Anecdote of Daniel Webster.

During one of the college vacations Daniel Webster and his brother returned to their father's, in Salisbury. Thinking he had a right to some return for the money he had expended on their education, the father put scythes into their hands and ordered them to mow. Daniel made a few sweeps, and then resting his scythe wiped the sweat from his brow. His father said, "What's the matter, Dan?" "My scythe don't hang right, sir," he answered. His father fixed it, and Dan went to work again, but with no better success. Something was the matter with the scythe, and it was not long before it wanted fixing again, and the father said in a pet: "Well, hang it to suit yourself." Daniel, with great composure, hung it in the next tree and retired.

Whatever name or designation is given to cause of Fever and Ague, or other intermittent disease, it is always malaria. Eliminate that from the system and a sure cure is the immediate result. The safest, surest, most effectual and, at the same time, perfectly harmless preparation for producing this happy effect, is CLIFFORD'S FEVER-FUGUE. It represents, in its utmost purity and free from all irritating properties, the remedial principles of the East India Cinchona bark, as grown on the Neigherry hills. It is the most powerful antidote to malaria known, and yet as harmless as water.

The new styles of Cabinet or Parlor Organs recently introduced by the Mason & Hamlin Organ Co. are said to be the finest instruments of this class which the world has produced, both in their musical capacity and elegance of case. One style of organ with nine stops, which sells for cash at from $114 to $140, according to elegance of case, is especially desirable. Such is the demand for it that they are scarcely able to supply it, though they have more than one thousand organs of this single style under way, and turn out more than one hundred per week.

This justly-celebrated medicine regulates the Liver, promotes digestion, and fortifies the system against malarial diseases.

Extract of a letter from Hon. Alexander H. Stevens: "I occasionally use, when my condition requires it, Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator, with good effect. It is mild, and more effective than more active remedies."

TESTIMONY OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE OF GEORGIA—I have used Simmons' Liver Regulator for relief of my bowels, caused by a long-sustained engagement of the liver, for the last three or four years, and always, when used according to the directions, with decided benefit. I think it is a good medicine for the derangement of the liver—of fact, such has been my personal experience in the use of it. HERMAN WARNER, Chief Justice of Georgia.

"NOW I LAY ME DOWN TO SLEEP."

THE CHILD'S FIRST PRAYER, Which begins as above, is the most tender, touching and comforting petition which is ever offered to the Supreme Being. It is universal in its application, and has been repeated by millions in the past, is now repeated by hosts of children, and will be repeated by countless numbers in all ages to come.

We have, at a great expense, reproduced the celebrated French engraving embodying the spirit of this prayer, and the original has been exhibited for nearly twenty years, and has excited more genuine admiration than any other picture in this vast collection. It is only since the fall of the Empire that this engraving has been copied, owing to the terms on which it was presented the museum. Over 100,000 copies have been sold in Paris and elsewhere within the past six months at 25 francs (35) each. Woven in the finest quality of silk, and has been pronounced by the best connoisseurs of fine engravings that the sale will be totally unprecedented in this country. Certain it is that this is one of the finest subjects in the whole range of art, and that it will touch a responsive chord in every mother's heart. The prayer is engraved in full in clear, handsome letters upon each copy, and there is no more appropriate gift for a parent to present to a child than a copy of this magnificent work of art. No more appropriate picture can be hung in a child's chamber, and the gift of this engraving will last in after years as a souvenir of childhood's days and a parent's love—priceless in value and fragrant with precious memories.

We may here mention that one of the largest art dealers in New York offered to pay $1 royalty on each copy, and sell none for less than $5, if he could have the agency for the United States. We do not send this matchless Engraving, post-paid, to your address.

On Receipt of $1. In addition, every purchaser will be presented with six months' subscription to the Boston Weekly Globe, free of all expense. THE WEEKLY GLOBE is a family news and story paper, with stories by celebrated authors, an able agricultural department, all the news of the day, a church column, puzzles, riddles, and home topics for the young, table gossip, choice miscellany, full market reports, etc. etc.—8 pages and 48 col. units in all. Address: MRS. H. B. WOOD, THE WEEKLY GLOBE, 236 and 238 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.
