BERINO TO OBSERVE DAY FOR CHILDREN

Berino, N. M., June 29.—The second Sunday in July has been set aside for children's day in Berino.

W. C. Mossman has sold three carloads of cattle to Mr. Speed, of El Paso, since to be delivered July 7.

The new directory issued by the Valley Telephone company shows a good increase over the one sent out four months ago.

A number of people from this district are planning to attend the Fourth of July celebration in Las Cruces.

Invitations were received by many here to the farewell dance given by the young men employed by the U. S. reclamation service, who have been stationed at La Mesa for the past six months.

Those who attended from this side were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Greenwood, Misses Hilda Creamer, Mary Egan and Harry Hinchberger; Messrs. Alfred Creamer, Leslie Hoket and Renick Livesey.

The presiding elder Rev. J. A. Ray, from El Paso, held services here Sunday.

A. W. Churley has returned to Mexico City by way of Key West, Fla., after a two weeks' visit at the Kilgore home.

Mr. Churley is secretary and physical director of the Y. M. C. A. in Mexico City.

Messrs. John Freeman and Jake Sweet, from Las Cruces, motored down and visited at the Mossman ranch. Dan Freeman accompanied them back to Las Cruces.

Mrs. Grace Overman, who has been a guest of Mrs. S. W. Howard the past two weeks, returned to her home in El Paso sooner than expected, because of her son, Paul's illness.

Mrs. W. C. Mossman entertained Misses Abbie and Katherine Kilgore and A. W. Churley at dinner.

George Look, Jr., has left for a trip to Chicago. He expects to be gone a month.

Prof. and Mrs. Sage and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Snow, of Mesilla Park, motored down to Mesquite and went over to La Mesa to visit Mr. and Mrs. F. H. White.

Mr. and Mrs. Bleda Freeman and family and Messrs. George and Fernie Freeman, from Las Cruces, spent Sunday at the Mossman ranch.

Rev. and Mrs. Morris and family were guests of Mrs. Sobbery at Anthony.

Messrs. Desauter and Clarke have returned to Las Cruces, after having spent several days here surveying the Desauter tract of land.

Miss Blanche Brooks, of La Mesa, has been visiting Miss Ruth Newsome, at Vado.

J. I. Gibson and son, Robert, from San Antonio, are here visiting Mr. Gibson's brother, M. F. and C. N. Gibson and his daughter, Mrs. R. L. Hahnel.

The Carpenter family has returned from a 16 days' camping trip in the Organ mountains.

Carl Price and son made a trip to the mountains to look for a camping place. Mrs. Price and family will follow later.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Snyman, Helms, Hocher and Gille Strman were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Viljoen at Chamberlain.

Master Daniel Webster, from El Paso, is visiting his cousins at the Gibson farm.

W. C. Mossman and George Dorsey were visitors to Las Cruces.

Visitors to El Paso have been: Mrs. J. D. Bawlings, Mrs. Carl Fries, Donahy and Donald Price, Miss Willie Kilgore, J. J. Lewis, S. G. Kilgore and Arden Gardner.

FAREWELL DANCE IS WEEK'S SOCIAL FEATURE AT LA MESA

La Mesa, N. M., June 29.—The social event of the season was the farewell dance given by the young men of the reclamation service prior to their departure to Berino. The hall was beautifully decorated in the national colors.

Refreshments were served by the women of St. John's guild. The dance was opened with a march led by Miss Louise Livesey and Bryan Wella Brown.

Those present were: Misses Louise Livesey, Ethel Brown, Mary Cohen, Anita Meade, Pearl Lyles, Ruth Livesey, Harry Richberger, Ruth Grace and Gertrude Hyslop; Hilda Creamer; Messrs. B. W. Brown, R. C. Lites, Leslie Hoket, C. Newberry, J. R. Laverde, C. Kessa, W. Hyland, George and Alfred Creamer, S. D. Hawley, D. Candler, Bugtas Leavelle, Jean Viljoen, R. Sampson, J. H. Wiggins, Guy Adair, W. Herron, W. C. Meade, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Center, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Williams, Col. and Mrs. W. J. Viljoen, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hand, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. White, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Williams, Mrs. and Mrs. A. Gray and Messdames Abba Lynn, Harry Haman, J. R. Livesey, R. J. Viljoen, Henry Reese, Anna Meade and W. B. Desauter.

Rev. Harker Lewis, of Mesilla Park, held services at the Episcopal church Sunday evening.

A. P. Williams is a business visitor to El Paso.

Little William Bartlett, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Bartlett, has been quite ill for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Neitzshman and Mr. and Mrs. J. Priest and family, of Anthony, spent Sunday in La Mesa.

Misses Mary Cohen, of Anthony, and Harry Richberger, of Berino, attended the dance Friday evening.

