TWO DEMOCRATS FOR TEA TARIFF

Tillman Offers 10 Cents a Pound Amendment and Is Supported by Bailey.

CULBERSON ON OTHER SIDE

Senior Texas Senator and South Carolinian's Colleague are Lined Up Against Tax—Indiana Senator Opposes the Duty.

Washington, June 26.—Sixteen standpat republicans and two democrats voted yesterday to put a "revenue tariff" of 10c per pound on tea. This amendment, like the recent amendment to increase the duty on pineapples over 100 per cent, was offered by a democrat. The democrat who was so anxious to see that a tax shall be collected from the tea sold in this country, approximately $9,000,000, was Senator Tillman, and the other democratic senator who voted with Mr. Tillman was Senator Bailey.

All the other democratic senators, including Senator Culberson, voted against the proposed tax. Even Senator Smith, Tillman's colleague from South Carolina, which state grows some tea, voted against the amendment.

The efforts of Senator Tillman to get a 10c a pound duty on tea were not unlike the efforts of Senator Tallaferra of Florida to put an increased duty on pineapples, except that eight democrats instead of two, as yesterday, voted for the added pineapple duty.

In the case of pineapples, it was shown that there was an industry which has suffered heavily from competition with Cuban pineapples, but late information received in Washington indicates that trouble lay in that the Flagler railroad, which runs through the Florida pineapple country, discriminated in its rates against the Florida product, and the Florida growers, instead of seeking relief from the interstate commerce commission, appealed to the tariff makers to make up the difference in freight rates, which now favor the Cubans, by putting on a stiffer "revenue tariff" against the Cuban pineapples.

In his discussion yesterday in favor of a ten-cent duty on tea, Senator Bailey uncovered another formidable democratic gun in the person of Senator Benjamin F. Shively of Indiana. The Texas and Indiana senators took opposite sides in the debate. Senator Bailey's espousal of the tea tax drawing from Senator Shively a short but powerful democratic talk on the "hothouse process" of creating industries. Senator Shively has been in ill health the larger part of his stay in Washington, and outside of a legal argument on the maximum and minimum clause of the proposed tariff bill, this effort yesterday was his only participation in the contest over schedules.

DEATH OF TEXAS PIONEER.

Father of Mayor Lasswell Dies at His Home in Bosque County.

Mayor A. Lasswell, who was called to the bedside of his father, A. Lasswell, Sr., at Iredell, Bosque county, last week, has returned. He reports that his father died Saturday afternoon and was buried Sunday. Mr. Lasswell was 91 years old and a pioneer of Texas, coming to the state in 1853. He had been a resident of Bosque county about 35 years and was one of the county's most highly honored and esteemed citizens. He had been a member of the Methodist church 70 years and was made a Mason about 67 years ago.

DESPERATE NEGRO HOLDS POSSE OFF

With Small Caliber Pistol Black Man Fights to the Very Death.

WOUNDS TWO PURSUERS

With the Words "Lord Have Mercy on My Soul," Desperado Falls Dead in Swamp—Riddled With Bullets.

Adrian, Ga., June 26.—Fighting in a swamp with a cheap, small caliber pistol, Robert Jenkins, a negro accused of murder, yesterday held at bay a sheriff's posse until he had wounded two of them, and then crying, "Lord have mercy on my soul," he dropped dead riddled with rifle and pistol balls. Jenkins last week shot and killed George Howarth, a farmer, and fatally wounded Mrs. Howarth. He was tracked to the swamp early yesterday. The wounded possesmen are not seriously hurt.

Practically every man in the posse went lead into Jenkins' body. It is stated that Jenkins was found as the result of his efforts to obtain food from the home of a negro, who sounded the alarm as soon as Jenkins left the house.

The wife of Jenkins is in the jail and considerable excitement has been caused by the assertion that she planned a double murder and ordered her husband to shoot Mrs. Howarth first.

RETAIL MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION

Business Men Planning to Give a Smoker Night of July 12.

The Retail Merchants' Association met in their rooms Monday night, and much interest was manifested. Much work for the interest of the association was discussed, and the secretary, Roy Connally, made a report of his trip to the state association meeting at Temple last week.

It was decided to appoint a good roads committee, and the following were appointed: D. H. Thompson, G. W. McKnight, T. J. Middleton, W. A. Crow, E. B. Prince, B. W. Pearis, W. P. Hood.

A smoker will be given Monday night, July 12, for the purpose of allowing the members to become better acquainted with the objects and plans of the association, and an interesting program will be arranged and refreshments will be served. The following committees have the work in charge:

Arrangement—W. A. Gibson, chairman; R. C. Johnson, John Munroe.

The association now has on its roll of members nearly every firm in Waxahachie, and has decided that it will do much "boosting" for the town, as well as protect the interests of its members in a financial way. It should have the co-operation of every citizen of the town. The dues are nominal, and the benefits to be derived are great. If you are not eligible to active membership, help them boost.

GOOD ROADS IN MADISON COUNTY

The Land Values in One Tennessee County Have More than Doubled.

"Practical Road Building in Madison County, Tennessee," is the title of an article written for the Year Book of the United States Department of Agriculture by Sam C. Lancaster, chief engineer of the Madison County Good Roads commission. In speaking of the practical results which have been attained Mr. Lancaster says:

It has often been said that "good roads mark the line between barbarism and civilization in any country."

A few of our people, appreciating this fact, began many years ago planning to better the condition of the roads and to meet successfully the resistance offered by objectors. Possibly the best has not always been made of the advantages offered, but the fight is being won, and the problem is being solved, locally at least, with a fair degree of success. The ability of a community to improve at least a portion of its more important roads has been demonstrated. A well-built piece of road in every community is the best possible advocate for an extension of the system.

We have in this county approximately 200 miles of important roads—roads possessing more than a neighborhood value—which ought to be improved; we have started at the center, the hub of the wheel, and will push the roads out as far as possible. With lighter grades, and profiling by the experience gained, we expect to have 80 miles of well-improved roads, or, better still, if the prison force is turned to good account, we may hope to have even 90 miles of these good roads when the authorized $300,000 has been expended.

Since the construction of these roads began, in June, 1923, the land values throughout the county have increased, in many instances from 20 to 100 per cent, and the city property has greatly advanced in value. There are no houses "to rent" in Jackson; builders are busy, numbers of new real estate offices have been opened, large tracts of farm land are being subdivided, and prices are being paid which astonish the most far-seeing champion of this new popular movement.

New families from adjoining counties and states are constantly coming in, some to make their homes in the city and others wanting farms on the "good roads." Still others, looking ahead and anticipating profits, have made purchases 5 and 6 miles back from these roads, paying largely increased prices.
