ANNOUNCEMENTS.

WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO ANNOUNCE... WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO ANNOUNCE... WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO ANNOUNCE... WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO ANNOUNCE...

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18, 1884.

THE HERALD this morning appears in a new dress, a summer suit, the style and make-up of which we trust will attract the eye and meet the approval of its friends and patrons.

WHITESBORO, for a year past, has been a local-option town. On last Saturday a new election occurred on the question, and local option was defeated.

THE Gazette asks, would the HERALD know an issue if it met one on the road? Before it gets through with its free-grass problem in favor of keeping back emigration to western Texas, it will think the HERALD knows an issue, and will also think what the Dutchman's son "thinks."

COL. J. W. BOOTH has not yet taken any active steps in his district, so far as can be learned, to be represented in the World's Exposition. It is about time every one interested should be exerting themselves in the cause, and it is to be hoped BOOTH will not be left in the big show.

AN exchange asks how lead pencils are made. CRAWFORD of the Gatesville Advance, answers by saying, by borrowing them and not giving them back to the follow, and then says it is true journalism. He ought to be expelled from the Press Association for willful misrepresentation.

WESTERN TEXAS is now open to settlement by farmers and small stockmen. There is an abundance of lands for all, that can be purchased at low prices. In addition to this, enough of the school lands will be leased to afford the growing children a good education without their daddies being borne down with taxes for that purpose.

For the benefit of the Waco Examiner, the HERALD will state that there is not the slightest probability of any opposition to MR. WELLBORN in this congressional district. MR. WELLBORN'S popularity is unbounded all over this country, and the holding of a convention is merely a matter of form, for he will be nominated by acclamation.

With all his coyness, I won't and I can't and I shan't. WASH JONES will be a candidate for Governor of Texas. COLONEL BOB TAYLOR should unite his fortunes with JONES for Lieutenant-Governor, and they would constitute a ticket the Republicans themselves would be ashamed of. CUNY and GEORGE HAWKINS will be left out again.

The Baird Chenendon says the grain prospect is said to be fifty per cent. better in Calahan County than anywhere between that place and Tarrant County. How is this for a county where "it never rains," and where "nothing but cattle will grow?" And yet the Free-grass organs are adopting the most positive means known to themselves to prevent the man with the hoe and the plow from occupying the country, when they assert that no good lands can be obtained in the Western country.

HOW CAN THE FREE-GRASS PROBLEM BE SETTLED?

There are two parties to the free-grass problem: the one who favors it, and the other who opposes it. The former party consists of those who believe in the right of the landowner to dispose of his land as he sees fit, while the latter party consists of those who believe in the right of the taxpayer to have a say in the matter.

SENATOR DAVIS, of Cooke, holds over for two years more in the Senate. When he opens up on the free-grass question at the next session the fur will fly. He and SENATOR GIBBS were the original advocates in the Senate of a revenue from the school land, and they are as capable as any two men we know of to defend their position.

AN effort is likely to be made to array the anti-English sentiment on the side of BLAINE. The Republican press already emphasizing his action as to disputed fisheries, and on the Port embargo of 1882. English gold, it is asserted, will be used to elect the democrat. The fact is that BLAINE'S friendship for railways insures British commutation. The material English interest in the United States is railway shares, therefore BLAINE is the Englishman's candidate.

OUR Washington special, printed elsewhere, announces doubtless with authority of the General Attorney of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railway, now in Washington, that this road will be built through the Indian Territory, there ports to the contrary notwithstanding. A Galveston special to the HERALD, published in the issue of Saturday, announced that the directory of the road would not build any more at present. The question is, what is the road going to do?

A FRENCH citizen of Wise county was in the city yesterday. He has been a resident of Texas for forty years. His only objection to the lease law is that it only requires at least twenty-five cents to be paid annually for each acre of land occupied, and thinks non-residents ought to pay at least fifty cents per acre. From present appearances the free-grass journals will fill the cattlemen's cup of misery to overflowing.

NO DEMOCRATIC WALK-OVER.

