PUBLISHED WEEKLY AND ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT SAN MARCOS, TEXAS, SECOND CLASS MATTER.

SAN MARCOS, TEXAS, THURSDAY, DEC. 13, 1888.

ALL COMMUNICATIONS FOR THE FREE PRESS should be sent in on Monday to insure insertion the same week, and all advertisements and business notices not later than Wednesday noon.

FORFEITURE no communication published unless the writer's real name accompanies it, not for publication unless desired; but for our own benefit and protection.

The debt of the state of Missouri amounts to $17,000,000.

The popular Fort Worth Gazette appears in a beautiful new dress.

The official vote of Kansas gives Harrison a plurality of 89,159. The Union Labor candidate received 37,787 votes, and the Prohibition candidate 6,879.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has a plurality of over 110,000 of the popular vote of the United States. Notwithstanding our defeat, the country still remains Democratic.

ACCORDING to the secretary of the interior, the number of Indians in all parts of the United States is only 246,095, and soon there will be none left to tell the tale of how the race was destroyed.

The Florida crop of oranges for the present season is estimated at 3,000,000 boxes of 150 oranges to each box. The crop, though very large, will not supply one-half the demand of the trade.

GENERAL LONGSTREET is named by many Republicans as a very proper man for a Cabinet position in the coming Harrison administration, and he will no doubt be named for that or some other important office.

A RECORD of the presidential Prohibition vote is by no means discouraging to the adherents of the cause. Here it is: In 1876 it was 9,522; in 1880 it was 10,305; in 1884 it was 151,809, and at the recent election Fisk received 239,368 votes.

The United States grand jury, now in session at Indianapolis, has 400 cases to investigate for violating election laws. Among the number there is one against Col. W. W. Dudley for writing his infamous letter, advising the purchase of flouters in "blocks of five."

It is odd that while we have the official returns from all other states, that of Texas (save the vote for president) has not appeared, to the best of our knowledge. Surely, under modern methods of counting votes, we should have had it at least a month ago.

We are indebted to W. A. Kendall, superintendent of the Texas Deaf and Dumb Asylum, for a copy of the Thirty-second Annual Report of that institution. It indicates improvement and progress. We notice a memorial page is given to the late Ed. Christian, who was a trustee of the institution.

The Message—More than We Promised. Instead of the brief summary of the President's admirable message which we promised in our last, we have the pleasure of laying before our readers herewith a very full one—two-thirds or more of the whole. It is a fit winding up of the late "educational" political campaign, and should be read by all.

The official vote of the state of New York shows that President Cleveland received 1,177 more votes above Harrison than were cast for Gov. Hill. In New York city, Brooklyn and the two counties on Long Island, Gov. Hill led Mr. Cleveland 15,668 votes, and this is where President Cleveland lost the vote of New York, and not among the farmers as has been supposed.

The spirit of mobocracy received a fearful set back the other day at Birmingham, Ala. A mob mustered in force to break into the jail and lynch an alleged murderer confined in it. The sheriff, as a last resort, fired into the crowd, killing three, fatally wounding seven, and injuring more or less about thirty others. Great excitement prevails and the militia has been called out.

The Colorado Citizen has the following sensible paragraph:

The papers continue to prate of "Harrison's Southern policy," as if a policy distinct and different were needed for the South in contradistinction to the policy established for the North. If the president elect is the man he is represented to be, he has long ago arrived at the conclusion that he was elected president of the whole United States. The South asks no special favors not accorded other sections, but desires a firm and

THE SAN MARCOS FREE PRESS talks about the San Marcos Chautauqua and leaves the impression that it is still to be one of the attractions of that place. The Journal has been led to believe by those in a position to know, that the Methodists had decided to abandon San Marcos and go to Georgetown. They are not pleased with the manner in which they were treated by some of the enterprising citizens of that place, hence their decision to go elsewhere.

We find the above in the LaGrange Journal. We "guess" the Journal's informant was a gentleman who had official connection with our Chautauqua last summer, and did not give satisfaction as such to "the Metho lists" and others, and who is now working in the interest of Georgetown. We further "guess" that the wish was father to the thought with him of the failure of Chautauqua at San Marcos.

