

FOWSER DOES SOME VERY FAST FIGHTING

Easily Gets Decision Over Lefty Floyd, a Negro, Juarez Arena.

After seven rounds of fast fighting, each being a repetition of the preceding one, Frank Fowser slipped the knockout wallop to Lefty Floyd, the negro lightweight, whom he knocked out in about two minutes on Sunday afternoon at the Juarez arena.

Outpointed and outboxed from the start, Floyd fought gamely, resisting all the punishment which the heavy punches of the local fighter could give.

The boys mixed it fiercely for six rounds, Fowser doing all the landing and staggering the little negro several times with straight lefts. The clever footwork of Floyd saved him from many a hard wallop, while the easy boxing style of Fowser, coupled with the extra 15 pounds in weight, handicapped the negro to such an extent that he was always on the defensive in the clinches. Floyd used a light left uppercut to advantage.

After a minute and a half of scuffling in the seventh, Floyd retreated to the ropes before a fierce onslaught. In a rally in a neutral corner, Fowser swung a hard left to the jaw, the power behind the punch knocking Floyd against the ropes; he rebounded only to receive a terrific right cross, a replica of the blow which sent the championship hopes of Joe Rivers plummeting.

Floyd slumped flat, his neck and shoulders hanging over the level of the platform, wrenching his back. Joe Herrick, referee, grabbed his arm and pushed him back into the ring, as Fowser was preparing for a farewell wallop. Floyd was practically on his feet when Herrick stopped between the boxers and raised Fowser's right hand. Herrick used the best judgment possible in stopping the bout, as the game little negro was out for good.

Referee Ray Gambel handed down a decision in the semi-windup which was not only unpopular with the principals but with the small crowd of fans who witnessed the show. For eight rounds Spider Moffatt, the Oklahoma bantam, jabbed and hooked Young Gene, only to receive a draw decision. The decision was probably based upon the referee's way of thinking that one glancing wallop such as Gene frequently landed offset the valuation which was placed on the swift blow of Moffatt, who pounded Gene around the ring for seven rounds, one being a draw. Moffatt was so impressed at the decision that he attacked the referee, as the latter was leaving the ring. The fight was undoubtedly Moffatt's by a large margin, as the Oklahoma boy beat Gene up far worse than the former beat, when he received the decision.

A former shift worked to perfection by Bob York, sparring partner at the Bristol camp, won the verdict for him against Walter Gray, of San Antonio, after four fast rounds. Herrick gave the verdict to York, and was met with approval.

Kid Lee, of El Paso, and Kid Harrison, of San Francisco, met in a six round bout. The local veteran exhibited a great deal of foot work, and also worked good at distance boxing. Harrison did most of the forcing, with Lee doing the talking trying to "kick" his opponent. Lee got in several ringing wallops and the crowd conceded the advantage to him. Harrison is a clever boxer, who has crowded out and experienced with the top notchers.

DRIVER IS PENALIZED FOR FOLLOWING WRONG COURSE

Contest Brought Out Twelve Minutes Off His Time, Showing Him Back to Third Money in Road Race.

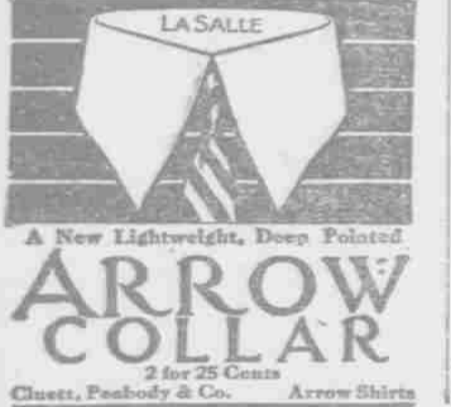

Albuquerque, N. M., July 7.—The American Automobile association contest held yesterday afternoon in mayor Sellers' office decided the protest against William Emblem, of Santa Fe, who drove his Buick car in the road race.

Weichman, who drove J. Caldwell's Vespa, and who covered the distance in 1:22:25-1/2, actual time, gets second money by virtue of the board's decision.

