

Giants and Yankees, of New York, Wallop Cubs and White Sox, of Chicago

BASEBALL RESULTS FRIDAY'S GAMES

HOW GREAT MEN PLAY THE GAME

By Scar

Table with columns for American League, National League, and Western League results, listing teams and scores.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

Table with columns for American League Standings, National League Standings, and Western League Standings.

BY PLAYING ON HIS TOES AND SWINGING HIS ARMS WIDE HE MAKES THE PLAY ON EITHER SIDE EQUALLY EASY

HE HOLDS THE BAT FIRM WITH HIS ARMS ALMOST STRAIGHT AND HITS THE BALL WITH A SHORT JERKY MOVEMENT

COLLINS IS ONE OF THE FASTEST MEN IN PROFESSIONAL BASE BALL - HE PUTS THE JUMP IN EVERY PLAY

Ban Johnson, Baseball Napoleon, Unpopular in Many Quarters Now

The Great Director and Organizer of Baseball Has Made Some Breaks That Have Put Him Into the "In Bad" Club for Good.

BY W. J. MACBETH

NEW YORK, July 12.—Ban Johnson used to be a real hero to his American League children. He led them out of the wilderness of the war days into an era of financial milk and honey. But like the celebrated Duke of York with his tormented thousand men, having marched his forces up the hill, the big czar gives evidences of intention to march them down again. The green features of the promised have failed to satisfy.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Ban Johnson used to be a real hero to his American League children. He led them out of the wilderness of the war days into an era of financial milk and honey. But like the celebrated Duke of York with his tormented thousand men, having marched his forces up the hill, the big czar gives evidences of intention to march them down again. The green features of the promised have failed to satisfy.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Ban Johnson used to be a real hero to his American League children. He led them out of the wilderness of the war days into an era of financial milk and honey. But like the celebrated Duke of York with his tormented thousand men, having marched his forces up the hill, the big czar gives evidences of intention to march them down again. The green features of the promised have failed to satisfy.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Ban Johnson used to be a real hero to his American League children. He led them out of the wilderness of the war days into an era of financial milk and honey. But like the celebrated Duke of York with his tormented thousand men, having marched his forces up the hill, the big czar gives evidences of intention to march them down again. The green features of the promised have failed to satisfy.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Ban Johnson used to be a real hero to his American League children. He led them out of the wilderness of the war days into an era of financial milk and honey. But like the celebrated Duke of York with his tormented thousand men, having marched his forces up the hill, the big czar gives evidences of intention to march them down again. The green features of the promised have failed to satisfy.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Ban Johnson used to be a real hero to his American League children. He led them out of the wilderness of the war days into an era of financial milk and honey. But like the celebrated Duke of York with his tormented thousand men, having marched his forces up the hill, the big czar gives evidences of intention to march them down again. The green features of the promised have failed to satisfy.

Collins Leads In Double Play Work

Second Sacker of the Athletics Has Started 16 of His Team's Two-Play Massacres—Chapman, of the Naps, Is a Close Second.

FANS are not in the habit of ruminating their eyesight in studying the fielding records of the major league players, and there are few members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America who build up feature stories regarding the deft work of the pitchers. Eddie Collins, guardian of the White Elephants of the middle cushion, is acknowledged by all experts to be the keystone king of the American league, but when any authority sets out to prove that the Columbia graduate is the peer of his contemporaries he never rushes to the guide books for statistical information on the subject.

FANS are not in the habit of ruminating their eyesight in studying the fielding records of the major league players, and there are few members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America who build up feature stories regarding the deft work of the pitchers. Eddie Collins, guardian of the White Elephants of the middle cushion, is acknowledged by all experts to be the keystone king of the American league, but when any authority sets out to prove that the Columbia graduate is the peer of his contemporaries he never rushes to the guide books for statistical information on the subject.

FANS are not in the habit of ruminating their eyesight in studying the fielding records of the major league players, and there are few members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America who build up feature stories regarding the deft work of the pitchers. Eddie Collins, guardian of the White Elephants of the middle cushion, is acknowledged by all experts to be the keystone king of the American league, but when any authority sets out to prove that the Columbia graduate is the peer of his contemporaries he never rushes to the guide books for statistical information on the subject.

FANS are not in the habit of ruminating their eyesight in studying the fielding records of the major league players, and there are few members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America who build up feature stories regarding the deft work of the pitchers. Eddie Collins, guardian of the White Elephants of the middle cushion, is acknowledged by all experts to be the keystone king of the American league, but when any authority sets out to prove that the Columbia graduate is the peer of his contemporaries he never rushes to the guide books for statistical information on the subject.

FANS are not in the habit of ruminating their eyesight in studying the fielding records of the major league players, and there are few members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America who build up feature stories regarding the deft work of the pitchers. Eddie Collins, guardian of the White Elephants of the middle cushion, is acknowledged by all experts to be the keystone king of the American league, but when any authority sets out to prove that the Columbia graduate is the peer of his contemporaries he never rushes to the guide books for statistical information on the subject.

FANS are not in the habit of ruminating their eyesight in studying the fielding records of the major league players, and there are few members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America who build up feature stories regarding the deft work of the pitchers. Eddie Collins, guardian of the White Elephants of the middle cushion, is acknowledged by all experts to be the keystone king of the American league, but when any authority sets out to prove that the Columbia graduate is the peer of his contemporaries he never rushes to the guide books for statistical information on the subject.

Crucis Bowlers Win Match by One Pin

Hart Wood, of the Cactus Club Duck Pin Team, Secures High Total of 264 in Match Against Las Cruces.

Hart Wood, of the Cactus Club Duck Pin Team, Secures High Total of 264 in Match Against Las Cruces. Wood rolled high total, 264, in the Las Cruces-El Paso duck pin match Friday night at the Cactus alley, which was won by the Crucis team by a margin of one pin. The scores:

Table showing bowling scores for Hart Wood and other players.

Hart Wood, of the Cactus Club Duck Pin Team, Secures High Total of 264 in Match Against Las Cruces. Wood rolled high total, 264, in the Las Cruces-El Paso duck pin match Friday night at the Cactus alley, which was won by the Crucis team by a margin of one pin. The scores:

Hart Wood, of the Cactus Club Duck Pin Team, Secures High Total of 264 in Match Against Las Cruces. Wood rolled high total, 264, in the Las Cruces-El Paso duck pin match Friday night at the Cactus alley, which was won by the Crucis team by a margin of one pin. The scores:

Hart Wood, of the Cactus Club Duck Pin Team, Secures High Total of 264 in Match Against Las Cruces. Wood rolled high total, 264, in the Las Cruces-El Paso duck pin match Friday night at the Cactus alley, which was won by the Crucis team by a margin of one pin. The scores:

Hart Wood, of the Cactus Club Duck Pin Team, Secures High Total of 264 in Match Against Las Cruces. Wood rolled high total, 264, in the Las Cruces-El Paso duck pin match Friday night at the Cactus alley, which was won by the Crucis team by a margin of one pin. The scores:

BASE BALL! Sunday, 3:30 p. m. El Paso vs. Hurley. Copper League Championship will be decided by these games. WASHINGTON PARK. 24 FEET ON SAN ANTONIO ST. BETWEEN OREGON AND MESA FOR SALE CHEAP. INQUIRE 102 SAN ANTONIO FULLAN

SCOOP THE CLUB REPORTER Carlisle Has it All Over Scoop's Grammer School By "Hop"

Comic strip featuring Scoop the Club Reporter and Carlisle. Includes dialogue and illustrations of characters in a school setting.