WOMEN KLUCK Hammers Allies

Germans May Be Trying to Weaken Allies' Pressure on Alsace, Is Belief.

BRITISH CLAIM GAIN OF A MILE

French Assert Germans Captured Town of St. Paul, But Were Driven Out.

LONDON, Eng., Jan. 15.—The violent German attack to the north of Soissons under the direction of Gen. Von Kluck, which has forced the French back across the Aisne river, is the most striking news of the last 24 hours from the seat of war.

Snow in the Vosges mountains and floods in Flanders still prevent any extensive operations on the eastern or western wings, and to British observers it appears as though the Soissons front, strongly entrenched positions, and first line troops, the Germans are displaying once more the hammering tactics so familiar during the autumn.

The British claim to have won a marked success January 10 near La Bassée, when they drove the Germans from strongly entrenched positions, gaining one mile in distance and inflicting severe losses on their antagonists.

There has been no change of importance in the eastern arena of the war. The French official report today refers very briefly to the military situation to the northeast of Soissons, and says the Germans Thursday occupied the village of St. Paul, close to Soissons, but the French at once drove them out.

With the exception of the customary artillery exchanges, a spirited infantry encounter in the Vosges, in which the French claim the victory, and a successful infantry charge near Arras this afternoon's report contains little that is new.

French Gains Near Beerselre. The official communication says in part: "From the sea to the Lys there were artillery engagements Thursday, some of them quite spirited. We made progress near Beerselre. North of Arras a brilliant attack by zouaves resulted in the capture, at bayonet point, of the positions of the enemy near the road between Arras and Lille."

At a point two kilometers (a mile and a quarter) northeast of Soissons, the Germans Thursday attacked the village of St. Paul. They entered the village but we lost no time in recapturing it.

Shence German Batteries. In the region of Croisne and near Incheux there were violent artillery engagements during the course of which the batteries of the enemy were frequently reduced to silence.

In the region of Perthes in the Arras and on the heights of the Messines there has been nothing important to report. We have investigated the foothold set up by the Germans over the river Meuse at St. Mihiel, and in the forest of Ally we repulsed an attack upon the trenches taken by us January 8.

British Storm Troopers. The Havas agency has received a dispatch from St. Omer, dated January 10, which relates a British victory and an advance near La Bassée of one mile. The message follows: "The British, by an impetuous attack, stormed the strongly entrenched German position near La Bassée at 3 o'clock this afternoon after vigorous preliminary shelling. This is an important strategic point and its occupation represents an advance of one mile. The British losses were slight while the Germans lost heavily. Many Germans were taken prisoners."

German Report. The German war office at Berlin today gave out an official statement as follows: "Some torpedo boats appeared Thursday off Westende. They were accompanied by small craft which approached to within nine miles of the coast. "French attacks on both sides of Notre Dame de Lorette, northwest of Arras, were repelled by us."

Germans Again Lose Trench. "A trench which we took eight days ago from the enemy near Scarpe, and which had since been occupied by a portion of our companies, was lost by us. The fighting in this locality continues to rage today."

French Driven Across the Aisne. "The northern bank of the river Aisne, to the northeast of Soissons has been cleared of French troops. By continuous fighting we were successful in taking villages north and northeast of Soissons. The French suffered heavy losses. Their retreat to the south of the Aisne took place under the fire of our heavy artillery. The conditions which obtained in this battle were very similar to those which prevailed in 1870. Even though the two battles north of Soissons are not comparable to those of Aug. 23, 1870, the battle field was about as wide as that at Gravelotte and St. Privat.

The French made a very strong attack north of Verdun, near Convoysen on our positions near Ally, but were repulsed by us.

Benica Back From Trenches. "In the region of St. Mihiel, the French delivered some attacks. They reached our front line of trenches but were beaten off by counter attacks and sustained heavy losses. During fighting Thursday night our troops occupied some of the positions of the enemy, but after rebuilding our positions, voluntarily left them taken from the enemy without a contest.

HUDSPETH'S BILL IS PASSED BY SENATE

Court Over Which He Was Appointed To Preside May Continue.

WILL SPEND ONLY $500 ON CAPITOL

Senate Cuts Down Hudspeth's Figures from $5000; Inauguration Tuesday.

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 15.—In the senate today senator Claude Hudspeth's bill making permanent the special district court at El Paso was passed.

The district is known as the 43th district. This special court had expired on January 1, 1915.

The special district court was created to clear the docket of the 34th and 41st district courts, which were overcrowded. Judge J. N. Sledge was appointed as the presiding judge, but later resigned and senator Hudspeth was appointed to take his place.

Senator Hudspeth was operated on for appendicitis and was unable to remove the supervision of the livestock sanitary commission, and also quarantining against other states in bringing into Texas live stock and also to reduce some of the furniture, was adopted. The committee, however, reduced the appropriation from $5000 to $500.

