Local Siftings

J. M. Dupree, returned Monday from Kansas City.

Milk and butter delivered twice each day. Phone Hunt's Dairy.

T. O. Earhart was in from Grovesville the first of the week.

Buy your galvanized tanks, milk coolers, flues etc from Cowart & Hamilton Tin Shop.

Dr. C. M. Ballenger has been at Tahoka, all week in the interest of his dentistry work.

Miss Amy McLarry, returned this week from Colorado City, where she has been attending the West Texas Summer Normal.

Cattle inspector, Barr, of Plainview came down Saturday and inspected some cattle that will be shipped from this section soon.

Joe Powell, who has been laid up in bed for the past month with a severe attack of rheumatism is able to be about on crutches this week.

J. T. May, one of the good farmers of Grovesville was in Lubbock Saturday. He placed an ad in the Avalanche, which will probably be of interest to you and a up.

A. U. Wilmoth, candidate for re-nomination to the office of Representative 101st district, spoke to a small audience in the court house Monday morning at 9:00 o'clock in the interest of his candidacy.

Jug Reynolds, returned to Lubbock last Friday, accompanied by a lady who he introduced as Mrs. Reynolds. He is receiving the hearty congratulations from his many friends and associates in Lubbock.

C. E. Parks and J. T. Bullock returned Saturday from a trip to Ballenger and other points southeast on a business trip. They brought back several prospectors who are well pleased with the country and will likely locate in Lubbock county in the near future.

FLY SEASON IS OPEN—The Doctors say the common house fly carries 100,000 germs around with it, leaving its trail of filth and disease. See the Western Windmill Co's. special prices on screen doors, in this issue and buy your screens from them.

J. J. Baker, of east part of Lubbock was in the city Saturday and reports crops in good condition and the rain Saturday night will make it safe for a bountiful yield. Mr. Baker, is one of Lubbock county's best farmers, and says crops of all kind will grow and mature here, with less rain than anywhere he has ever found.

H. A. Smith, of Valleyview an old time friend of B. F. Daugherty, was in our town a few days last week and called on the Avalanche, and told us to send him a copy for one year. Mr. Smith purchased land in this county some time ago and came out to see about how everything was getting along. Mr. Smith, likes this country fine and will likely become a citizen of Lubbock in the near future.

Bob Graves was feeling good Monday and phoned the Avalanche man that his wife was cooking roasting ears for dinner that day and kindly invited us out to dine with him, but owing to the lateness of the hour we could not be present, however Mr. Graves has promised us a roasting ear treat soon and we are longing for that time to come.