Miss Ethel Brown, of El Paso, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Viljoen.

In rescuing them, L. Holton lost his right leg when it was caught between a rudder and the steering wheel of a motor boat.

Motorcyclist Arrested. Joe Douglas, fined in justice James J. Murphy's court about two months ago on a charge of riding a motorcycle on which the numbers were too small.

WHEAT THRESHING STARTS IN VALLEY

Kitchen Shower Is Given a Popular Mesilla Bride-elect.

Las Cruces, N. M., June 29.—Wheat threshing in the Mesilla valley started today at several points. On the Fuller ranch, northwest of Las Cruces, Ralph French is threshing a large crop of wheat.

Kitchen Shower Given.

A unique shower was given on Saturday evening to Miss Raye Hinds, of Woodland Orchard, Old Mesilla.

A party of neighbors marched silently to the kitchen door and when Miss Hinds appeared, she was greeted with the din and clatter of kitchen utensils and escorted to a place in the middle of the kitchen floor, where the many useful presents were showered upon her.

Two showers, one a miscellaneous and the other a linen one, were previously given to this bride-elect at Las Cruces. This third shower demonstrates Miss Hinds' popularity in her own neighborhood, as well as among Las Cruces and college friends.

The marriage of Miss Hinds to Prof. Joseph Rigney of State college, will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. Hinds, on Friday afternoon, July 4, at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Rigney will leave on the 4:30 train that afternoon for Cloudcroft, where they will spend a couple of weeks.

H. C. Todrank, special agent of the Santa Fe railroad, was here on Saturday.

Mrs. Theodore Rouault will entertain the Tuesday Bridge club at her home on Griggs street tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. P. R. James has recovered from her recent illness and accompanied her daughter, Miss Helen, went to Organ to spend their summer vacation of a few days.

Messrs. C. K. Cleveland, R. L. Faulkner, Doyle and Bennett drove down to El Paso yesterday in Mr. Cleveland's Buick automobile.

Mrs. W. J. Stevens was able to preside at the pipe organ in the Methodist church yesterday, after several weeks' absence, during which Stanley Brown played the organ.

Ohioans Are Guests.

Mrs. Jennie West, of Kansas City, Mo., and Misses Ravens and Alice Wheeler, of Adamsville, Ohio, are guests in the home of Dr. R. E. Lane, on Griggs street.

The first named is a sister of Mrs. R. E. French and children leave here tomorrow for an extended visit in Missouri.

Jose Lucero and daughter returned last evening from El Paso.

Rev. Thomas Mitchell, pastor of the Presbyterian church, preached a sermon on the subject of "Holiness" yesterday morning.

Special Service Held.

A special service was rendered in the Methodist church yesterday morning as follows:

Prelude, "Prayer for Lohengrin," Wagner.

Hymn 32, congregation standing.

The Apostles' Creed, recited by all, still standing.

Prayer, concluded by Lord's Prayer, repeated audibly by all. Response by the choir.

Anthem, Festival Te Deum, Dudley Buck.

Lesson from Old Testament. The Gloria Patria.

Lesson from New Testament. Offertoire "Lento," Jacassone.

Solo, "These Are They, from 'Holy City,' by Gail Marie Broadbent.

Hymn 133.

Sermon by pastor, "Christ the Life-Giver," John 5:26.

Hymn 169.

Benediction.

Postlude, selected.

Duncan McCowan was down here from his Organ mountain mines for several days.

Elks Win.

The game of baseball played here yesterday afternoon at Jones park between the Elks Grays and the Elks resulted in a score of 11 to 3 in favor of the Elks. The Grays have now suits. The feature of the game was the hitting and fielding by Will La Point, an Elk and editor of the Las Cruces Citizen. He made five hits out of five times to bat. The pitcher for the Elks was Raymond Edmundson, and the catcher Sidney Howard. The catcher for the Grays was "Arizona" and pitchers were Romero and Lopez.

Mrs. F. D. Robison and daughter, Miss Lizana Robison, left here this morning for El Paso, where the former will visit Eugene Davis and family on West Missouri until tomorrow, when she will leave for her home at Spring Hill, Kan. The latter will spend a week with her friend, Miss Marion Lemon, at 1119 Arizona street, El Paso.

CHECK AND MONEY MISSING

HAS HIS ROOMMATE ARRESTED

Vernado Rosa, arrested by the police Sunday night, was charged by complaint filed in the court of justice of the peace E. B. McClintock, with theft from the person. Albert Uller claims that the defendant was his roommate Saturday night at a rooming house on South El Paso street. Sunday morning Uller said he missed a $24.22 check and $24 in money.

Either Saturday or Sunday night burglars entered the house now under construction at Park and Fourth streets and cut down the electrical fixtures which had been put up. The house is almost completed and Will Hoard, the builder, had installed the fixtures. He valued them at $25.