The visit made by SENATOR LOGAN to MR. BLAINE, at the home of the latter, at Augusta, Maine, is significant. But recently MR. WALKER BLAINE, son of the Republican nominee for President, was summoned by his father to Augusta. It is no prediction to state that other visitors of greater or less prominence, will be invited to the home of the Republican nominee. These pilgrimages are the beginning of the systematic plan MR. BLAINE will adopt in his canvass. So far has shown that if he will conduct his own campaign. If this in the end, proves to be a fact, there will be such vigor and brilliant movement injected into the Republican ranks that the country will be kept in a ferment of excitement until the day of election. The Maine leader will bring to the work before him all the qualities of gallant courage and bold adventure that have won for him the fame that he bears. He will make up in aggressive, brilliant movements what he lacks in personal reputation. He will calculate on no easy task, for his political shrewdness will lead correctly to the combined strength of the Independents and Democrats. MR. BLAINE'S canvass will actively engage the attention of the nation, just as his Congressional career made him the head of his party, and forced the admiration of his adversaries. There is no room for a dull policy, or for dull leaders, in the Democratic party in the coming campaign with such an opponent as BLAINE. There must be harmony, wisdom and a platform that reflects the sentiment of the whole people.

THE IRISH FOR BLAINE.

Very oily republicans shake their heads slowly and with half-closed eyes whisper softly "the Irish are all for BLAINE." They may be if they possess the divine attribute of forgiveness to a degree with which they have never yet been credited. But the HERALD cannot believe the Americanized sons of the Emerald Isle will ever love the man who, in his oration of Garfield's obsequies, speaks of their implacable enemy, GLAISTONE, as "that great English statesman of to-day who, confronted with obstacles that would daunt any but the dauntless, reviled by those whom he would relieve as bitterly as by those whose supposed rights he is forced to invade, still labors with serene courage for the amelioration of Ireland and for the honor of the English name."

This morning, read to a crowd of Irishmen who sympathize with their country's woes, would not be calculated to arouse that boisterous enthusiasm for which the patriotic sons of Erin are proverbial. If such be BLAINE'S idea of how a people should be ruled, how would PAR like him for their president?

THE Waco Examiner is in error in stating that MR. WELLBORN is keeping a Republican clerk for his committee. The last Congress was Republican and a Republican clerk was attached to MR. WELLBORN'S committee, whom he retained until the gentleman appointed could reach Washington. MR. ROBERT P. TOOLE, of this city, received the appointment, and hastened to Washington on the earliest day his private affairs would admit of. MR. TOOLE is a staunch democrat and a worthy gentleman in every particular.

A CRAZY MAN CAUGHT.

A Wild Reign of Terror Abruptly Ended. KYLE, June 17.—(Special.)—A madman by the name of Dan Neily was arrested near here by Sheriff Field and deputy, of Caldwell county. The madman claimed to be the high sheriff of Hayes county, and had been fighting people nearly a death in Caldwell county for some time past. The strategem displayed in his arrest was worthy the skill of any office or officers.

"Little Joker" is the best smoking tobacco. The Blaine Happy Family. AUGUSTA, June 17.—James G. Blaine, Mr. Blaine, John A. Logan, Senator Hale, and Miss Dodge, left for Ellisworth this morning. They remain at Ellisworth to-night as guests of Senator Hale, returning to Augusta to-morrow.

HOUSTON TO BLOOM REPEATER.

In the shadows of the White House. The Cleveland-Blaine contest at the State Convention at St. Louis. Other Political Notes.

The New York State Democratic Election. New York, June 17.—Four hundred and fifty members of the county Democratic committee met at Saratoga this morning and also five hundred Tammany Hall delegates. John Kelly said he expected a quiet, peaceable time. Tammany Hall quietly supported the nomination of the National Convention and always would support a party ticket. The friends of the living Hall delegates also left on the same train.

SALE OF THE 500 DELEGATES OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION AT ST. LOUIS. The result of the meeting of the State Committee to-night is anxiously looked forward to. The friends of both Cleveland and Flower are equally positive in expressions of belief in the success of their candidates. The main point of the friends of Cleveland is to secure a vote of the convention for him as a State nominee so as to send a solid pledged vote for him to Chicago. This could be done if it were not for the fact that the convention is not to be held until the 23rd inst. and unless Kelly's influence be for it they are likely to oppose it.

