomon. The decision of the judges was a peculiar one, inasmuch as two favored Moses and one favored Solomon, the points showed 27 to 24 in Solomon's favor. Hence: Resolved, Solomon was the wisest.

News reaches us from abroad of the wonderful success, both musically and socially of Miss Helena Lewyn. Miss Lewyn is in Berlin, where she is studying music under the best masters, and while only a young girl, her success is remarkable. She has composed and published a gavotte, also a song, the words of which are taken from one of the world-famous poems of Shelley, which was sung at a concert in Germany. She will give a grand concert at Berlin March 18, 1909, where she will make her debut.

Tell it to our advertisers "that you saw it in The Herald."

A large mass meeting will be held Sunday, November 22nd, 1908, at Galveston. The purpose of this meeting is to organize a Zionist society. A large crowd is expected to go from Houston.

A very interesting program has been arranged.

Mr. L. A. Freed, from San Antonio, will address the audience in English, and Mr. Abe Gordon will speak in Yiddish; Rev. H. B. Leiberman will be there with his choir. A very interesting program is spoken for all who attend.

Ladies Aid Entertainment

The second of the series of entertainments under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of Temple Beth Israel will be held Thursday, November 26th, at 8:15 p. m., in the Sunday School hall of the Temple, when the members of the congregation and their friends will be entertained with a novel and interesting program, as follows:

1. Piano sola, Miss Josie Hirsch.
2. Recitation, Miss Manette Bonart.
3. Song, Master Russell Pridgeon.
4. Spelling bee, by Sunday School pupils.
5. Trio, violin, flute and piano, Miss Theresa Grumbach, Mr. Abe Roos.
6. Song, Miss Mamie Malevinsky.

The lucky number that will entitle the holder thereof to the Spread that has been raffled by Mrs. Regina Kottwitz will be announced during the evening, and all having chances are requested to be present.

A Chinese Laundry will be quite a feature of the evening and will afford much meriment.

The marriage of Miss Archie Sperling to Mr. Dan Fartil of New Orleans took place Tuesday Nov. 9. Miss Sperling is a cousin of the Misses Sadie and Jennie Freyer of McKinney Ave.

Miss Sophie Lieberman of Galveston, has returned to her home after a pleasant visit with her friend, Mrs. Henry Cook, at the Bristol.

The funeral of Mrs. Rose Joachim took place Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence, 1010 Bagby street, Rabbi Barnstein officiating at the ceremonies. Interment was made in the Jewish orthodox cemetery.

FREE! 1-2 dozen Photo-
issue.