HYMENEAL

SCHLOSSBERG-GREEN.

Mr. Louis Schlossberg and Miss Sadie Green were united in marriage at the Orthodox Jewish Synagogue Sunday evening in San Antonio.

The Synagogue was a veritable Eden, being profusely decorated with cut flowers, palms and pot plants.

Messrs. Nelson Lytle and Cydill Dalkowitz, ushers; J. G. Saunders, Claude Hargis, groomsmen; Misses Gertie Smith, Cecelia Picard, bridesmaids; Della Green, Hattie Rabe, maids of honor.

The bride entered on the arm of her uncle, S. Deutchmann, and was met by the bridegroom and his best man, Herbert Green.

The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Solomon.

The bride wore a beautiful lace robe over white satin, she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses.

The maid of honor wore white lingerie gown over white silk. The bridesmaids wore white lingerie gowns over pink silk.

Mr. and Mrs. Schlossberg will be at home to their friends after August 1st at 408 East Laurel St.

HART-NATHAN WEDDING.

A wedding of much interest socially took place on Wednesday evening, June 16th, at Temple Beth Asher, Hallettsville, Texas, when Mr. Ralph Hyman Hart of Waco, Texas, and Miss Lillian Nathan of Eagle Lake were made man and wife.

The temple was transformed into a bower of loveliness, being beautifully decorated in palms, ferns and white chrysanthemums. The ceremony was performed under a beautiful floral bell, Rabbi Warsaw of Waco officiating in his most impressive manner.

Just before the entrance of the bridal party, Miss Olivia Piene of Wharton in her most charming manner, sang "All For You," then to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus, played by Miss Christine Davis of Eagle Lake at the organ, accompanied by Miss Henrietta Kahn on the violin, the bridal party entered.

First came the ushers, Messrs. Mansfield Schwartz of Houston and Isadore Nathan of Eagle Lake. Then came little Miss Selma Kleinsmith of Victoria carrying a white satin pillow on which rested the ring and looking very dainty in a white embroidery dress over blue. Next came Mr. Isadore Friedlander of Waco, followed by Miss Goldye Hart of Waco, sister of the groom, who was attired in white chiffon over satin and trimmings of Princess Louise, carrying pink carnations. Then came Mr. Julius Pearlstone of Palestine, Texas, followed by Miss Reva Davidson of Marlin, who was gowned in white embroidered net over silk and trimmed in Baby Irish, also carrying pink carnations. These were followed by the matron of honor, Mrs. M. M. Landa of this city, a sister of the bride, gowned in a very handsome hand embroidered blue messaline, entrain, and carrying an arm bouquet of white carnations. Then Mr. Abe Hart of Waco, brother of the groom, who acted as best man, was followed by the groom on the arm of his mother, Mrs. S. L. Hart, who was handsomely dressed in black satin. The maid of honor, Miss Annie Nathan of Houston, a cousin of the bride, followed. She was handsomely gowned in pale blue messaline, entrain, with blue and gold trimmings and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations. Following the maid of honor came the bride on the arm of her father, Mr. J. Nathan. Her blonde beauty was enhanced by a lovely imported gown of white satin beautifully trimmed in real lace and pearls and carrying a white morocco Bible with silver mountings, a gift of the groom, from which sweet pease drooped. She wore a white Irish point veil with lilies of the valley. The groom, his best man and groomsmen, were attired in full dress, and made a beautiful combination with the elaborate gowns worn by the bride and her attendants.