The protest was entered against Emblem immediately after the finish Friday evening. Emblem left the route, going to Santa Fe by way of Alameda. It was charged, although it is conceded he followed the more difficult road. Emblem said yesterday that he did not know that he had taken the wrong road until he reached Alameda. His mechanic made the same statement.

McGrath Exceeds Own Record in Throwing Hammer 188 Feet 7 Inches.

Chicago, Ill., July 7.—Dr. C. C. Cook, of the Chicago Athletic association, won the pentathlon here Sunday, the concluding feature of the eight days of the international athletic games. Cook was first in every event except the javelin, where he finished fifth.

Next to last, the javelin event was a gift to the California men, Kelly and E. Gibson of the Sacramento, Cal., Athletic club, who took first and second with ease.

Matt McGrath, of the Irish-American Athletic club, New York, threw the 16 pound hammer 188 feet 7 inches, breaking his own world's record of 187 feet, 4 inches. The long toss was not stand alone, however, as it was not measured with a steel tape. It was not measured with a steel tape.

Irish Athletes Lead.

The Irish Athletic club, of New York, won a hard fought victory in the National Pentathlon, held at the Elgin Hotel. The Irishmen scored 41 points. The Jew, the negro athlete from the Springfield (Mass.) high school, won the individual honors with first in the 100 yard and 200 yard dashes. Three senior A. A. records were broken.

In the pole vault, Wright, formerly of Dartmouth, was a contestant to the 12 foot mark, winning fourth place. He then tried for a record with the bar at 13 feet, 3 inches, and missed by a scant margin.

Dan Ahern, I. A. C. holder of the world's record in the high jump, set a new senior A. A. record by covering 59 feet. The old record, made by E. R. Bloss, was 48 feet 6 inches, and stood for 28 years. The third mark to fall was that of the hammer throw, which was won by P. Ryan, of the Irish-Americans, with 137 feet 7 3/4 inches. The old record was 137 feet, 6 1/2 inches, made by C. Walsh.

Surprises were numerous, among them being the defeat of such men as Halpin, of the Boston A. C., in the quarter and eighth in the half. Halpin fell a victim to a well run race by Halp, the Michigan star, and Shepard was beaten by Baker and Dermyth, of the New York A. C.

Olympic Star is Defeated.

Charles Curry, a high school boy, furnished the greatest surprise, however, by outrunning Kelly, the Olympic star, in the 200 yard hurdles. It was a good distance for schoolboys. For Drew still comes under that head, and Stiles, of Culver, won the broad jump from a man of such fame at Flat Adams.

Hannes Kolahmmann, the Finnish long distance man, carried the colors of the Irish-Americans to an easy victory in the five mile run. He was more than half a lap ahead at the end.

Barnett, for Silver City, Believes McGlynn, but is Unable to Stop the Runs of the Diggers.

Silver City, N. M., July 7.—Even the efforts of old "Doc" Barnett failed to stem the tide in favor of the Indians here Sunday when the Santa Rita Diggers walloped the local team by the score of 15 to 2. McGlynn, the recent college acquisition of the Indians, failed to add anything on the visitors, and after the Diggers had bunched four successive hits on him in the fourth, Barnett looked from solitary confinement on the bench.

Nine of the Indian willow wielders were fanned by Nolan, who allowed but one hit. Derek, noted as one of the best pinch hitters in the league, saved the local team from a noose egg, by slanting a four timer over the right field bulwark.

"Spizzerinktum"

Devious and many are the ways in which new words are ushered into the English language. For many years F. E. Wright, the publisher of millions of dictionaries, employed in his own vocabulary the pet word, Spizzerinktum. The daily message to all his subordinates was: "Put spizzerinktum in it." Those about him know that this is his "do-it-with-a-punch" admonition.

The newest word in the newest Dictionary, Meaning Vim, Vigor, Energy, Force, Persevering Zeal, etc.

Harry Thurston Peck, Ph.D., LL.D., Litt.D., Editor of the Modern English Illustrated Dictionary, was struck by the force of this word and incorporated it in this modern dictionary.

"The Herald"