Up to the present hour, Flower has a large number of friends working in his interest than Cleveland, but the majority is not of the delegates. Already the tone of the supporters of both parties has changed considerably. The work is not so noisy as it was, but not so quiet as it was. The Delaware Democracy. WILMINGTON, DEL., June 17.—The following resolution was adopted by the Democratic State Convention to-day: "The Democratic party of Delaware declare its adherence to the doctrine of the party principles and policy avowed in the platform at St. Louis, in 1876, and which have been approved by time and experience; and we trust our delegates in the approaching convention will be guided by the same principles and policy in the selection of a candidate agreeable to all the Flower and Cleveland men. As the strength of CLEVELAND seems greater with the people at large than that of FLOWER, and as CLEVELAND is acceptable to the Independents, it would appear that the New York State Convention has it in its power to lay the foundation of Democratic success in this Presidential year. Among those who look to CLEVELAND as the only available man for the Democratic Presidential nomination it is doubtless a moment of supreme anxiety. New York State must either vote for or endorse the Democratic nominee for the Presidency. This is the first step toward Democratic success.

SPECIAL SPARKS.

Minor Items Gleaned by the Herald's Special Staff.

Light showers fell Monday night and yesterday morning at McKinney. The sale of privileges for Waco Driving Park yesterday netted $100. The weather continues hot and dry at Marshall.

The shipping from Kyle is being increased daily, and a larger freight depot is necessary to prove equal to the increase.

Sheriff Field, of Caldwell county, and several of his deputies, were in Kyle last night on important business.

Superintendent Herrin informed the HERALD's Kyle reporter yesterday that the freight depot at this town would soon be enlarged and a new passenger depot built. Threshing in that vicinity is about ready to begin.

Orrin Robertson, editor of the McKinney Democrat, and Dr. Hoskins, jailer, were arrested yesterday upon indictments by the grand jury. Robertson is charged with assault and carrying pistol; Hoskins with aggravated assault. The difficulty originated in an article reflecting on the management of the jail.

The spring session of the Farmersville Academy, closed on Friday night with a public examination, which was a grand success, and reflected great credit on Professors Dowlin and Harris, as well as students competing for the prizes. For beautiful and healthy location, quiet, centrally situated, and free from morasses, fine churches and excellent schools, Farmersville, the citizens claim, is unequalled.

A German wedding in high life occurred at Elm Creek, near Slatersburg, yesterday. The event was celebrated in true German style.

A pleasant social party was given at the residence of Mrs. Davis, at Kyle, last night.

THE COLLEGE LAW.

Too Much for the Buckeye Jurists.—The Matter in State Court. COLUMBUS, O., June 17.—The Supreme Court announced decisions to-day in the Scott liquor-tax law cases. In that of King vs. Capellar, judgment was affirmed; in that of Leutzman vs. Waybeck, judgment was reversed. This declares the second section of the law, pertaining to the right of societies, un-constitutional, and leaves the rest of the law valid and operative, as heretofore. The question of the constitutionality of the whole law is held not to be raised. The liquor dealers will, therefore, be requested to pay the June collection tax under the law, leaving the matter open for further contest before the semi-annual payment in December.

HYMENS' MITS.

GLASSCOCK—MILVOE. KYLE, June 17.—(Special.)—Yesterday morning at the residence of the bride's mother, Mr. S. C. Glasscock was united in marriage to Miss Maggie Milvoe. Rev. Thomas H. Staets officiating. The contracting parties are among our first families, and will be in the future home. They departed immediately for Houston, Galveston and other points of interest on a bridal tour.

NECROLOGICAL.

General McCandless. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 17.—Gen. William McCandless died this morning. He had been in poor health for years and troubled with a wound received during the war. Gen. McCandless was born in 1833; after the war he was nominated by the Democratic party for Secretary of Internal Affairs and elected after a spirited contest.

RECEIVER GOES TO THE WALL. MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 17.—George P. Sanborn, receiver of the Manufacturers' bank, has failed. His liabilities are about $400,000; assets, nominally $500,000, but he cannot realize on them. Out-of-siders say they will sell for 5 cents a dollar, unless President Cleveland holds to his promise to see that the bank was shabby. The Lake Shore & Western railroad was not touched, and will draw out their funds, rumors having been current for some time that the bank was shabby. WACO, June 17.—(Special.)—Nichols & Robertson, assignees of the National Bank at Crawford, this county, made an assignment to-day for the benefit of creditors. Liabilities, $68,850. The full schedule of assets has not been prepared, and they are said to nearly equal the liabilities. The principal creditors are in Waco, Galveston, Dallas, Fort Worth and St. Louis. C. A. Sturges, of Waco, is trustee.

THE NEWSMAKER ATTACK.—Collin County's Crack Bank. MCKINNEY, June 17.—(Special.)—The sympathy which was felt in this community for J. B. Newsome & Co., of this place, lately attacked on process from

ROSS BRIGADE.