To PROF. W. H. VENABLE, the author, we are indebted for a copy of his new work, entitled "Early Periodical Literature of the Ohio Valley." It is a pamphlet of 47 large double-column pages, attractive to the eye, and of much more than ordinary interest. To us especially, as relating to our native land and to men and things there with which we were more or less conversant, it is of peculiar interest, while as a memorial of the literary progress of the West during its pioneer period, it possesses genuine and general historic interest and value. Copies, we presume, may be had by addressing the author at Cincinnati.

Staples Store. The political smoke has cleared away and we are all making preparations for the Harrison blitzard.

Our chickens down this way are crowing unusually early. Mrs. Flat attributes it to the young members not knowing better. Our people have barely anything to talk about except the neighbors and the weather. "Neighbors" is a little ahead of "weather." Neighbors are fanning gender gossip, and of course when we want to learn anything about our neighbor we only ask our wife. She knows how many cows neighbor Jones milks, and how much neighbor Smith owes neighbor Brown, for Mrs. Jones said Mrs. Williams said Mrs. Smith told Mrs. Jones so. Although women are a pretty good institution and I like to hang around them only on rainy days when a stove fire is about out, then you bet there's row if it don't come up all right. Just last week Mrs. Flat's stove would fall to come up to time, and the result was my having to jump from the summit of an elm tree that came near causing indignation. I was induced up the tree with an ax to ascertain if stove wood of course, and after making three or four lively strokes (you know how a fellow will work when a lady is around) I distributed the kindling of a wasp nest.

These stars don't mean anything is left out, gentle reader. My boots are yet down there and a slippery elm poultice over my eye. Mrs. Flat has turned the cook off and declares her intention of moving to a wood country. I suggested Kingsbury, to which she readily assented (you know women are always ready for you, and they most always go off rapid). I am glad she has struck that idea for we have about two years supply of old clothes that we can comfortably wear and economize with big fires. I had never thought of that idea, and I will suggest it to anybody who has a number of old clothes and are ashamed to wear them where they are likely to be seen. I shall move after Christmas. DR. FLAT OF GEORGETOWN.

Mr. Powderly's Triumph. Mr. Powderly's enemies among the Knights of Labor have signally failed to destroy the confidence placed by a majority of the members in their general master workman. They have been very active and bitter at the Indianapolis convention, as they were at Minneapolis a year ago and at previous annual meetings. But in the face of all their charges, and notwithstanding the recent great losses in membership and the bad financial condition of the order, Mr. Powderly has been chosen to his old position, with more power than ever before, by a vote of 114 to 28. The other officers are mainly of his own selection. While expenses were reduced in nearly every other direction, the salary of the general master workman remains $5,000 a year.

The faith which Mr. Powderly has inspired in his fellow-members is probably not misplaced. The Knights of Labor, though still weakened by dissensions, have now a fair chance of enjoying renewed prosperity under the conservative leadership of their trusted general master workman.—Chicago News.

Joel Barlow's Remains. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec 4.—The remains of Joel Barlow, a soldier, poet and ambassador, have lain in a foreign land since he succumbed to the rigors of the terrible winter in which Napoleon and his army made their famous retreat from Moscow. The other members of his family lie at rest in the family vault on Kolorama Heights, just beyond the boundary of this city.

Senator Platt to-day presented to the Senate a petition from the Fairfield (Conn.) Historical Society, urging Congress to take measures for the removal of Mr. Barlow's remains and their interment in the family vault until a new repository can be secured.

Printing. The Free Press office has again in stock a new variety of stationery for letters and all kinds of cards. It has the best facilities, and the best prices. It will therefore be your interest to give us your orders.

WASHINGTON LETTER. (From our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 7, 1888.

Senator Harris by a motion to lay the Senate tariff bill on the table, brought out the fact that the Republican Senators will vote solidly in favor of that measure, notwithstanding the fact that several of them are known to be bitterly opposed to certain sections of the bill. Several explanations are given for this action by parties who profess to know. One is that Harrison has stated that he wants the bill passed at this session, and that those Republicans that are opposed to it are afraid to vote against it, lest they thereby lose their share of patronage under the new administration; another is, that they know the bill will not pass the House and only vote for it to keep up appearances of harmony in the Republican ranks until after Harrison is inaugurated, leaving the quarrel that is believed by many people to be inevitable over the tariff until the next session, when they will control both House and Senate.

