

is spending his vacation in our city.

Misses Bettie and Ruth Goldstein leave this week for a trip to Colorado.

Mr. Abe Simon and Estelle Moscovitz of Houston spent Sunday in our city.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave E. Wolf have returned from a two weeks visit to Bryan.

Mrs. Greenberg and children of Houston are spending the summer here.

Mr. M. T. Karkowski, Jennie Karkowsky and Sara Goot spent Sunday in our city.

Mr. D. Deutchner of Corsicana is spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Phil Simon.

Miss Nina Hellman left for her home in New Orleans after spending a month in our city.

Mr. Michael Cohen has gone to Beaumont where he will accept a position with J. J. Nathan.

Miss Hortense Lewis left last week for her home in Fort Worth, after spending a month in our city.

Mrs. Harrison and children returned to their home in Palestine, after spending three weeks in our city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kauffman are entertaining their daughters, Mrs. Nathan Schwartz of Dallas and Mrs. B. Weil of New Iberia, and their children, Natalie Schwartz and Sarah Weil.

Among the Houstonians visiting our city Sunday were: Mr. Chas Kapner, Harry Greenberg, Louis Weiner, Bud Hart, Beno Schnitzer and Alex Kellar.

AUSTIN, TEXAS.

Mr. Sam Lewis of Beaumont, Texas, spent a week with friends in this city.

Mrs. M. Schlochau will spend next week in Galveston visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Joe Koen is spending the summer with her mother in New York City.

The Misses Pearle and Esther Davis spent a few days in Houston, seeing the sights of the city.

Miss Julia Blum was the encampment guest of the Misses Littman, as was also Miss Beatrice Burg of San Antonio.

Mrs. A. I. Maber, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Nellie, have gone to Corpus Christi to spend the balance of the heated term with Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Weil.

Mrs. L. Heidenheimer and daughter, Adeline, are sojourning through Europe. Miss Margaret Heidenheimer, who has been through finishing school in France, will return home with her mother, while Miss Adeline will remain in school for about two years.

Mrs. L. Littman, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Clara, are spending the summer in Washington, Kansas. Miss Littman will spend a month in Lincoln, Neb., and St. Joseph, Mo., before returning home.

News has reached here of the birth to Mr. and Mrs. Will Kleeman of a fine little daughter. Mrs. Kleeman was formerly Miss Rose Littman of this city.

Among the Austinites who are in New York at the present are: Mr. and Mrs. Abe Williams and Miss Gertrude Moses. Later in the month Mr. and Mrs. M. Davis expect to go.

There were several Jewish boys among the State Militia, who attended the camp of instruction and most prominent among them were Mr. C. M. Kapner of Houston. This young man is the First Lieutenant of his company and was raised to the position of Battalion Adjutant upon his arrival at the camp.

The Greenberg camp, situated about eight miles up the river, wherein Messrs. Henry and Sam Greenberg, Mr. Sam Burstyn and Mr. Sol Stern have their abode during the hot weather, is quite a center of attraction and many guests pay them visits on Sundays, and receive a hearty welcome.

WHARTON.

Mr. W. M. Finklestein of El Campo was here on business Tuesday.

Mr. M. Schiff of Richmond visited friends here Wednesday.

Mrs. Herman Oshman of Houston visited relatives here this week.

Mr. Abe Schiff was in Galveston several days on business.

Misses Mamyé and Bettie Levin of Houston are visiting relatives here.

Mr. J. W. Robinovitz was in Houston several days on business this week.

Mr. N. Rosenberg of Houston visited relatives here this week, little Eastec and Joe returning home with him.

Mrs. Joe Schwartz and little daughter, Beatrice, and sister, Miss Mollie Davis, left Sunday for a week's stay in Galveston.

Mr. T. Gordon and little daughter, Annette, are in Beaumont for a few days visiting Mr. A. Fiegelson and family.

Miss Clara Robinovitz, Miss Sophia Dally and Miss Rosie Davis are expected here Sunday to visit for several weeks with friends and relatives.

BEAUMONT, TEXAS.

Dr. and Mrs. Levy of Mississippi are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. J. J. Nathan.

Miss Nina Hellman of New Orleans will be the guest of Mrs. J. J. Nathan for several days.

Mrs. M. Levy and Miss Lemel of Napoleonville, La., are the guests of Mrs. Louis Meyer.

Mrs. Theo. Danziger leaves for a week's stay in Galveston. She will be accompanied by her guest, Miss Lena Barnett of New Orleans.

Miss Hattie Szafr proved herself a charming hostess when she entertained for Miss Lillie Kline Monday. The Szafr home was beautifully decorated. The porches and lawn were lighted with Japanese lanterns and electric lights. Hearts was the game enjoyed by all. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Gusfield and Miss Carrie Schwartz. The honor guest was presented with a lovely box of stationery. Sandwiches cut in harp shape were served with ice tea, stuffed olives followed by ice cream and cake.

VICTORIA, TEXAS.

J. K. Hexter and family departed the last of the week for the Pacific coast to spend three or four months.

Mrs. Charlotte Dreyfus of New Orleans is here visiting her brother, Ben Dreyfus and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Levi, accompanied by the Misses Mina Ray and Esther and Charles Levi, have gone to California to spend the heated term.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Levi have as their guests their daughters, Mrs. Nathan Westheimer and Mrs. Laurence Munzenheimer, both of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Jules Meyer left Tuesday for Colorado and will be away two or three months visiting in Colorado Springs, Denver, Boulder and other places of interest in that State.

Mrs. Jules Levy was hostess to the Married Ladies' High Five club on Tuesday afternoon, when the prizes were won by Mrs. James F. McCann and Miss Minnie Levy.

PHONE 6841

DR. JAMES MORRIS DENTAL SPECIALIST

FOR THE HIGHEST CLASS OF DENTISTRY

912 Congress Ave., Over Krupp & Tully Shoe Store

During the month of July the subscription price of the Herald will be $1.00 per year; during July only.