STORM WASHES OUT MUCH S. P. TRACK

Trains Tied Up at Kim, Ariz., Where 1000 Feet of Track Is Out.

Tucson, Ariz., Aug. 28.—As the result of a heavy storm Tuesday night, 1000 feet of Southern Pacific track was washed out at Kim, Ariz., 138 miles west of here, leaving unworkable trains Nos. 2, 4, 8, and 10. Work trains from Yuma and Gila are repairing both ends of the washout, and all trains are expected here by 3 o'clock tonight. In the event of further delay, passengers will be transferred to the Santa Fe for the east. The mail and Phoenix sleeper were brought in this morning by freight.

TRAINS TIED UP BY TUCSON STORM

All Southern Pacific Trains From the West Indefinitely Delayed.

All Southern Pacific trains due in El Paso Wednesday from the west were marked "indefinitely late" as a result of a heavy storm which struck the section west of Tucson in Arizona and washed out the railroad tracks at a point about 12 miles west of Tucson. Indefinite reports have been received at the local offices of the road and with the exception of the news that the tracks were covered with water, and that there was no definite time which could be given on the trains, no other word was received. It is said that the storm was more on the order of a cloudburst and that it was this that caused so much damage to the Southern Pacific tracks. The westbound trains were held up at Tucson until the line can be repaired for the trains to pass.

The trains which are indefinitely late are eastbound. No. 10 due in El Paso at 5:12 in the afternoon, and No. 10, due at 9:15 in the evening. The Golden State limited, eastbound, is also tied up on the other side of the washout. It is probable that trains may be made up in El Paso to be sent over the eastern course of the road.

FARMERS NOT TO BLAME, SAYS PRYOR

Tells Commercial Congress They Have Nothing to Do With High Cost of Living.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 28.—There was material for argument in some of the resolutions which were adopted during the second day's session of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress. These, with others, which were likely to be no differences of opinion, were delivered to the committee on resolutions.

A demand that products of farm and ranch be given the same measure of protection as is given other products of the United States was contained in a resolution by Col. Pryor of Texas, who declared that the farmers and ranchers had been blamed unjustly for the high cost of living.

The first rap at the forestry policy of the interior department came in a resolution by Hon. W. W. Clegg, who said that the mining development of the west was being retarded by the department's regulations. There were other resolutions for a trans-continental highway, thanking the president and congress for the appropriation for waterway improvements on the Missouri river, urging a bill for the creation of a division of information in the interior department to direct immigrants to suitable locations in the west, in favor of a department of mines and geology, and a recommendation of further harbor improvements along the gulf coast in Texas. The wisdom and propriety of "seeing America first" in the interior department was also discussed. An address prepared by Louis W. Hill of the Great Northern railroad, J. W. Kelly of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, and others.

"ALL AMERICANS TO BE KILLED ON SEPT. 16"

Gen. Emilio P. Campa, Rebel Commander, Delivers This Threat to an American Mine Operator, After Rebels Had Robbed and Insulted Americans at the San Geronimo Mine, Below Nogales.

Douglas, Ariz., Aug. 28.—"All Americans and other foreigners remaining in Mexico after Sept. 16th will be slaughtered," is message brought to Douglas by Thomas Holland from the San Geronimo mine, 117 miles south of Nogales, and said by him to have been delivered personally by Emilio Campa, when that leader and 400 followers were in San Geronimo.

Holland was foreman of the mine, and as he is an ex-Arizona ranger and customs inspector, he is considered highly reliable. Campa and his men, who were in a very ugly mood, looted the camp, insulted the Americans, robbed them of their personal belongings, and then delivered the warning. Holland proceeded straightway to the Southern Pacific of Mexico railroad and made his escape. While in the city he delivered the message of Campa to United States consul Dye, who has made an official report to Washington concerning it.

A force of 300 rebels is reported to be marching upon El Tigre from the south. The people are said to be making preparations for the defence of the town. There are no federal soldiers there. The townsmen can muster 70 well armed defenders. No word has yet been received as to when the dynamite cases will be selected, was drawn yesterday.

And So True, Too. Father was walking to Sunday school with little Johnny, and endeavoring to improve the time by teaching Johnny his Golden Text, the words of which were: "Whosoever is a man sower, that shall he also reap." Johnny repeated it after his father several times, and seemed to have mastered the correct wording.