Tenant Farmer's Son a Page. Pat McDaniel, aged 13, the son of a tenant farmer, who was appointed page in the senate by lieutenant governor Hays, reached the capitol and assumed his duties. The boy came from DeKalb, Bowie county. This is the first time, as far as is known, where the son of a tenant farmer has been made a page in the state senate. The boy is bright and intelligent. It was through the good offices of "Farmer Gus Shuck" that he got the position.

House Passes Expense Bill. The house today passed finally the mileage and per diem and contingent expense bills, carrying appropriations aggregating $2,000,000.

Ninety-one bills and eight joint resolutions were introduced and a large number of amendments to the rules were referred to the committee on rules. Representative Wagstaff was made chairman of the permanent committee on rules.

Joint Resolution was adopted providing for the counting of the vote for governor and lieutenant governor next Monday and arrangements made for the inauguration ceremonies on Tuesday.

Gov. Ferguson announced today that he will officially announce today that Gov. Ferguson would reach Austin Sunday.

Among the bills introduced in the house was an act to amend the act, passed after the Mann act.

Three liquor bills were introduced, one repealing the Allison liquor law and one placing an occupation tax on liquor dealers and the third amending the law on collecting orders.

Pres. Are Jubilant. Pros. in the legislature are jubilant today over the result of the election of representative John W. Woods of Fisher county, as speaker. Speaker Woods in his speech of acceptance evidently struck the keynote from the point of view of his friends and supporters that the "political machine" in the house has been smashed. Close observers of the speaker's contest declare that it was through the instrumentality of representative Rowell of Hunt county, that the Fisher county man was elected, as the friends of Mr. Williams are said to have been laboring under the impression that Rowell would support Mr. Williams, but he came out for Mr. Woods. It is said there were at least 100 members of the house who were guided by Mr. Rowell in the speaker's contest.

Senator Terrell has abandoned his plan to have passed, before the inauguration of Gov. Ferguson, any legislation seeking to amend the Addison liquor law. Woods as speaker assures the consideration of liquor legislation at this session.

Many of the members are of the opinion that Gov. Ferguson will not adhere to the sized he took in the campaign which was to the effect that he would not give consideration to liquor legislation.

May Give Liquor Laws. The election of Mr. Woods has given rise to considerable speculation as to how he will get along with the new

The War At a Glance

BRITISH victory, not recorded in the official statements from Paris or Berlin, and described as important, is reported unofficially from St. Omer, France. It is said that on January 10 the British stormed the German entrenched positions near La Bassée, in France, about 10 miles east of the Belgian border, driving back the Germans with heavy losses and advancing one mile. The positions involved are of considerable strategic value, but confirmation of their reported capture is lacking.

Heavy fighting continues near Soissons, where the Germans have won important advantages over the allies. Near Perthes, in the Argonne region, the British, and elsewhere along the western front, where recently there have been heavy engagements, activity has been reported. The present military situation in the west apparently has been subordinated for the moment to the Soissons region, where the outcome may decide a marked influence on future operations over a long stretch of the front.

Believe Germans Worn Out.—Petrol is confident that the German offensive movement in Poland has spent itself and the war zone between the Russian and German forces have made great gains along the Vistula. Gen. Von Hindenburg's troops are now occupying strongly entrenched positions, however, and there are no indications that they are threatened seriously by the Russian attacks.

Turks Further Penetrate Persia.—The Turkish forces which penetrated Persia, occupying Tabriz, are now advancing into the interior. Russia explains her evacuation of Tabriz as due to strategic reasons which are not being disclosed.

Rise of Hungary.—The opinion is held by military officers here that the German staff is attaching new importance to the Hungarian situation. The appointment of baron Stephan Burian as Austrian foreign minister, in succession to Count Von Berchtold, is expected to put an end to discussion of a separate Russian peace with Austria, which is said here to have been favored by Von Berchtold. His position, according to these reports, was that Austria should sacrifice her resources to protect Hungary and Serbia from invasion.

Baron Berian, a Hungarian Slav, is an intimate friend of Count Stephan Tisza, the present premier. He was a realtor of Moscow for a number of years and is familiar with Russian affairs and the Pan Slavic movement. He is said to have an uncompromising fight against Russia.

Ten Thousand Jews Now Fight in British Army.—London, Eng., Jan. 15.—More than 10,000 Jews are now serving in the British army and navy and the army casualty lists show six officers and over 40 enlisted men have been killed and 150 reported wounded or missing in addition.

These Jews are compiled by the Rev. Michael Adler, the senior Jewish chaplain to the forces. The Rev. Adler has a son in the Royal Fusiliers, and he himself expects to leave for the front soon.

"Before the war," says the rabbi, "there were only 300 Jews in the service. Since the war all sections of Jewry, rich and poor, have responded.