The president's message was an able statement of the position of the Democratic party on the tariff and other matters of importance; the ideas expressed therein could not have been improved. Statements like the following from the message are ponderous with state-manne wisdom: "He mocks the people who propose that the government shall protect the rich, and that they in turn will care for the laboring poor. Any intermediary between the people and their government, or the least delegation of the care and protection the government owes to the humblest citizen in the land, makes the boast of free institutions a glittering delusion and the pretended boon of American citizenship a shameless imposition." "Extraneous appropriations of public money with all their demoralizing consequences should not be tolerated, either as a means of relieving the treasury of its present surplus, or as furnishing pretext for resisting a proper reduction in tariff rates." "It cannot be denied that the selfish and private interests which are so persistently heard when efforts are made to deal in a just and comprehensive manner with our tariff laws, are related to if they are not largely responsible for the sentiment largely prevailing among the people that the general government is the fountain of individual and private aid; that it may be expected to relieve with paternal care the distress of citizens and communities, and that from the fullness of its treasury it should, upon the slightest possible pretext of promoting the general good, apply public funds to the benefit of localities and individuals. Nor can it be denied that there is a growing assumption that as against the government and in favor of private claims and interests, the usual rules and limitations of business principles and just dealings should be waived. These ideas have been unhappily much encouraged by legislative acquiescence. Relief from contracts made with the government is too easily accorded in favor of the citizen; the failure to support claims against the government by proof is often supplied by no better consideration than the wealth of the government and the poverty of the claimant; gratuities in the form of pensions are granted upon no other real ground than the needy condition of the applicant, or for reasons less valid; and large sums are expended for public buildings and other improvements upon representations scarcely claimed to be related to public needs and necessities."

The House yesterday by a unanimous consent took up the direct tax bill, which caused the long deadlock last spring. It is expected that it will be passed, but hopes are expressed by its opponents that Mr. Cleveland will veto it.

Mr. Harrison's backbone is likely to suffer a severe strain between now and the fourth of March. The Republican leaders have determined upon having an extra session of the fifty-first congress called to meet late in March or early in April. There is not the slightest necessity of an extra session; the republicans acknowledge that the only object in having it called is to gain the six Senators and as many Representatives as South Dakota, Montana and Washington, when admitted as states, shall be entitled to. They have decided that owing to their very narrow margin in both Houses, this action is necessary in order to enable the new states to organize and send their Senators and Representatives in time for the beginning of the regular December session. It remains for Mr. Harrison to decide if he will allow his party leaders to compel him to call a needless session for the sake of a few extra votes.

One of the questions of the day is: What is the use of paying so much per foot for wood carpet when you can have the bare floor for nothing? "The surest test of a frozen orange is its weight," remarks an exchange. We had always supposed it was its temperature.

A serious blow—a cyclone.

Farmers, read this Twice.

There is probably no progressive farmer in Texas who has not seen and read a copy of THE FARM AND HOME. It is an ILLUSTRATED AGRICULTURAL AND FAMILY PAPER of the highest order, and is published weekly at Dallas, Texas, at $100 per annum, in advance. It is published by the Southern Farmer, Inc., 215 Broadway, New York City. It is the only paper of its kind in Texas, and is the most valuable and interesting paper published in the South. It contains all the latest news and information for the farmer, and is a must for every progressive farmer. It is published by the Southern Farmer, Inc., 215 Broadway, New York City.

It is a pleasure to me to see that the granting of some of the requests for relief and other matters of interest to the people, and if the interest in the name of the government, there is danger that the people will be misled by the false and insidious statements of those who are opposed to the measure. The department of agriculture has continued with a good measure of success its efforts to develop the resources of the country, and to increase the profits of American industry. It has not only increased the production of our agricultural products, but it has also increased the production of our manufactures. The department has also succeeded in securing to our people the highest quality of goods at the lowest prices. The records of the year show that the season of 1888 has been one of the most successful in our history. A surplus of production has been secured, and a surplus of exportation has been secured.