A GALLANT GREY-GLAD HOST. An Incident in its History, Fought by a Boy in Blue, a Tribute to Brave Men by a Blue-Grass Leader and a General of a Legion.

The members of the Association will remember the eloquent tributes paid to the brigade by the orator of the day, at the reunion of the Federal "Army of the Tennessee" in Cleveland, the tributes for its gallant charge and prominent heroism at the battle of Corinth, which was republished in this paper.

Recently a writer in the Detroit Free Press, speaking of the Atlanta campaign, when this brigade, fresh from Rome, Georgia, where it had held the place against the assaulting division Gen. Davis, having its numbers decimated, joined Hood when Ross' brigade covered the extreme right wing of the Confederate army, which was composed of the corps of Gen. Johnston. Hood, all in retreat, Gen. Ross took position near New Hope church, the men being dismounted, and formed a line of battle across the highway leading to Atlanta, the Sixth Regiment being deployed as skirmishers. Gen. Goery was advancing upon this position with his division, says this writer in the Detroit Free Press, in regard to the stand made by Gen. Ross against such overwhelming numbers.

"Neither Hood, nor Davis, nor Johnston devoted their lines to this incident, and yet it is one that should have had a full page in Confederate history. Just as Goery rose the hill across Pumpkin Vine creek, he found the ranks of Hood, the first instant the federals came within range. Right where they made that first stand a fire scared by a dozen bullets, and the firing showing the Federals to be in the thick of it, Goery pushed forward a regiment, but it could not gain a foot of ground. He reformed it with another, and the noise of battle grew louder. He sent in two more regiments, making a full brigade, but it was only when either flank had passed the Texas position and secured a cross fire, was he capable of making good ground. INTELLIGENCE.

A Correspondent Believes the Masses Lack Faculty—This Reason for the Present State of Affairs. DALLAS, June 17.—(Editor HERALD.)—Intelligence is a great misfortune of the masses of the people—the want of taste, a desire for it. It is indifferent to the most important matters connected with their well-being, their success, their happiness—ignorance of the subjects that are the very foundation of their rights, their dearest interests, their civil liberty. Everything is at stake; their religion, their social order, their civilization, and yet they take no thought, they do not know, they make no effort. And what is it? Jim Blaine is the nominee of the Republican party for president of the United States. Before this writing he is a candidate for a house in the United States of this Union but has heard the word: "Blaine is nominated—Blaine is nominated." STATE NEWS.

Free grass is as bad as the deadly poppy, and any man who sows it is guilty of this to his sorrow.—(Fort Worth Democrat.)

Some of the Fort Worth establishments have more money in the gasitic than they have in their store rooms.—Waco Examiner.

The Fort Worth Gazette, the organ of the localities of the free-grass, alone in its "free-grass" heresy and in its opposition to Barnet Gibbs for Lieutenant-Governor. It is amusing to see how it raves because none of the other papers will follow in its wake.—(San Antonio Times.)

Hon. C. K. Bell, of Hamilton, has views which command the respect of the people and which are needed in our laws. He favors a reformatory institution for young criminals, so that they may be separated from the hardened and incorrigible. His views on this subject makes in the canvass for the State.—Meridian Blade.

There is hardly a doubt that the Houston Convention will follow the Fort Worth Convention in abrogating the two-thirds rule, and if so it will be forever dead in Texas. The days of mossa-backism are numbered.—(Brenham Banner.)

The organization of a joint stock company for the purpose of building a large wool warehouse, with separating and scouring attachments will be perfected this week, and work on the building will be commenced at an early date.—(Abilene Reporter.)

The cowboys have a new dodge in the mountains of Texas. They pull the posts out of the ground and place long forks under the wire, and by prying a fence apart and shifting the posts under one wire. This is done to evade the law.

The Marlfield farmers are harvesting their wheat this week; and notwithstanding that the recent hail storm damaged the crop nearly 50 per cent, it is yielding an average of twelve bushels per acre, and wheat of most excellent quality. The result is most satisfactory to those engaged in this business there, and highly encouraging to the agricultural interests of this section.—(Big Springs Pantagraph.)

A tax of four cents a bushel will be sold between now and the end of the campaign in Texas would fit up the Alamo and run the free schools for three years. This has been closely calculated.—(Arlington Work.)
